

Society

Dr. W. R. Brown has returned to his office after an absence of a few weeks.

Mrs. James Schat announces the marriage of her daughter, Anna McKnight to William H. Smeltzer. The ceremony took place Wednesday July 25, with Bishop O. M. Sanderson officiating.

In compliment to Mrs. Franklin D'Olier, wife of the commander of the American Legion, officers of the Service Star Legion of Ogden, Mrs. J. U. Eldredge, Jr., Mrs. J. G. Falck and Mrs. David Eccles entertained Friday afternoon at a trout and chicken dinner at the Hermitage hotel. After an hour enjoyably spent in social chat dinner was served in the spacious dining room of the hotel. The president, Mrs. Eldredge, spoke a few words appropriate to the occasion, welcoming the guests in the name of the Service Star Legion. Mrs. J. G. Falck gave a toast to the near and associate relatives of United States service men. Mrs. D'Olier who is touring the United States, says that Ogden members of the Service Star Legion were the first to entertain in her honor.

Kathryn Smyth of Laramie, Wyoming, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Smyth during the last two weeks.

Mrs. Fred Gentich and son Frederick have returned from a two month visit in the east.

The Ogden Federated W. T. C. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. H. Houtz at 425 Twenty-eighth street, Wednesday, August 4.

Mrs. Dan Todd and niece, Miss Edith Barrow of 2614 Lincoln avenue entertained in compliment to Mrs. W. S. Sylvester, Mrs. L. N. Miller and daughter, Mildred of Denver, Colo., at a character party Wednesday evening. The attending guests were Mrs. L. Crane, Mrs. Ida Carrell, Mrs. Houston Dayluff, Mrs. H. Garrett, Miss Fanny Hilton, Miss Dagman Hansen, Miss Esther Clark, Miss Edie Martin, Miss Marjorie Flenn and Miss Lillian Hoesco. A pleasant evening was enjoyed in music and games. Refreshments were served.

Miss Mary Stephens has returned from Bear Lake, where she spent several days at ideal beach. Miss Stephens also visited several points in Idaho and Wyoming as the guests of friends and relatives. Miss Stephens was absent about a month.

Mrs. C. W. Vandy departed during the early part of the week for Glacier House, Montana, where she will visit for two weeks.

Mrs. Clarence Henry Lamberon, formerly Miss Martha Rugg of Ogden, whose wedding took place Monday, July 26,

Mrs. Emmett A. Schilling, formerly Miss Nona M. Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blair, whose wedding took place on July 24. Mr. and Mrs. Schilling are making their home in Cheyenne, Wyo., where Mr. Schilling is established in business.

Mrs. Fredric William Steck of Colorado Springs, Colo., who has been spending the summer with her sister and mother, Mrs. C. E. Fish and Mrs. Creveling. Mrs. Steck is the possessor of a rich contralto voice and has entertained many during her visit in Ogden.

Mrs. Dan Todd and niece, Miss Edith Barrow of 2614 Lincoln avenue entertained in compliment to Mrs. W. S. Sylvester, Mrs. L. N. Miller and daughter, Mildred of Denver, Colo., at a character party Wednesday evening.

The annual Field Day of the Historical society was observed Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Gertrude Carr opened the doors of her home, on Harville avenue, to the members. The day was observed in true picnic style, each member starting in the preparation of a delicious luncheon.

Brigham Society

The marriage of Miss Olive Jensen of this city and Mr. Rae P. Stratford of Pocatello took place Saturday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neils Jensen.

A social meeting of the Silver Review No. 1, W. E. A. O. T. M. will be held Wednesday evening August 4, in the W. O. W. hall. All members are cordially invited.

Members of the Service Star Legion will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. G. Falck, 1121 Twenty-fourth street.

Miss Margaret Jenkins, Miss Sadie Bergerman, Miss Erna Davidson and Miss Eva Moeve have returned from an enjoyable trip through Yellowstone park.

Salt Lake Society

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Patton of Centralia, Wash., announce the marriage of their daughter, Inez Patton, to Lynn S. Gillham of Salt Lake. The ceremony took place July 15 at the First Christian church, Centralia, W. and Mrs. Gillham are now at the New-house hotel after a brief honeymoon at Lake Tahoe.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Howard are spending two weeks at the Hotel Alexandria in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Allen and daughter, Phyllis, have returned from an extended visit to Illinois, and are at home at the Lakeview apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Johnson and son, Wellington and niece, Marion, have gone to Bear Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Magid and two sons, Mortimer and Henry, are spending a week at Balsam Inn, Brighton.

Joel Nibber spent the week-end with his family, who have a cottage at Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Schramm and Mrs. Schramm's sister, Miss Martha Coman, are touring Yellowstone.

Mrs. H. C. Johnson and daughter, Miss Frances Johnson, of American Fork, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Harry David Kline at the Midgley apartments for a few days.

Mrs. Ada R. Marck of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Mrs. L. A. Ellis of Van Wert, Ohio, are guests of their sister, Mrs. W. C. A. Visting.

Miss May Watson and Miss F. J. Patrick have returned from a day at the Girls' Friendly Inn at Brighton.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Vincent and son, Delmar, Mrs. Genevieve Cottrell and Miss Rita Jensen have gone for a ten days automobile tour of Bryce, Zion and the Grand canyons.

Miss Maud Sloan of Vermillion, S. D., who with Miss E. T. Bahl of the same city, has been visiting Miss Sloan's sister, Mrs. P. J. O'Garra, of 150 I street.

In compliment to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Vandevanter of Oakland, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Leo Charles Miller entertained at a dancing and garden party at her home on East First, South street Wednesday. The guests were received indoors. Dancing was enjoyed on the tennis court and supper was served in the garden. One hundred were in attendance.

Miss W. P. Culmer entertained at luncheon at the Country club Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Vandevanter. Luncheon was served at one long table, with sweet peas in a basket as a centerpiece.

Covers were laid for fifteen. The guests included members of the Tuesday Bridge club, who were associated with Mrs. Vandevanter during her residence in Salt Lake.

A prettily arranged home wedding was that of Miss Doris Ausherman and Kenneth E. Lyon, which took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ausherman, 88 C street, at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry M. McDowell of Phillips Congregational church. A reception followed.

The living room was decorated in pinks, ferns and sheeta daisies, arranged in a bower for the wedding party. The drawing room was decorated in gladioli and goldenrod, and the hall in red roses. In the dining room a pink color scheme was used. Pink roses in a silver basket formed the centerpiece for the supper table.

Mrs. Rolin Walker and Miss Marie Smith of Price.

Members of the wedding party of Mrs. Lucile Collier McIntosh and Edgar G. Gibson were entertained at dinner on the roof garden at the Hotel Utah Wednesday evening by Robert Collier and Walter Gillespie. The table was decorated in sweet peas. Covers were laid for eight.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Charles O. Dell and Mrs. Viola Naylor of Salt Lake. The wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at Farmington. The ceremony was performed by J. B. Wood, justice of the peace.

The marriage of Miss Bertha Bassett and James E. Jacobson took place Tuesday morning. The couple left on an early afternoon train for Portland for a honeymoon trip. They will make their home in this city.

Mrs. Roy Wyland, accompanied by Georgianna and Mary Elizabeth Fowler, has arrived from Casper, Wyo., to visit at the Richard Savage home on Third avenue. Mrs. Robert Fowler and Mrs. W. H. Thompson will arrive in a short time from an eastern visit to join her daughters and visit at the Savage home.

Miss Grace Stone who portrays the role of the Fairy Queen in the musical comedy, "Stone Legs," to be presented at the Orpheum theatre during the coming week. The play is given under the auspices of the Ogden Stake Board.

Mrs. Howard Davison and children of Provo returned home last week after spending the summer in Garland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. MacFarland.

Mrs. J. W. Chambers has returned from a visit to Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowen and children left Thursday morning on a fishing trip to Logan canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grover are spending the week in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Felsted have returned from Salt Lake. They attended the convention of the Utah-Idaho Grain and Millers' association.

Mrs. Lucy Clark, of Salt Lake, who has been visiting with her son, George Clark, and family, left for Soda Springs, Idaho.

Mrs. Russell K. Woodruff and Mrs. Kenneth W. Yeates entertained at tea Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Woodruff's home on Third avenue in honor of their sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. McIntyre, Jr., a recent bride, and Miss Zora Anderson of Ocean Park, guest of Mrs. Lynn Thompson.

A gold and blue color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the tea table. A gold and crystal basket was filled with marguerites, zinnias and cornflowers as a centerpiece. Hollyhocks and other garden flowers were used in the reception room.

Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Francis Critchlow, Mrs. Sherman Armstrong, Mrs. H. H. Calvin, Miss Marjorie Howell, Mrs. Paul T. Boise and Mrs. Lynn H. Thompson. The guests numbered forty.

Mrs. Clifford Cannon entertained at a miscellaneous dinner last Wednesday night at her home, 1426 Fifteenth street, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Naomi Smith, who will be married soon to Joshua Fisher. The rooms were decorated in marguerites and nasturtiums.

The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Kearsley. Light refreshments were served. The guests numbered thirty-six.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McIntyre, Jr., have arrived from their wedding trip and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McIntyre, Sr. Mrs. McIntyre was formerly Miss Miriam E. Stoltze of Lethbridge, Canada. Following a brief visit in Salt Lake, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre will go to the McIntyre ranch at McGrath, Canada, for the summer, but expect to make their home in this city during the winter months.

Mrs. Clifford Cannon entertained at a miscellaneous dinner last Wednesday night at her home, 1426 Fifteenth street, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Naomi Smith, who will be married soon to Joshua Fisher. The rooms were decorated in marguerites and nasturtiums.

The wedding march by Mendelssohn was played by Miss Dolly Woodbury and the bridal party in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Matthew T. Lyon, parents of the bridegroom. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Rhoda Brain, Mrs. Dennis Ausherman, Miss Genevieve Saville, Miss Helen Murdoch and Miss Peggy Hall of Okemuc, Okla. Lunch was served by Miss Ezzell Holt of Okemuc, Okla., and Miss Hilma Peterson.

Mrs. Fredric William Steck of Colorado Springs, Colo., who has been spending the summer with her sister and mother, Mrs. C. E. Fish and Mrs. Creveling. Mrs. Steck is the possessor of a rich contralto voice and has entertained many during her visit in Ogden.

A cluny lace cover was over pink, and silver candlesticks at either end of the table held pink candles. The porch where punch was served, was decorated in goldenrod.

The bride wore a gown of white charmeuse with a lace tunic. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried orchids and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Inez Burton, wore flame-colored satin trimmed in silver lace, and carried flame-colored sweet peas. One of the bridesmaids, Miss Grace Moore, wore pale blue tulle veiled in tulle and carried pink sweet peas. The other bridesmaid, Miss Bernice Bird, wore pale yellow tulle, with a tulle overskirt, and carried lavender sweet peas. Helen Ausherman, flower girl, wore white net and carried a basket of sweet peas. Maurice Murphy of California was best man.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Ausherman and the bridal party in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Matthew T. Lyon, parents of the bridegroom. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Rhoda Brain, Mrs. Dennis Ausherman, Miss Genevieve Saville, Miss Helen Murdoch and Miss Peggy Hall of Okemuc, Okla. Lunch was served by Miss Ezzell Holt of Okemuc, Okla., and Miss Hilma Peterson.

The wedding march by Mendelssohn was played by Miss Dolly Woodbury and the bridal party in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Matthew T. Lyon, parents of the bridegroom. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Rhoda Brain, Mrs. Dennis Ausherman, Miss Genevieve Saville, Miss Helen Murdoch and Miss Peggy Hall of Okemuc, Okla. Lunch was served by Miss Ezzell Holt of Okemuc, Okla., and Miss Hilma Peterson.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 85 C street.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett R. Woolley entertained at dinner last Wednesday evening at their home, 1425 Blair avenue, in honor of Mrs. Woolley's mother, Mrs. John Pland of Castlepeak, Utah. A bowl of pink sweet peas was the centerpiece of the table. Covers were laid for Mrs. Pland, James Pland, Fred Pland, Mr. and

Mrs. Howard Davison and children of Provo returned home last week after spending the summer in Garland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. MacFarland.

Mrs. J. W. Chambers has returned from a visit to Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowen and children left Thursday morning on a fishing trip to Logan canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grover are spending the week in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Felsted have returned from Salt Lake. They attended the convention of the Utah-Idaho Grain and Millers' association.

Mrs. Lucy Clark, of Salt Lake, who has been visiting with her son, George Clark, and family, left for Soda Springs, Idaho.

Mrs. Russell K. Woodruff and Mrs. Kenneth W. Yeates entertained at tea Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Woodruff's home on Third avenue in honor of their sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. McIntyre, Jr., a recent bride, and Miss Zora Anderson of Ocean Park, guest of Mrs. Lynn Thompson.

A gold and blue color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the tea table. A gold and crystal basket was filled with marguerites, zinnias and cornflowers as a centerpiece. Hollyhocks and other garden flowers were used in the reception room.

Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Francis Critchlow, Mrs. Sherman Armstrong, Mrs. H. H. Calvin, Miss Marjorie Howell, Mrs. Paul T. Boise and Mrs. Lynn H. Thompson. The guests numbered forty.

Mrs. Clifford Cannon entertained at a miscellaneous dinner last Wednesday night at her home, 1426 Fifteenth street, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Naomi Smith, who will be married soon to Joshua Fisher. The rooms were decorated in marguerites and nasturtiums.

The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Kearsley. Light refreshments were served. The guests numbered thirty-six.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McIntyre, Jr., have arrived from their wedding trip and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McIntyre, Sr. Mrs. McIntyre was formerly Miss Miriam E. Stoltze of Lethbridge, Canada. Following a brief visit in Salt Lake, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre will go to the McIntyre ranch at McGrath, Canada, for the summer, but expect to make their home in this city during the winter months.

Mrs. Clifford Cannon entertained at a miscellaneous dinner last Wednesday night at her home, 1426 Fifteenth street, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Naomi Smith, who will be married soon to Joshua Fisher. The rooms were decorated in marguerites and nasturtiums.

The wedding march by Mendelssohn was played by Miss Dolly Woodbury and the bridal party in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Matthew T. Lyon, parents of the bridegroom. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Rhoda Brain, Mrs. Dennis Ausherman, Miss Genevieve Saville, Miss Helen Murdoch and Miss Peggy Hall of Okemuc, Okla. Lunch was served by Miss Ezzell Holt of Okemuc, Okla., and Miss Hilma Peterson.

SUPERFULO
FOR UNDESIRABLE HAIR GROWTH

New discovery in depilatory. Will positively stunt and weaken hair growth. Removes hair gradually, clean without the least pain or discomfort. Easy to apply—quick and efficient in its action. Do not hesitate to use it. On sale at important drug stores and beauty parlors. Price $1.00. If unable to obtain write to factory: D. C. FELT CHEMICAL CO. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

Franklin D'Olier, national commander of the American Legion, was guest of honor at a banquet given Friday afternoon at the Hermitage hotel by members of Herman Baker Post No. 1. Mrs. D'Olier was entertained at the same time by members of the Service Star Legion of this city. They departed that afternoon for Reno, Nev.

Mrs. Jane Bailey and daughter of Chicago, and Mrs. John J. McHugh and son of San Francisco, are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kingsford, 363 Twenty-ninth street.

Ed Sommer of Richfield spent part of the week visiting relatives and friends.