RAILROADS FIGHT MOTOR TRUCKS.

When the railroads pushed westward, many a stage driver and teamster was driven out of business and his investment in horses and wagons rendered worthless.

When you go to New York the hotel clerk will be pleased to have you tell him that in 1975 lodging in Gotham cost 6 cents a night and meals 12 cents each.

If a gas bomb were exploded over any part of Ohio, the mortality among the presidential and vice presidential candidates would be something frightful.

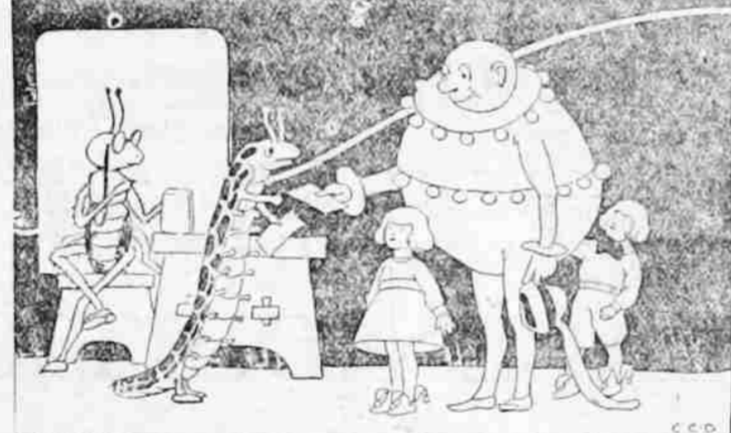

OUTBURSTS OF EVERET TRUE

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Wiggly Worm's Trick. "No," said Wiggly Worm to Mr. Tingaling the fairyman landlord. "I don't expect you to rent my brand-new apple-house in May, but I don't think you ought to expect much rent for an old, last year's apple like the one I am living in now."

Wiggly handed it right over before you could sneeze, and pocketed Tingaling's share before you could sneeze twice. "A compromise what?" cried everybody, including Nancy and Nick who were listening to every word.
