

PEACE EMISSARIES ON WAY TO MEET REDS

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FLAYS G. O. P.

'NO RING CAN BOSS ME,' SAYS GOVERNOR COX

Harding Held to Front Porch by Senatorial Group, He Declares

REPUBLICAN PARTY IS REACTIONARY, HE AVERS

Charges "Few Men Were Banded Together to Buy the Presidency"

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 14.—Governor Cox today threw his force into the presidential campaign, with five speeches here and in Ohio all flaying what he termed the Republican "reactionary candidate and leaders" and supporting the league of nations as the premier Democratic cause.

He stormed the Republican position, attacked the senate "oligarchy" which he said, was trying to add the presidency to its domination, denounced proposals for a separate peace with Germany as "perfidy" and charged that a "few men were banded together trying to buy the presidency. Millions on millions of dollars he added, are being taken into the Republican campaign fund."

The senatorial Harding is surrounded by a "senatorial ring" was asserted by the governor. He added that he could not be "kept muzzle" on his front porch by any ring.

STUMPS BY AUTO Motoring from Columbus, the nominee made three addresses en route at Zanesville, Cambridge and St. Clairsville, Ohio, addressed the West Virginia Democratic convention and a public meeting here tonight on the river front. All through Ohio he was given informal receptions.

The league was foremost in all of his addresses. The Republican leaders, he charged, are behind a "smoke screen of hypocrisy—for one thing pure and simple, administration spoils." He also stressed what he declared was the basic difference between the "reactionary Republicanism" and "progressive Democracy" and predicted his election.

"The outstanding question of this campaign," he told the state convention, "is whether we are or are not going to keep faith with the boys who died in France."

Declaring that the league is a pledge to those who died, Governor Cox told of his visit with President Wilson.

"I wish every American could have been with me," he said. "The president's whole thought is that he gave a promise to the mothers of the nation when he asked them for their boys and he wants to live to see that pledge fulfilled."

LEAGUE A PLEDGE The governor declared that the league also was a pledge which "will make war impossible, or practically so." The Republican leadership, he said, was acting in partisan "bad faith" in opposing it.

The governor named Senator Lodge as head of the senatorial oligarchy. When the Massachusetts senator proposed compromising the treaty reservations, Governor Cox said, Senators Borah of Idaho and Johnson of California, "served notice they were bringing about a rupture of the Republican party."

The Republican platform, therefore, he asserted, was "ambiguous and inconclusive." He also SEPARATE PEACE In endorsing the proposal for a separate peace with Germany, Governor Cox said it came from Senator Harding, adding:

WEBER DELEGATES SOLID FOR W. H. WATTIS

THESE THREE KIDS PROUD OF RIDE WITH PRESIDENT WILSON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Three kids, just out of a swimming hole in Rock Creek park, were picked up today by President Wilson, treated to a forty-five minute motor ride and dropped out at their home so proud that the folks there could not hold them with a rope.

The three were hiking along the roadway when they saw the White House car and recognized the president. Off came their caps and as Mr. Wilson ordered the car stopped, they timidly approached and asked how he was getting along.

"Hop in," said the president, and they hopped. All along the ride they kept their eyes on the president and Mrs. Wilson and answered more questions than they asked. Water from tousled heads trickled over three sunburned faces and dripped on the president's shoes. One youngster ducked to save the president's clothing and apologized but was told not to worry.

Coming down Connecticut avenue, the youngest of the trio, a thin, frail lad, barely eight, spied a kid he knew and called to him by name. The youngster dropped a loaf of bread and gasped. When the kids got out all three shook hands with the president and Mrs. Wilson.

"So long, bo," one shouted to the secret service man. The president smiled broadly, lifted his hat and started home.

STRANGE STORY IS BARED WITH ARREST OF SPY

A. E. F. Officer Killed His Father, Betrayer of Mother, By Duel in Germany

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Theodore Schudd, said to be a German army officer who returned to America with passports stolen from an American officer, assumed the American name and was mustered out and re-enlisted in the tank service, will be brought here from San Francisco, where he was arrested several days ago, for trial.

United States Commissioner Mason today issued a warrant for Schudd on a technical charge of having obtained $1,630 back pay from the government by false pretenses when he was discharged at Fort Sheridan hospital. He will be held on the charge while authorities investigate other phases of his story.

SEEMS INVESTIGATE The arrest has revealed a weird story involving Schudd, Lieutenant Arthur M. Kincaid, whose papers he confessed stealing and a German agent, according to information gathered here.

The real Lieutenant Kincaid who also received $1,530 back pay when he was mustered out, according to army records, claims to be the son of an American opera singer and a German count, according to an interview published in a Chicago newspaper. His mother, he is quoted as saying, was betrayed in Paris by the German officers. When he went to France with the American army he determined to meet up with his father and exact revenge.

ARMY RECORDS SHOW THAT the Kincaid was sent to Berlin after the armistice and left there on a vacation from which he did not return. Later he was found in a hospital in Belgium and was returned to America and finally discharged. He received the Croix de Guerre.

Kincaid says that while on his vacation in Germany he located the count, his father, and killed him in a duel, then fled to Belgium where he was taken sick. About that time his papers and passports were stolen by Schudd, he believes.

BIG JOB FACING COX IS HEALING OF OLD WOUNDS

Sullivan Says Republican Morale Just Now Is Better Than Democratic

CLEAVAGES IN BOTH ORGANIZATIONS, CLAIM

What Will Close Friends of Wilson Do for Party Is Question

BY MARK SULLIVAN (Copyright, 1920, by New York Evening Post.)

DAYTON, O., Aug. 14.—This article aims to consider the morale—to use the military term—of the two parties, the solidarity of their organizations and the fighting quality of each as they enter the campaign.

There have been cleavages in both parties, but do not now refer to the cleavage among voters on the question of the league of nations—that cleavage may result in pro-league Republicans voting for Cox and anti-league Democrats voting for Harding—but I am referring not to cleavage among the rank and file but to cleavage among the leaders. What I am referring to is the state of feeling of what may be termed the "inner family circle" of the leadership of each party.

CLEAVAGE WIDEN The labor address will be delivered Labor Day, September 6, probably from the front porch. Agriculture and the league are to be discussed September 8, at the Minnesota state fair. The labor address will be delivered during early September, under a program revealed today in connection with announcement of plans for his first speech outside of Ohio.

PURPOSE MADE PLAIN The nominee today made plain his purpose to emphasize the tariff as his campaign develops. He said he expected to see a "showing" about the tariff, and that he would advocate a protective schedule worked out by congress in co-operation with the tariff commission.

Senator Harding plans to make his trip in leisurely fashion, leaving here September 6, and stopping en route for political conferences. He will have an ordinary sleeping car for himself and a motor car for his baggage.

ON AGRICULTURE While his speech is to be devoted primarily to agriculture, he expects also to include an elaboration of the foreign policy, he announced in his speech of acceptance. It is believed he will take note of recent Democratic utterances on the league of nations and in reply will carry a step further his proposal for peace by resolution and for an international association not impairing American independence.

Senator Harding today expressed the opinion that the tariff commission is "not functioning" to its fullest possibilities, and said he believed it could be made an important part in framing "a tariff which protects American interests."

TARIFF AN ISSUE "The tariff will be an issue," he said. "How can it be otherwise? Europe is bound to make every possible effort to rehabilitate her trade. There is only one way she can do this. We are the best buyers America is. We are the chief nation that offers attractive markets, outside of Japan and Spain."

County Republicans Demand Solid Front At State Convention

William H. Wattis Given Enthusiastic Welcome Upon Entering Convention Hall; Promises Administration for Utah's Best Interests If Nominated and Elected; Cardon of Logan Denies He Is for Cannon.

Fifty-two Republican delegates from Weber county, named yesterday afternoon to attend the state convention to be held in Salt Lake, August 26, will go instructed to give battle to the end for the nomination of William H. Wattis of Ogden for governor of Utah. These same delegates will attend the congressional convention.

They will go to the convention prepared to "press to the limit the outstanding claims of Mr. Wattis for this high honor and to support him without compromise, working and voting as a unit to the end that his forceful personality and splendid ability may be placed at the entire service of the state." This was a portion of the resolution which endorsed Mr. Wattis.

To simply state that the convention unanimously endorsed Mr. Wattis for governor yesterday would be putting it mildly indeed. The delegates arose before seven o'clock, to meet Bohsheviki officers who will conduct them to Minsk. Some delegates have not been to bed for two nights. A night's preparation, with contents, preceded the start. Considerable baggage was taken in addition to the records and reference books. Packages of food, enough for an extended stay were also carried.

MEMBERS OF PARTY General Listowsky heads the military experts, while among the diet members is Stanislas Grabski, national Democratic leader, and Norbert Barlocki, Socialist leader. M. Domaski, who heads the delegation, is a peasant leader. The party left Warsaw, led by three Polish officers in an army automobile which saw service in France. Three new staffs around which were wrapped flags, could be seen beside the chauffeur. On the hood was a teddy-bear.

A correspondent of the Associated Press accompanied the party. PEOPLE WATCH FLASHES The front is being gradually brought nearer Warsaw, before Saturday's dawn, artillery flashes were visible against the clouds to the north and northwest and at times cannon could be heard.

CAVALRYMEN ACTIVE But even more serious, according to the observers, is the situation to the northwest, where 2,000 Red cavalrymen are making an rapid progress toward the Vistula. The cavalry's right flank, which follows the right wing of the Russian frontier, has been reinforced by soldiers, who have requisitioned peasants' horses.

It is estimated it will require several days before the Reds from the northwest reach the river. Meanwhile, newspapers continue confident that a counter-stroke will come.

KIDNAPER OF BABY COUGHLIN WON'T EAT PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14.—While detectives and state police were searching the tenderloin for Rose McGowan, the woman named by August Pasquale, as one of the kidnapers of Baby Blakeley Coughlin, attached at the Montgomery county jail were engaged today in an equally vain effort to make Pasquale eat.

Since his final "confession" yesterday, Pasquale has refused to touch food and is sulky and defiant. Authorities declare his latest attitude is just another attempt to clog the investigation.

ITALIAN PORTS TIED UP BY STRIKE OF WORKERS ROME, Aug. 12.—A strike of dock workers has been called at Naples by the Socialist organization there, in consequence of a dispute between two labor organizations. At several other cities a sympathetic strike has been called.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—A general strike at all Italian ports has been declared, according to a Milan dispatch to the London Times.

CHOCTAW INDIAN DIES IN THE ELECTRIC CHAIR LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 14.—Vac Tobay, full blood Choctaw Indian and a native of Oklahoma was electrocuted today for the murder of O. Smith near Springfield, Ark., last May. Tobay was convicted of murder in the first degree last June in the Washington county circuit court. While he was receiving the sentence he was exported from May to June 30, exceeding the total exported from that port from 1913 to 1919 inclusive.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 14.—Increased consumption of raisins in the United States since prohibition is believed to account for the 1400 per cent increase in raisin imports from Spain during the first six months of 1920. Nearly 5,000,000 pounds were exported from May up to June 30, exceeding the total exported from that port from 1913 to 1919 inclusive.
