AUDIT REVEALS

S. L. SHORTAGE

Former Mayor Bock Abstracted $12,000 Which Has Been Repaid

SALT LAKE, Aug. 18.—Report of the special audit that Lincoln G. Kelly has been making of the books of former Auditor and Mayor Edmund A. Bock, will be made to the city commission this morning by Commissioner T. T. Burton, and will show Mr. Bock abstracted a total of $12,000 from the city's funds between 1913 and 1918. This entire amount has been repaid.

Mr. Kelly has been engaged in a special audit of the city's books for a number of weeks. On July 21 Mr. Bock confessed to pecuniaries discovered up to that time amounting to $16,890, and made restitution through City Attorney William H. Folland.

In the subsequent audit Mr. Kelly found additional items, notably five different amounts totaling $2,149 taken from the city's cash on hand by Mr. Bock under Commissioner Green in March, 1915.

Mr. Bock gave City Attorney Folland a bank cashier's check on Monday for the balance due of $1,920, which made the restitution complete, and, in addition, paid $284 interest, the amount the city would have received from the money as a bank deposit.

When he had made the restitution Monday of the principal and interest of the amounts of the pecuniaries, Mr. Bock was given back the security which he had put up to cover any additional shortage after the first shortage had been made public.

Speaking last night of the audit, Mr. Bock said: "It is with profound satisfaction that I have learned of the completion of the audit that has made it possible for me to return the last penny of the money which, in my folly, I took from the city's funds. I am greatly relieved to have the matter completed and to know that after the thorough audit which has been made that the full extent of my errors has been ascertained."

Many Candidates for Utah Governorship

William H. Wadsworth and Mayor Frank Francis, of Ogden, are mentioned in Salt Lake dispatches as candidates for governor on the Republican and Democratic tickets, respectively. The information states that the Republicans are in the lead in the number of candidates so far announced for the office. Sixteen names appear on this ticket and others have been mentioned as possibilities.

All of the candidates have not made formal announcement, but their friends are vouching for them and are boosting them into the lead. Among the Republicans mentioned for this honor are George T. Odell, W. E. Rydahl, Carl A. Badger, Sylvester Q. Cannon, W. N. Williams, Nepl L. Morris, W. Mont Ferry and Charles S. Tingey of Salt Lake, W. H. Wadsworth of Ogden, Charles R. Mabey of Roubidoux, J. W. Thornley of Kayville, Peter Clegg and Iver Ajax of Tooele, L. R. Anderson of Mantt, J. M. Peterson of Richfield, and Stephen L. Chipman of American Fork.

Democratic aspirants for this nomination are Joseph F. Merrill, dean of the University of Utah; T. N. Taylor of Provo, J. W. Funk of Richmond, Frank Francis of Ogden, Judge Henry Hayes of Richfield and Brigham H. Roberts of Salt Lake.

FORMER STAGE HIT BY AVERY HOPWOOD NOW ON THE SCREEN

Domestic Drama Is Basis of "Guilty of Love" With Dorothy Dalton

When an author or a playwright acquires fame, his earlier works written before he had mounted far up the ladder of success, usually have a greatly enhanced interest. Avery Hopwood is probably the best known writer of stage farces in the country. He wrote "Fair and Warmer," a Broadway hit for two seasons, collaborated with Mary Roberts Rinehart on the famous "Seven Days," and recently scored another ten-strike with "The Gold Diggers," starring Ina Claire.

There was a time, shortly after Mr. Hopwood deserted the newspaper game to cast in his fortunes with the stage, when his writings were in a rather more serious mood. "This Woman—This Man," produced in this period, was the play that brought young Hopwood his first big success.

This drama has now been produced as a motion picture, with Dorothy Dalton the star, and will be shown for three days, commencing tomorrow at the Alhambra Theatre. It is an unusually appealing story of love, misunderstanding and final reconciliation, the happy ending being brought about by several startling dramatic twists.

Edward Langford heads an excellent supporting cast, and final recording by Kenley Kniles directed and the picture is a Paramount Artcraft.

Raise in Demurrage Sought by Railroads. SALT LAKE, Aug. 18.—Railroads in Utah, in a petition filed with the public utilities commission yesterday, have asked that an additional penalty of $10 per car per day for the retention of open-top cars loaded with coal, coke or lumber after the first 48 hours, be allowed.

The petition is filed by J. E. Fairbanks of Chicago as agent for the railroads. Mr. Fairbanks represented the United States railroad administration forces and was placed in charge of the demurrage features of the government control.

It is the thought of the proposed penalty, which is being put into effect in interstate traffic, not so much that the revenue of the carriers will be materially increased from the additional penalties as that cars will be returned for further service with greater promptness.

The new ruling, if it is approved by the Utah commission, will affect principally, it is thought, the small coal dealer, who is situated along the coast and depends on delivering his orders of coal direct from the cars.

The ruling allows two days, as under the present demurrage rules, without charge of penalty. After that, in addition to the regular demurrage charge, a penalty of $10 a day would be enforced.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Advertising by the use of large space, the expenditure of huge sums of money have placed on the market, have put in your home, perhaps, many articles that today have been discarded, as you will readily admit.

Do you recall anything that has more modestly appealed to the public than has Fletcher's Castoria: modest in all its claims, pleading at all times—and truthfully—for our babies?

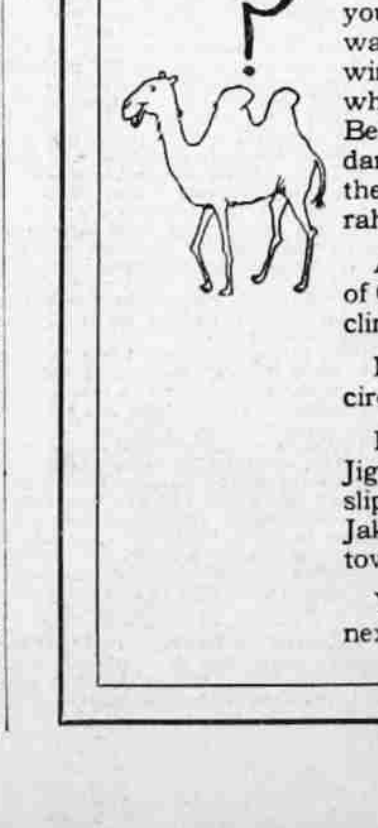

The big splurge, the misleading claims may win for a time, but the honest truth-telling advertiser is like the old story of the tortoise that beat the hare.

Mothers everywhere, and their daughters, now mothers, speak frankly, glowingly, enthusiastically in praise of Fletcher's Castoria. Speak of it lovingly as a friend that has brought comfort, cheer and smiles to their little-ones.

There are substitutes and imitations as there are for the diamond, for anything of value. One might almost say that that which is not copied has no value. So you have had the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, a copy of the genuine wrapper kept constantly before you that you may guard against the false and the untrue.

FASHION HINTS. LONDON—About these Paris vegetable hats.

The Evening News has been out getting suggestions from London milliners. Some follow.

A cauliflower hat with a crown of cream brocade and green brocade wired up around it.

"The leak" suggests a hat of white velvet ribbon plaited and gathered up to the center of the crown gradually showing into green.

Green ends would fall over the top.

WOMEN'S HATS ARE DUE FOR A PRICE DROP. NEW YORK—Here's good news for the women who haven't had any such tidings about prices in many a long day.

At the fashion show of the Retail Millinery association of America it was said that hats are going to be cheaper this fall than for several years.

Dealers from every part of the country attended the show, and they were generally jubilant over the prospects for lower prices for the hats which ordinarily are quite beyond the reach of the average purse.
