

COX IS RUSHED TO MANY EVENTS

G. O. P. Fund and Bayonets in Industry Are Leading Topics in Speeches

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Speeches, parades, receptions, luncheons at a hotel, a view of police field day games at Gravesend race track, where a huge crowd was addressed and a dinner with party leaders tonight gave Governor Cox the busiest day of his campaign.

The governor's address was at the Democratic luncheon, attended by party notables. At Gravesend, the governor was compelled to cut short his remarks after a fifteen-minute speech. Another brief address was delivered to a crowd at the public library.

REITERATES GRAFT CHARGES.

In his luncheon address Governor Cox reiterated his charges that contributions were being collected by Republican leaders toward a $15,000,000 "corruption fund" and promised further revelations. He also touched on world peace by America's entrance into the league of nations and industrial problems and made pleas for Americanization of foreign born citizens.

During his visit, the governor was accompanied by a score of prominent Democrats and tonight he was the guest of honor at a dinner given by former Representative John J. Fitzgerald in Brooklyn. He spent the night at Mr. Fitzgerald's home and will remain over Sunday, leaving for Columbus tomorrow evening.

Fire of Governor Cox and other speeches of Democratic leaders was concentrated on the Republican campaign fund. The governor was cheered loudly as he reiterated that the contributions involved an attempt to "purchase the presidency."

"The enemy has sought to deny my charges," he said, "but none make the same denial. Hays says the fund is $2,000,000. Upham said it was about $3,000,000.

"We have not yet started in the revelations."

"GOLD DUST TWINS."

Governor Smith of New York and William G. McAdoo, who introduced Governor Cox at the Democratic luncheon, also assailed the Republican financing. The latter referred to Chairman Hays and Treasurer Upham of the Republican national committee as "the gold dust twins."

Many conditions caused Governor Cox to curtail his address at Gravesend. Arriving nearly an hour late, he was forced to compete with attractions of the police games. Airplanes roared over his head, forcing him to stop frequently and a sound-amplifying device, apparently failed to give him the voice to the crowd.

The governor remained an hour, watching and applauding the contests of the policemen whom he praised in his address for their public service.

The league issue was emphasized as paramount in the campaign to be waged, he said, between champions of progress and reaction.

"This is a great fight," he said, "for a great principle and a fight which we will know to be a victorious fight."

Pleas for industrial peace also were made by the governor in his addresses at the Democratic luncheon and at Gravesend.

"We cannot have national tranquility," he said at Gravesend, "unless we have community tranquility. Public opinion has always settled industrial controversies and public opinion always will."

The governor also, at the luncheon, gave what he termed "a word to business men."

Many, he said, are "helping to install an administration which intends to scrap the league of nations."

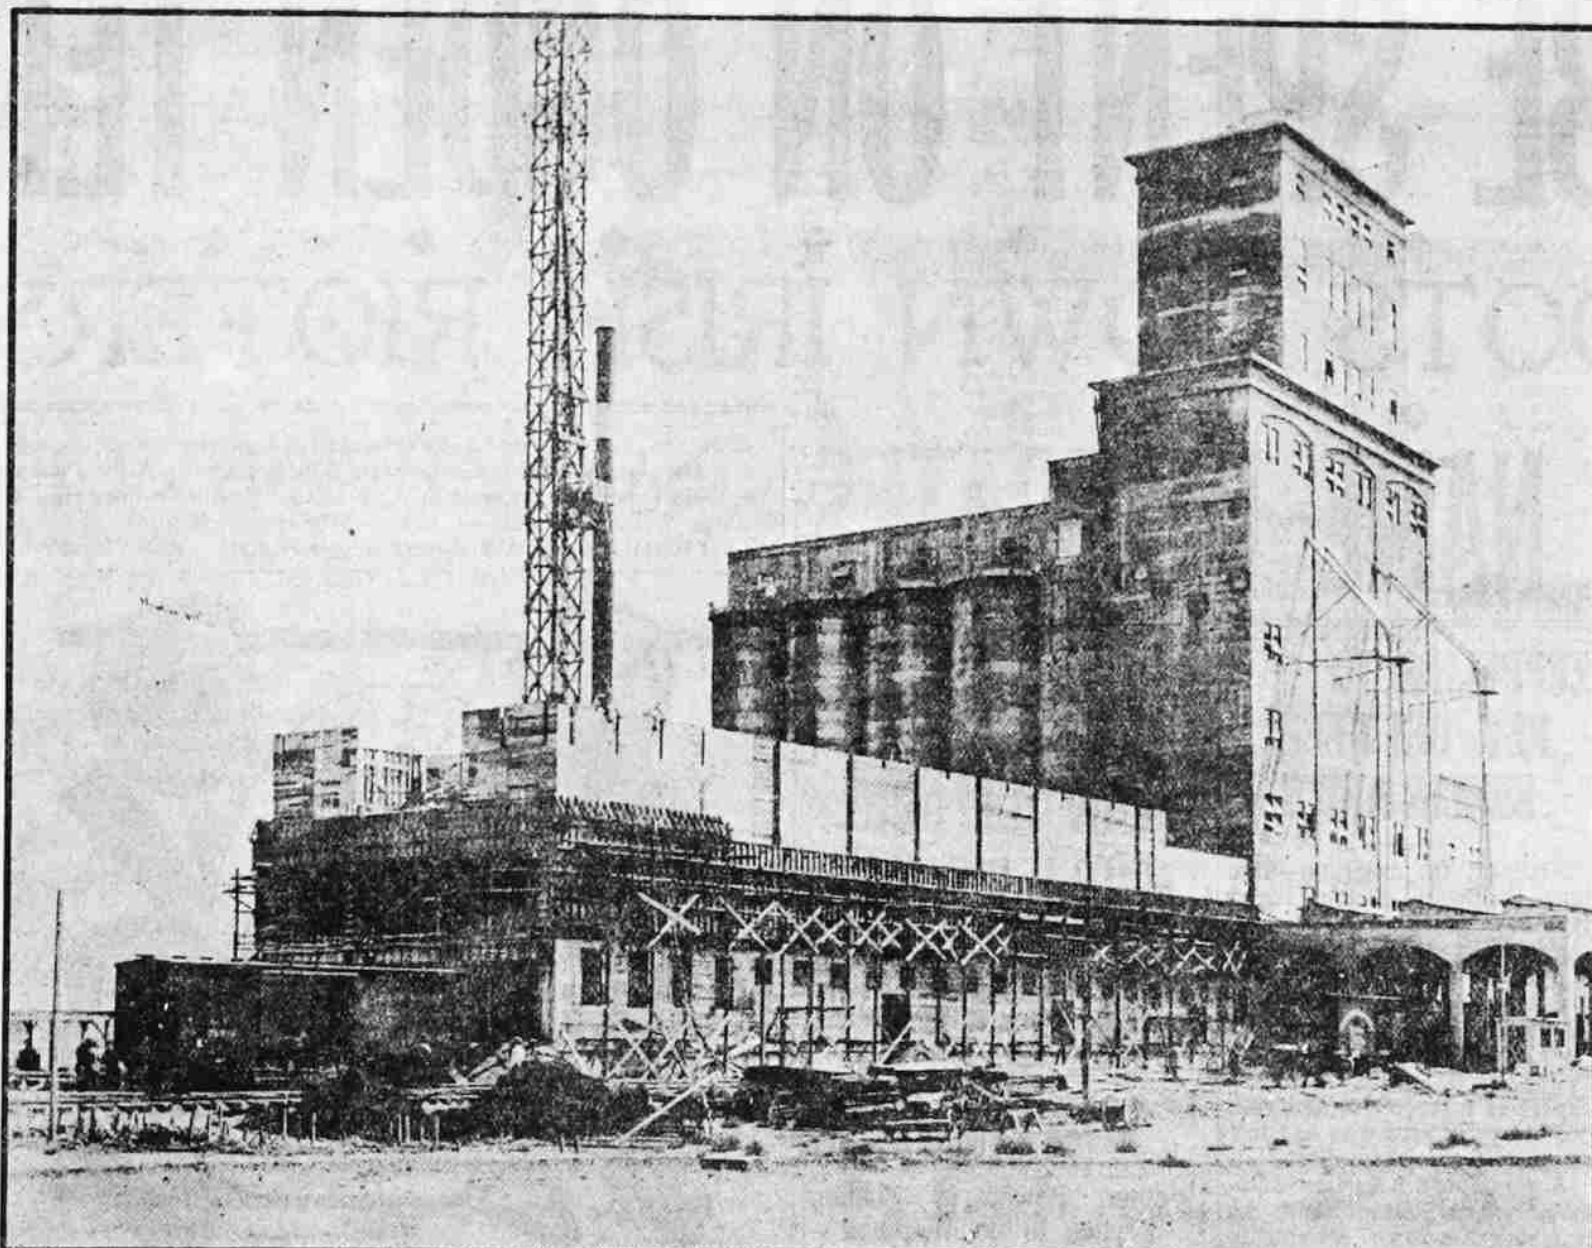

"If the league does not become a thing in fact," he continued, "it is my judgment that not a single European nation will ever be able to pay its national debt, and if that is not paid then what becomes of fiscal conditions overseas?"

The financial stability of the world depends on the adoption of the league of nations.

Governor Cox added that public confidence must be given to industrial readjustment and, he said, "millions of dollars are being contributed to guarantee an unfair adjustment."

"I know men," he asserted, "that are

Rush Construction On Globe Mill; "Globetown" to be Built for Workers

New 3200-barrel daily capacity flour mill of the Globe Grain & Milling company under construction is shown in the foreground. In the background is seen the 700,000-bushel grain elevator.

Construction on the flour mill being erected in Ogden by the Globe Grain & Milling company is being rushed to completion, the siab work on the fourth floor of the building having been completed last week. The siab work on the upper four floors now remaining unfinished, according to J. H. Waugh, chief engineer of the plant.

PLAN "GLOBETOWN"

More than thirty acres of land adjoining the plant has been set aside for such purposes and will be placed into use during the early part of 1921. Flowers, grass and trees will be planted. This section of land will be known as "Globetown," the name making contributions for the purpose of using the bayonet to settle industrial difficulties. Nothing could be more dangerous than that. That is building a Bolshevik factory."

The governor said he proposed to use the "golden rule" in settling industrial disputes. He also promised to remove war taxes unjustified during peace.

In addition to his addresses, the governor met hundreds of persons at informal receptions. He marched several blocks at the head of a procession.

having been advanced by J. H. Waugh. The paving work of F street south to the mill from Twenty-fourth street will be started soon. Application will be made in the near future to the city commission to change the present name of F street to Globe avenue.

LARGE GRAIN ELEVATOR

The mill alone when completed will cost $300,000, being of concrete construction and fire proof. The grain elevator unit cost $600,000 and is one of the largest in the western part of the United States. An additional grain storage unit to hold 600,000 bushels will be constructed next year to cost $150,000. This building will be of concrete construction.

The mill when finished will make 450,000 barrels of flour during the first season, the average per year after that to be better than 900,000 barrels.

According to Mr. Waugh five million bushels of grain will be handled next year by the present grain elevator, which will store 700,000 bushels.

ATHLETIC FIELD

Ten acres of land adjoining the land to be used for homes will be used for athletic purposes the Globe company to boost baseball and other kinds of athletics in this section. With reference to this Mr. Waugh said: "Baseball will be one of the games featured by our athletic teams and we propose to have a first rate team in the field, steps to be taken this fall to sign some of the best semi-pro players in the state for the 1921 season. A running track for track events and a gridiron for football purposes will also be perfected."

PLAN NEW UNIT

With the entire workings of the Globe Grain & Milling company in Ogden completed hundreds of men will be employed, the pay roll to total thousands of dollars monthly.

R. E. Webster, general superintendent of construction at the plant with reference to the elevators and other parts of the mill stated yesterday:

"When completed our mill and elevator will compare with any in the west and it is our aim to, from time to time increase our output. The new additional grain storage unit which will be erected early in 1921 is one of the first of the new improvements taken."

and was unanimously passed without comment.

Martin P. Brown, chairman of the county central committee opened the meeting and suggested C. A. Boyd as chairman. Mr. Boyd was voted to the chair and he introduced Mr. Dean, Congressman Welling was then introduced and his appearance brought applause.

Mr. Welling opened his talk with a brief recital of his services in Washington and told of the many problems that had to be faced during the war. He said that he had done his best to bring the peace to Ogden, believing that Ogden was the logical place for the location. His decision, he declared, brought commendations, pleadings and showers of telegrams from another Utah city which wanted the arsenal badly, but firmly believing that Ogden was the proper place for the structure, he fought for this place.

ARRAIGNS REPUBLICANS

Welling arraigned the Republican party and their selection of Mr. Harding as their standard-bearer, whom he referred to as "the most reactionary candidate that has been offered for twenty-five years." He declared Harding a man that "has supported big business interests against the common classes of America" and said he "was roped to the platform."

Mr. Welling closed his address with the explanation of his stand and voted on certain matters which had been brought before the house in Washington and said he had faced the issues as a free man with no collar around his neck to bind him to any creed or individual interests. His parting shot was: "I don't believe there is any doubt about the voting of Utah. I am absolutely certain we will win."

The delegates arose in a body and gave three cheers for Mr. Welling.

LEAVE FOR SALT LAKE

The delegates will leave Ogden tomorrow morning at 8:15 o'clock for the Salt Lake convention over the Hamberg lines, it was announced. Special rates have been offered by that line. The delegates will meet in the Ogden theatre, in Salt Lake where the convention is to be held, and will form their organization before the opening session of the convention.

While no mention was made at the convention yesterday regarding any choice for nominations at the Salt Lake convention it was open gossip in Ogden last night that if James H. Moyle is nominated for governor, Mayor Frank Francis of Ogden will probably be mentioned by the Weber county delegation for nomination as congressman. On the other hand, gossip had it, if Mr. Moyle is placed for nomination as congressman, Mayor Francis will be boosted for the governorship.

Delegates elected to the state convention, and also the First Congressional district, to be held in Salt Lake City, Utah, August 30, 1920, are:

First Ward—Mayor Frank Francis, T. J. Magnuson, Mrs. E. S. Oakley, Mrs. L. Campbell, Mr. Everett, Herbert Anderson, R. H. Goddard, H. C. Galt, D. H. Emig.
