ENROLLMENT IS THROUGHS POUR HEAVY AT A. C. INTO BRIGHAM

Fourteen States Represented With Registration Gaining 38 Percent

(Special to Standard-Examiner.) LOGAN, Sept. 15.—At the close of the second day of registration at the Utah Agricultural college, enrollment records were still being smashed. According to figures compiled by the registrar's office, the 35 per cent increase in registration noted the first day had been increased to 28 per cent. A large preponderance of college over vocational students was still apparent, with a marked increase in the registration of upper classmen. Fourteen states are already represented among the students who have completed registration, the registrar records show. These are Utah, Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, California, Nevada, New Mexico, Massachusetts, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Wyoming, South Dakota and Wisconsin. In order to accommodate a large number of students who have indicated that they cannot reach the institution before the opening of the second week of school, President E. G. Peterson has announced that registration will continue during the week of September 20. According to college regulations all who enter after the first week are required to pay small extra fees of two dollars and fifty cents to defray the extra cost of keeping registration machinery in operation longer than the regular period. Class work will begin Wednesday morning with many classes already filled to capacity. Exceptional interest is being shown in the work in agriculture and home economics. A feature of the second day's registration was the great influx of students into the college work in commerce and business administration. The first student body meeting of the year is scheduled for 1 o'clock on Wednesday. The college faculty will hold its initial meeting during the beginning of the term next Monday at 1 o'clock. A big stack will be tendered the men of the institution tonight in the Thomas Smart gymnasium under the auspices of the students' Y. M. C. A.

SULLIVAN APPEALS FOR UNITY AMONG WORKERS

PROVO, Sept. 15.—Discussion of various problems and the reading of reports from officials took up the morning and afternoon sessions of the Utah State Federation of Labor yesterday. Sixty-five delegates were present from many labor organizations of the state. The resolutions committee was busy all morning and will today present some thirty resolutions for final action. One of the resolutions read yesterday was for better education in the state and nation and recommended the creation of a federal department of education. It also fixed teachers salaries at a minimum of $2,900 a year for those who have had one year or more experience. The requirement that all teachers do some professional improvement work every three years was embodied in the resolution. One of the most important problems which the federation has up for discussion is the greater co-operation of the labor organizations of the state. Secretary J. J. Sullivan, in an exhaustive report, took up this subject from many angles. His report made clear the attitude of the state federation relative to the fear of a "soviet" and the "soviet revolution," which for a time threatened to disrupt the Utah state federation and did cause the loss of a number of local unions. According to Mr. Sullivan's report, which was supported by the officials of the organization, the state federation had in mind not the changing of the federal government of the United States or that of other nations, but the sympathy and support for the workers of Russia and the word "form" had been inserted, which changed the entire meaning of the action of the federation. Mr. Sullivan made a plea to the locals of the state to join in the state organization and to do their part in making it a strong factor for the improvement of labor conditions and for the general betterment of the wage earners of the state.

UTAH-IDAHO SUGAR HEARING CONTINUES

SALT LAKE, Sept. 15.—Testimony showing relationships between employees of the Utah-Idaho Sugar company and farmers and employees of the Gunnison Valley Sugar company was heard yesterday at the hearing of the federal trade commission complaint alleging conspiracy in restraint of competition in interstate commerce against the Utah-Idaho Sugar company and others.

Cross-examination of President Robert D. Young of Richfield, was completed concerning the hats which Mr. Hansen was alleged to have bet that the Gunnison Valley company would not operate in 1919, which hats, Mr. Hansen said yesterday, he purchased, one for W. Harvey Ross, president of the Gunnison Valley Sugar company, and the other for a farmer of Sevier valley. Judge D. N. Straup, counsel for the Utah-Idaho, evoked not a little amusement when he objected to questions put by Henry Ward Beer, special attorney for the trade commission, saying, "Let's get on with the testimony and have one question that isn't concerned with that hat."

"Twas My Lucky Day" States Spokane Man "I Never Felt Better In My Life," Crawford Declares After Taking Tanlac.

"Tanalac has not only added fifteen pounds to my weight, but has rid me of all my ailments and built me up to where I feel better than I have in a long time," said M. Crawford, a well known pattern maker, living at 1027 West Second avenue, Spokane, Wash. "During the past two years I have been subject to frequent spells of indigestion which were so severe as to almost lay me out. My appetite left me, and the little I did force myself to eat bloated me up with sour gas and kept me feeling miserable for hours. I suffered with severe pains in my back and constant spells of dizziness, and was so restless I hardly knew what it was to get a good night's sleep. I lost weight all the time and got so weak and run down that I had hardly any life or energy left for anything. "I began taking Tanlac on the recommendation of a friend, and it was a lucky day for me when I did, for my appetite began to improve at once and I got to feeling better in every way. I have now taken five bottles, and if I ever felt better in my life I don't know when it was. I eat like a wolf of just anything and everything I want and never have a touch of indigestion, and have built up rapidly, both in weight and strength. I sleep like a log at night and wake up in the morning feeling brimful of life and energy and more than ready for my day's work. Before I got Tanlac my work was a drag, but now I do it with ease and pleasure. I certainly ought to think well of Tanlac, for it has brought me back my health and I am glad to give it my strongest endorsement. Tanlac is sold in Ogden by A. R. McIntyre Drug Co.'s two busy stores.—Advertisement.
