

HERE AND THERE IN THE WHIRL OF SOCIETY

Home Reception is Given Here After Wedding

Miss Olive Belnap Becomes Bride of Dr. Jensen in Temple Ceremony

Wedded quietly and impressively, Miss Olive Belnap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Belnap, became the bride of Dr. Conrad Jensen Thursday morning, when the marriage ceremony was solemnized in the Salt Lake temple.

A wedding reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, 2143 Madison avenue, Friday evening. The bride was attractively gowned in white baronet satin with an overdress of brocaded chiffon. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses.

Receiving the guests were Dr. and Mrs. Conrad Jensen, bride and groom, Miss Charlotte Stallings, Miss Flora Belnap, Mrs. Weltha Marriott and Miss Ardella Holmson, guests present included the immediate members of the family and the intimate friends of the bride and groom, numbering about forty. The Belnap residence was decorated with tall vases of gladioli and roses, carrying out a color scheme of pink and white.

A very quiet and impressive wedding was solemnized at the St. Joseph's parish house Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock when Miss Anna Conroy and Harrison Becker were united in marriage by the Rev. Father John Lagan. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss May Conroy, with Jack Conroy acting as best man.

Mrs. M. G. Wilcox entertained at a lawn party Wednesday evening at her home, 2656 Quincy avenue, in honor of her daughter, Miss Doris Wilcox. The occasion was her eleventh birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in games and dancing on the lawn, which was gaily decorated with Japanese lanterns.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Van Sickle of Farmington and baby daughter were Ogden visitors last Sunday. Mrs. Van Sickle was formerly Miss Rachael Arbor of Ogden.

Miss Loretta Stuart, a September bride, was the complimented guest at a china and linen shower Wednesday evening when Miss Doris Paine entertained at her home, 172 Thirtieth street. Roses, asters and sunflowers were used to decorate the rooms. The evening was spent in various amusements. Refreshments were served to thirty guests.

Mrs. Thomas H. Upton and Mrs. Harry J. Upton have returned from a visit with relatives in London, Kent and Wales. They were absent about three months.

Mrs. F. J. Hendershot has gone to Ohio to visit relatives for the coming month. She will attend the Grand Army encampment at Indianapolis.

Miss Alice Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Beck, left Thursday for Laramie, Wyo., to attend the University of Wyoming.

Mrs. Leland B. Swamer of Salt Lake spent the week as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scowcroft.

Mrs. J. M. Read and daughter, Marion, left yesterday for an indefinite visit with Mrs. Read's sister, Mrs. G. A. Rivers of Oakland, Cal.

Mrs. Florence Littlefield has had as her guest for the past two weeks her sister, Mrs. Fannie Peitz of Reno, Nev. Mrs. Peitz is en route to Portland, Ore., to visit her son.

Members of the Beehive swarms of the Twelfth ward entertained their mothers at a luncheon Wednesday evening in the Twelfth ward amusement hall. Two long tables were laid for the guests, presided over by the members of the respective swarms, the Bluebird and the Sunflower. At one table bluebirds were used for the decorations, with a predominating color of blue. Looped from the chandelier, ribbons with bluebirds attached were arranged to the table. Bluebird designs were also used on the placecards. At the other table a bowl of large sunflowers formed the attractive centerpiece. Sunflower designs were used on the placecards. The luncheon was prepared by the members of the two swarms and served in dainty fashion. Covers were laid for about seventy guests. During the luncheon, toasts were given by Bishop Wheelwright, Mrs. Fred Taylor, Mrs. George McFarland, Mrs. Irving Emmett, Mrs. Isabelle Bramwell and Marybell Stevenson.

Left to right, top, Miss Rosalind Rieman, of the Ogden Community service, costumed as a fairy princess telling stories to the children in Seattle. Miss Rieman came to Ogden to assist with girls' community work here. She has engaged extensively both in dramatic movements and with Camp-Fire girls. Miss Majorie Day, who will assist with the community celebrations planned in Ogden.

Lower row, Mrs. John Harold Richards, formerly Miss Doris Chase, whose wedding took place Wednesday evening. Miss Florence Wattis, who left Thursday, accompanied by her father, Warren L. Wattis, for Smith's college at Northampton, Mass. Mrs. Conrad Jensen, formerly Miss Olive Belnap, whose wedding was solemnized in the Salt Lake temple, Thursday.

PHOTOS BY Fred C. Rabe RIDGES STUDIO

The Golden Spike chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Edward Carver on Adams avenue. Mrs. L. Erwin was the assisting hostess. A program was arranged for the year's work, at er which a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served. The next meeting of the chapter will be held Monday, October 11, with Mrs. A. D. Barber and Mrs. Mary Gaddie as hostesses.

The Pythian Sisters held their regular meeting Tuesday evening in the K. P. hall. A social hour was enjoyed later.

Mrs. Bart Krumpnerman was hostess to the Daughters of the Mormon Battalion Monday afternoon at her home, 2329 Quincy avenue.

Harold Kay left Thursday for Washington, D. C., after spending a three weeks' vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kay, at their home in Ogden canyon. He will visit en route in Chicago, Colonel and Mrs. McCammon. Mr. Kay is connected with the department of commerce at Washington. He is also attending school there.

The Baptist Missionary society held its first meeting of the season Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lenora Skaggs, 785 Twenty-eighth street. Mrs. T. J. Fitzgerald and Mrs. J. E. Grace were the assisting hostesses. Mrs. J. Ray Ward had charge of the devotional and Mrs. J. B. Gebhart gave the lesson, the subject discussed being "The Church and Community Singing." Vocal selections were given by Mrs. Skaggs, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Grace. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served.

Mrs. Louis M. Hall and daughter, Rita, have returned from a ten days' visit with Mrs. W. F. Brim in Park City.

Officers and teachers of the First ward entertained Monday evening at a shower in compliment to Miss Nettie Lidell, a fall bride. Miss Lidell will also be honored at several other affairs during the coming weeks.

Mrs. Frank A. Yeamans is spending the week in Ogden as the guest of Mrs. Jack Bateman and Mrs. Harry Whitely.

At a quiet yet impressive home wedding, Miss Zella May Iverson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Iverson, became the bride of Arthur E.

Eyers, of Ogden, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, 841 Washington avenue, with immediate members of the family and a few relatives present. James Taylor performed the ceremony. The bride was attractively costumed in white georgette over satin and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. She was attended by her sister, Miss Della Iverson, and Joseph Williams. The Iverson home was decorated with fall flowers of every hue. In the dining room, white asters and ferns held prominence on two long tables set for thirty guests. Late in the evening the couple left for Salt Lake, where they will spend a few days. They will return to Ogden to make their home.

A number of the little friends of Miss Janet Burton gathered at her home Saturday afternoon, Sept. 11, to celebrate the sixth anniversary of her birthday. A pleasant afternoon was spent in playing games on the lawn, prizes were won by Josephine Nelson and Howard Blakeley. At 5 o'clock all gathered in the dining room, which was in darkness, where refreshments were served to all by the light of the six candles on the birthday cake. Many pretty little gifts were given to the hostess by the following little guests: Josephine Nelson, Herman Hart, Carlita Stuart, Be-

Joice Williams, Jack Nelson, Heber Graham, Maurine Yarbrough, Therman Hart, Anthon Yarbrough, Margaret Blakeley, Carlyle Nelson, Howard Blakeley.

Mrs. I. C. Chandler, of Salt Lake, announces the engagement of her daughter, Marie Chandler, to L. Dow Browning of Ogden. The wedding will take place during the latter part of October.

Senator Joseph Chez accompanied by his two sons, Fred and Carlos, visited in Chicago for a week. Senator Chez and Carlos returned Thursday to Ogden, but Fred Chez remained in Tennessee to attend the Tennessee Military college.

Members of the Royal Purple club will meet at the home of Mrs. Anna Towse, 537 Canyon Road, Monday evening. Mrs. Anna Turner and Miss Jacketta Turner will be the assisting hostesses for the event.

The regular meeting of the Sacred Heart Alumnae association was held Monday evening in the library of the school. The first silver tea will be given in the school parlors on Sunday, Sept. 26, by the officers of the association. Preparations are under way to make this one of the most successful.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Griffin have moved from their home in Ogden canyon to their city residence.

Mrs. Gertrude Biddle Bojorquis is visiting for two weeks in Ogden as the guest of her relatives and friends. Mrs. Bojorquis is now residing in Oakland, Cal.

Miss Doris Chase, bride of the week, was hostess at a trossseau tea Monday afternoon from 2 till 7 o'clock at her home on Twelfth street. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Belva Chase, who presided at the tea table, which was adorned with fall flowers. Forty guests called.

Bride-to-be Is Honored Guest At Two Events

Afternoon Tea and Evening Dance Given Friday for Miss Holley

Miss Ida Holley, whose wedding will be one of the interesting events of the fall social season, was the complimented guest at an afternoon tea, given at the home of Mrs. Joseph Scowcroft, 533 Twenty-sixth street, Friday afternoon. Elaborately decorated with fall flowers of every hue, the Scowcroft home was an appropriate background for the pretty event. Miss Holley is to become the bride of John Fletcher Scowcroft during October.

Guests were received by Mrs. Joseph Scowcroft, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Eccles, Miss Ida Holley, Mrs. Louis Peery and Mrs. L. B. Swamer. Purple and pink asters in tall cut-glass vases were tastefully arranged in the parlor, while the reception room was gay with tall baskets of cosmos and red roses. In the dining room, pink asters, arranged with ferns in wicker baskets, the handles of which were tied with blue mulline, lent an effective charm. The table was laid with elmy lace over blue with a basket of flowers forming the centerpiece. The conservatory was arranged as a Japanese garden, adorned with attractive and delicately shaded lanterns and parasols. Tea was served in the conservatory and was poured by Mrs. Ezra C. Rich. Mrs. G. Holley, Miss Browning, Mrs. J. Frank Ellis, Mrs. Joseph Eccles and Mrs. Louis Peery. Music for the occasion was given by the Lillian Thatcher orchestra. Tea was served to about one hundred and fifty guests, including several from Salt Lake.

On Friday evening Miss Helen Rich entertained at a dancing party at the Hermitage hotel for Miss Holley. About sixty couples were in attendance, including a number of out-of-town guests. Dancing was enjoyed in the Hermitage reception room, which was profusely decorated with autumn leaves. Luncheon was served in the parlors, cheery with baskets of asters, cosmos, verbenas and chrysanthemum sunflowers. Music was given by the Lillian Thatcher orchestra.

Mrs. Claude Maddock entertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Doris Chase, bride of the week, on Friday evening, September 10, at her home on Washington avenue. The rooms were decorated with gladioli and asters. Games were played during the evening. Refreshments were served to eighteen guests. Mrs. Maddock was assisted by Miss Viola Smuin.

"The Isle of Dreams," a musical fantasy written and staged by Bob Major, met with success Monday evening when it was given at the Hooper opera house. The cast of characters for the play was taken from the Beegoe and Wandas clubs of Riverdale and Roy. Mr. Major was assisted by Miss Mary Fisher, Miss Louise Fisher and Miss Rosella Dalton of Roy. In all probabilities the play will be produced in Ogden later.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Richardson have moved their place of residence from Grant avenue and Twenty-second street to 700 Twenty-fifth street. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson have bought the Johnson residence.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Griffin have moved from their home in Ogden canyon to their city residence.

Mrs. Gertrude Biddle Bojorquis is visiting for two weeks in Ogden as the guest of her relatives and friends. Mrs. Bojorquis is now residing in Oakland, Cal.

Miss Doris Chase, bride of the week, was hostess at a trossseau tea Monday afternoon from 2 till 7 o'clock at her home on Twelfth street. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Belva Chase, who presided at the tea table, which was adorned with fall flowers. Forty guests called.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Parker and family left Sunday for Long Beach, Cal., to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Peery and son, Louis Jr., and Mrs. D. H. Peery have returned from a week's automobile trip through southern Utah.

Mrs. Lester S. Corer, Mrs. Den Ensign and Mrs. William Van Alen were Salt Lake visitors Monday.

Mrs. S. J. Griffin and daughter, Lucile, left Thursday for Omaha to visit Mrs. Griffin's daughter, Mrs. E. R. Flisk. They expected to be gone for a month.

Mrs. L. F. Kneipp, who will early this week leave to make her home in Washington, D. C., was the complimented guest at a luncheon given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Shearman at her home in Ogden canyon. Yellow nasturtiums were used on the luncheon table. Covers were laid for six.

The S. O. H. club was entertained Monday evening at the home of Miss Mary Dunn, 3031 Grant avenue. The evening was spent in dancing and sewing. Refreshments were served to ten club members. Miss Thelma Garner will be hostess to the club tomorrow evening at her home on Eccles avenue.