

Prominent Men Will Appear Before Jury On Gambling Charges

New Developments Announced in Investigation Being Conducted at Chicago by Cook County Grand Jury; Eight Sox Players Involved; Presidents Heydler and Johnson to Be Questioned

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Indictments based on charges of conspiracy to defraud may be the result of the Cook county grand jury investigation of alleged crookedness by the players in last fall's world series, it was indicated today by Henry P. Brigham, foreman of the jury. "There seems to be more than sufficient evidence to support such charges," Mr. Brigham declared. In connection with Brigham's announcement that Arnold Rothstein, New York turfman and chief owner of the Havre de Grace racetrack, had been subpoenaed, it was learned today that President B. B. Johnson, of the American league, has been in New York for two days investigating reports involving New York men in the alleged plan to "fix" the 1919 world's series so Cincinnati would win and enable the gamblers on the "inside" to win large sums. Besides Rothstein, subpoenas also will be issued, Brigham announced for William Burns, former pitcher of the Chicago American and Cincinnati National league teams, Abe Atell, former featherweight champion, and several well known sportsmen. Eight members of the White Sox team, whose shares in the world's series money were held up by President Charles A. Comiskey for several months, probably will not be summoned, Brigham said, adding that the grand jury is getting plenty of evidence elsewhere. PRESIDENTS CALLED Among the leading witnesses expected to appear when the grand jury resumes its investigation next Tuesday are Presidents Johnson and Heydler. The latter was in Detroit yesterday tracing reports of an alleged attempt to "fix" a recent game here between Chicago and Philadelphia National league teams. Heydler said he expected to go to Cleveland and Cincinnati in search of evidence and expected to arrive here Tuesday. Members of the grand jury, it was indicated, wish to question him about the true reasons for the discharge last fall of "Heinie" Zimmerman and Hal Chase from the New York Giants. Chase has been mentioned

New Star Hits Big League White Way

BY DEAN SNYDER.

What a southpaw he is—this Walter Mails, the Pacific coast special delivery package which Tris Speaker has added to his pennant-fighting braves. Cleveland at last has a lefty who fits into the pitching staff of the Jim Bagby-Stanley Coveleskie & Co. like a postage stamp fits the upper right hand corner of an envelope. He hasn't taken a licking yet. Manager Spoke showed him off on Labor day against the Browns. Jimmy Burke's swatters gleaned a couple runs off him, but the Indians salvaged seven. His next turn came against Connie Mack's kids. He also made them look foolish and turned in a 5 to 2 victory for the Redskins.

GREAT HEART. On the third start Mails was righter than a rabbit. He blanked the Nats 1 to 0. That game stamped him as one of the best left-hand pitchers that has ever been dropped into the big league mail sack.

To win against the Washington club he was opposing a pitcher in Zachary, who was making the Indians wave their shillalaws in vain.

He was called upon to show a great heart, a lot of brains and a shoot that had a little something extra on its zig-zag.

HAS THE HOP. Such critics as Umpire Billy Evans, Jimmy McAleer and Hughey Duffy say that the Sacramento recruit has the most stuff they have looked over since the days of Doc White, Rube Waddell and Eddie Plank. He has so much speed that the ball burns through the air with an odd hop at the finish.

He will win more games. That is a pipe. The Indians only need a few more to center home to the tape. With Bagby and Covey still holding up under the terrific strain which they have been under all summer the new comer is the big cheese at the Indians' banquet.

HE'S CHATTY. Personally Mails has a big physique, capable of standing a lot of work. He is very sociable, too. They called him "Chatty" Mails out west.

He is keen to be on a pennant winning team so that he can rub it on Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson in the world's series. Robbie had him once, but mistook him for a poor postal card and mailed him back to the coast. Mails has hit the calcium lights in

The coaster is the latest star to hit the big league white, and, folks, he is sure burning a bright little trail.

HAWAIIAN STAR SEEKS PLACE ON GRIDIRON TEAM. OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 25.—The name of Kahanamoku, already famous in the aquatic annals of the world, may be given prominence in football history as a result of the arrival of the famous swimmer's younger brother, David, at St. Mary's college here and his enrollment on the football squad.

DAVID plays tackle and is counted upon to strengthen the line considerably. St. Mary's has a strong skeleton of last year's varsity players back in the harness this year, enough to afford a framework for a formidable eleven.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Mid-western football players will inaugurate the 1920 season today in four games, the most important of which, according to sporting writers, will be the contest between Indiana, the only western conference team to get into action, and Franklin college at Bloomington, Ind. The "big ten" season will open a week later.

ST. PAUL—Steps are being taken by Commissioner Smith to shorten the height of policemen to meet the shortage of cops. No it isn't a joke at all! St. Paul's cops under the present rule, must be five feet, eight inches in their socks. There are now 49 vacancies, hence the fight for reducing the height standard.

STUDENTS HAZE WITH TACKS. DENVER.—The police are investigating a mild little hazing party said to have been held by seniors of the Independence high school here at the expense of juniors. The upper classmen, it is charged, compelled the freshmen to hold a shirt-tail parade and studded with tacks. Bobby Shafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shafer, has a fractured knee.

CALIFORNIA HAS NIFTY GRIDDERS

But One Veteran Conceded a Place on 1920 Aggregation; Majors Leads Berkeley

BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 25.—Football at University of California this season promises to be one continuous battle, rather than a series of stirring contests against opposing teams, stirred up by local sports interests in training. The reason is that there are eleven men on hand who have won their football "C" and that there also are a number of exceedingly sturdy contenders for places on the varsity eleven who have come up from freshman ranks.

Rainiers Win Twin Bill From Senators

Big Elevens Will Open Grid Seasons

INSIDER

Who is that verdant-looking guy in green and purple sweaters? Which bears the letters "C. H. S."? Why doesn't he look better? He was an athletic star—A husky football wonder—Back in some effort fitting school. But, golly, what a blunder. For him to wear that prep affair. For when the sophomores lamp him. They'll soak him with a canvas club. And with cold water damp him.

They have a pleasing custom at Dartmouth. Long years of experience have taught the undergraduates of that institution just how to handle the verdant freshman; just how to school him and make a man of him.

Each summer the prospective freshman gets a nice long letter of advice, sent him by the Y. M. C. A. at Hanover, which handles such matters in the absence of the student body.

Of course, the above is not quoted literally from the letter. Not even the Y. M. C. A. would use such words as symbols and prowess in writing to a freshman. They give it to him in words of one syllable.

Now that's cooking advice. There is nothing that hampers a freshman's early career in college like concealing all evidence of athletic skill at home because those high school trifles don't mean anything at college and he is coming to Hanover to begin a new life.

High school gridiron, track and diamond honors really do count for a great deal in his college life. They help freshmen to make good fraternities and achieve other campus honors more easily than the student with the bulging brow who doesn't know a base hit from a no-trump declaration.

But this fact should not be known to the freshman. He shouldn't try to display his honors. For if he does, he is likely to get cold water thrown on him at midnight and to have his kumpan kut trousers warmed with the gasticulous, which is a canvas bag stuffed with excelsior.

That's why the Dartmouth Y is doing a great service in warning the freshmen to leave their medals at home.
