

LOVE and MARRIED LIFE by the noted author Idah McGlone Gibson

MY WEDDING GIFT TO MY DAUGHTER Yesterday I went to the attic to look for a piece of Chinese brocade that I intended to give to the dressmaker that she might make a negligee for Mary, my daughter, who will, within a month marry young, Rose...

locks and the gray at Karl's temples has spread all over his head. Karl is a very handsome man, they tell me, of course I would think so. And yet, I'm going to be his wife for the rest of my life. I have never seen as handsome a man as your own father, John Gordon...

"City Housekeeper" Would Apply Housekeeping Instincts to Politics

BY EDWARD M. THIERRY. CHICAGO.—"Women in the new glory of national suffrage ought not to keep on being housekeepers," said Miss Deana Marie Anderson...

DEANA ANDERSON Miss Anderson calls herself a "sort of glorified whitewashing."

BEDTIME STORIES BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE GROUND HOUSE. Copyright, 1920, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. (By Howard R. Garis) One day, when Uncle Wiggily Longears, the bunny rabbit gentleman, was hopping over the fields and through the woods, wondering what would happen, he heard some voices talking in a field of mullen stalks...

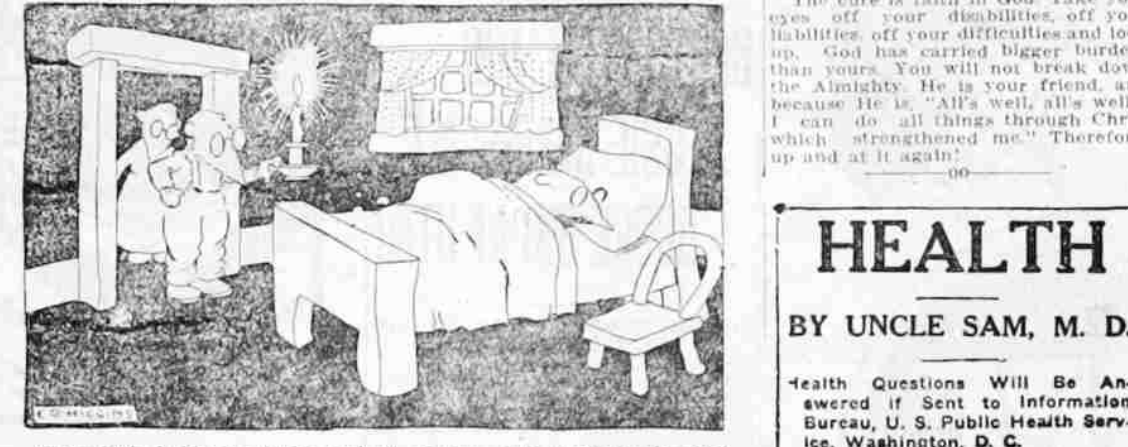

ump bungalow. Uncle Wiggily. Then Reggie Spot Tail would come to play with me. "Stuff and nonsense!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "If your friends look at your house first, and then at you, it is better to get new friends. But, if I am not much mistaken, here comes that Reggie in his hour again. Well, he's running, too. I wonder what's the matter?"

Dorothy Dix Talks REGARDING PERSONALITY

In a recent article I urged girls to make themselves efficient, because I believe that is the one and only way they can achieve success. A business girl, who signifies "Efficiency" in lacking in personality, takes issue with me. She writes: "Efficiency without personality will never get a girl anywhere..."

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

MUFF MOLE'S PUNISHMENTS. When the moon bell rang in the distance, Muff Mole hurried home. He was all out of sorts, because instead of hunting earth worms as he had planned, after slipping off from the eLadown Grove school, he had been quarreling with Flop Mole...

"Poor little kiddie," said his father. "I guess he's learned a lesson." Muff got a wonderful supper. How to handle a baby. A baby must always be handled carefully. His bones are still part cartilage and they bend and break easily...

HEALTH BY UNCLE SAM, M. D.

Health Questions Will Be Answered if Sent to Information Bureau, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington, D. C. Q. What can you tell me about pellagra? It is considered a curable disease. A. I am sending you a number of bulletins which deal with pellagra. The disease is due to some dietary deficiencies, and is curable by correction of the fault in the diet...

Rippling Rhymes BY WALT MASON

CAREFUL DRIVER. I drive my car with cautious care, all laws and statutes minding, and only pause anon to swear when balky valves need grinding. I drive upon old fashioned lines, as though a speed trap feared; I honk my horn when danger signs before me are appearing. I put my hand out when I'd turn, so those behind may know it, and doubtless they remark, "Go-tern! But he's the cautious one, twelve miles an hour is what I hit, when I go forth to travel; my wheels don't fill the air with grit, or throw up chunks of gravel. A man so careful, you would say, must dodge all kinds of danger, but one is crippled every day, and I'm that pilgrim stranger. Day after day they bring me home, home to my weeping wives, with compound fractures in my dome, and organs shot to pieces. The speed fiends go their crazy ways unburnt, and still go faster; the reckless drivers spend their days unwatched, nor know disaster. But I, who follow all the rules, am marked for daily slaughter, and when my present ponticoo cools, they'll put on one that's hotter."

DISENCHANTED EGOTISM BY DR. JAMES I. VANCE

It is a bad thing to get discouraged. It throws life's machinery out of gear. The heart is depressed, the brain confused, the judgment stammered, and the will short-circuited. Discouragement results in a paralysis of effort. The perspective is spoiled, initiative is put out of business, and success made a forlorn hope. No cause can win with discouraged adherents. Even God Himself, it would seem, can do nothing through a discouraged man.

Resinol Keeps the little folks Comfortable and Happy. Don't neglect the little one's chafed skin or the patches of rash eczema, for children are bound to scratch, and these minor troubles may result in stubborn sores. Resinol Ointment is widely recommended by doctors and nurses because it soothes and heals, and cannot harm the tender skin. Resinol Soap is ideal for the bath. All drug stores sell Resinol Soap and Ointment.
