PLAN CUT-OFF AND TUBE ELIMINATING S. F. FERRY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Proposals for the elimination of ferry boats between the San Francisco and Oakland passenger terminals on San Francisco bay and the substitution of a cut-off to an island in the bay known as Yerba Buena from the Oakland side and a tube to San Francisco from the island, was submitted by Rear Admiral Joseph L. Joyce, commanding the Twelfth naval district, to a meeting of railroad and civic executives here today.

Admiral Joyce proposed that the present suburban pier of the San Francisco-Oakland terminal railways (Key route) be extended to the island, thus forming a cut-off from Oakland to the island for the accommodation of both the terminal system and the Southern Pacific railroad.

The plan called further for a union terminal on the island which would accommodate overnight as well as suburban traffic. The plan, it is understood, is viewed with approval in government quarters.

Cox Reveals Stand On Volstead Act In Touring Dry States

EN ROUTE WITH GOVERNOR COX, OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 27.—After yesterday's tour of South Dakota where he gave the first pronouncement of his attitude toward the Volstead enforcement act, Governor Cox, Democratic nominee for president, today traveled to Missouri and Kansas where the prohibition question has been one of the vital issues for many years.

Compared with yesterday's schedule of 10 speeches, only three addresses were on today's program. The first, St. Joseph, Mo., in the early afternoon, was to be followed by one at Atchison, Kan., in the late afternoon and at Topeka, the state capital, in the evening.

CRITICISMS HARDING In a statement issued this morning and which was expected to form the basis of his Missouri and Kansas speeches today, Governor Cox again severely criticized his Republican opponent for having no definite plan to offer in substituting for the league of nations.

ALL ELSE FAILS "Of course the reason Senator Harding has no substitute for the league of nations is because everything else has been tried and has failed. The inter-parliamentary union held conferences for a decade before the great war. The Hague court had been functioning for more than 15 years—but both were impotent to prevent or even postpone the catastrophe. And as for the great alliance, instead of preventing war by a balance of power they provoked war by the multiplication of arms and munitions, of battle fleets and standing armies."

MUST MAKE DECISION "We are at the crossroads of destiny and must make our decision. We must choose either to retrace our steps over the broad road of international anarchy, which we have seen leads only to destruction, or we must choose to advance and travel along the straight and narrow path of international justice, patrolled by the moral might of the civilized nations of the world."

QUESTIONED ON "RUM" FOUNTAIN FALLS, S. D., Sept. 28.—A statement regarding the Volstead prohibition enforcement law—that he would oppose any measure that is in conflict with the constitution and the 18th amendment, as interpreted by the supreme court, and his comments on questions regarding the league of nations from persons of German blood marked a lively tour of South Dakota yesterday by Governor Cox.

WONT AMPLIFY STATEMENT "My attitude with reference to that whole question is this," Governor Cox replied. "I shall oppose any measure that is in conflict with the constitution of the United States and the eighteenth amendment, as interpreted by the supreme court."

THE GOVERNOR, when questioned later by newspaper men, declined to amplify his statement, declaring that it stood as given. To his Corn Show audience, the candidate reiterated his statement regarding Sunday closing of Ohio, saloons while governor.

That Germany should be welcomed into the league of nations and "treated as well as any other nation," was stated by Governor Cox in reply to persons of German blood or descent, forming a large part of communities the candidate reached today. He said that big game hunters, not the masses caused the war and discussing "America first" and "Deutschland her Allen" declared that the pro-German slogan was selfish and its policy disastrous.

IN VIRTUALLY all of his speeches today—a total of sixteen, including fourteen outdoors in a biting wind and the thermometer around the 59 mark—Governor Cox assailed Senator Harding, denouncing and discrediting the senator's demagogue yesterday at Baltimore to a question upon the league of nations and the Republican nominee's statement that he was "without a single program constructive about an association of nations." Governor Cox declared the situation "deplorable and pitiable."

THE CANDIDATE of the senatorial oligarchy, by his statement, the governor declared in addressing a large audience here at the auditorium closing his Nebraska tour, "pleaded guilty on behalf of his filial and his associates for the most stupendous conspiracy the world has ever seen. This statement is a confession of the charge I have made that this group has deliberately held up the price of the world and outraged a suffering civilization for selfish partisan purposes and willfully obstructed the reconstruction process in the United States that they might win a presidential election for themselves in a re-arrangement that might be arranged at the administration in power."

THE LEAGUE of nations program and agricultural topics were preached by the governor to all of his fifteen South Dakota audiences, mostly rear platform gatherings, which the candidate addressed blanketed in a heavy mist against raw blasts of the coldest day of his campaign. Statements, initiating in Nebraska regarding league support by all religious organizations, were repeated today through this state and again applauded demonstratively. The outdoor program today equalled only in Michigan at the start of his present trip, sorely tried the governor's hoarse voice and physical ailments.

FRIENDLY TO GERMANS "We have no concern about any national bitterness in America," the governor said. "The war is over and Germany should be treated just as well as any other nation. The Germans are a very thrifty and working people. The German people were not responsible for the war. It was the junkies that were responsible for the war, the military autocracy. There are a lot of fine, splendid men and women in America whose names suggested German parentage who had a very unhappy time during this war because of a mere handful of junkies in America that misrepresented the loyal Americans of German ancestry."

ON FARM LOANS In continuing here his attacks upon Senator Harding and the "senatorial oligarchy," the governor declared that the "financial leadership" had, for political purposes, rejected "a definite and efficient program for reconstruction," but put forth by the present administration in order to create chaos and to induce the people to cry for a change.

But the people are having their eyes opened," the governor declared. "The country is beginning to understand that it has been victimized by a political ring, drunk with power, and with one object only—to annex to itself the president's office."

That was proposed to change the federal reserve act in the interests of bankers was reasserted by the governor. He charged that "the reactionary group wants to give control to Wall Street," but said that "fortunately their despicable plot has been discovered in time."

TRAVELER VEXED BY RESTRICTIONS

Rail Journey From Paris to Constantinople Marked By Official Red Tape

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 5.—(Correspondence)—Nine visas are required to carry a traveler from Constantinople to Paris on the Oriental express, and the task is so great that most travelers take steamers to Marseilles or Venice in preference to the jumbled rail trip across the Balkans, which necessitates endless controversies with border control officials at various frontiers.

An American who desires to go to Paris by rail must start with the visa of the United States consulate on his passport. Then the tourist must go to the Swedish legation to get the Bulgarian visa. The Serbian stamp is next in order. It must be followed by three Greek stamps, that of the Greek high commissioner, of the Greek military control and of the Greek consul. Then visas must be had of the Italian and the French military controls.

Many passports are not large enough to carry all the stamps. An Englishman, who recently attempted to get the collection on an old passport, exhausted all the blank space in four calls. His embassy would not permit him to attach a blank sheet to his passport. Consequently he had to have a new one issued and started over again on the round of vexatious queries.

Since the Polish disaster, Bolshevik agitation has become so acute in Turkey that travelers are watched more carefully than ever before by the allied officials. On a recent passenger ship from Batum a so-called Russian colonel, whose conversation with British officials showed a regular ignorance of military affairs, was arrested. He had five passports in his trunk, together with great quantities of soviet literature in many languages. The bogus colonel was sent to General Wrangel in the Crimea.

MISSING GIRL FOUND IN OGDEN

Says Supposed Mother No Relation; She Gets Work Here

Believing that the woman, whom she had always known as her mother, was in no way related to her, Miss Margaret Banford, pretty Scotch lass, to change her mind about going to Wells, Nev., to live. Consequently she remained in Ogden, got a job and caused a stir involving a search for her by police officers of the intermountain country for more than a week.

Miss Banford was located by Detectives Robert Chabers and W. A. Jones today working for Mrs. H. Mathias of 2341 Lincoln avenue.

The girl, when questioned by officers, answered all questions without hesitation, and related her history to them.

Eight years ago the woman, Mrs. J. W. Banford, whom the girl thought was her mother, came to America from Scotland. The girl's father was dead. The woman, upon arriving in Ogden, married again, and six months ago Miss Banford came to America.

She said that Mrs. Banford told her that she was not her real mother. When the girl looks upon the woman as her mother, she decided that she was not wanted around the Banford home, she said. Instead she sought employment in Ogden rather than continue to Mrs. Banford at Wells. Miss Banford had just returned from a visit in Idaho, and had been supplied with a pass by her stepfather, J. W. Banford, it is said.

On the day she was supposed to depart, she left the depot and asked a woman where she could find employment. The woman cared for her for two days until the girl was given employment by Mrs. Mathias.

The matter was dropped, so far as the police were concerned. Miss Banford's statement that she was 20 years old being borne out by her personal appearance, they said.

ELKS SURE TO HAVE DINNER OF FINE WILD DUCKS

Members of Ogden lodge, No. 719, E. F. O. Elks, are reasonably sure of a duck feed along about Tuesday evening, October 12.

It is all comes about by reason of a challenge hurled by John Kinney to any other member.

Kinney declared he could go out and shoot more ducks than the next fellow—wild ducks.

The lodge was notified of this challenge by E. G. Burrell. Whereupon Burrell was made captain of one team and Kinney of another, and the lodge instructed the two to take teams out and get some ducks.

The team which shoots the least number of birds must clean and dress the entire number of ducks for the duck dinner to which all members of the lodge will be invited on the meeting night following the shoot.

Sunday, October 17, is the date when the teams will take the field. The captains want all Elks who are duck hunters to sign up to go as a member of one team or the other.

COLLY HINERS SOCIALIST NEWS

Secretary of State Shuts Out N. Y. Call Men From Daily Interview

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Secretary Colby announced today that Paul Hanna, correspondent of the New York Call, a Socialist newspaper, and Laurence Todd, associated with Mr. Hanna in the Federated Press bureau, would not be permitted in the future to attend the daily conferences with the newspaper correspondents.

The announcement was made at a regular morning conference with the correspondents and after the secretary had read a letter written by Mr. Hanna to Fred A. Emery, head of the information bureau of the state department. Mr. Hanna charged in the letter that Mr. Colby was using the conferences with the newspaper men as a means of inspiring the press with views of his own and that he also had put wrong interpretations on the news. Mr. Emery was asked in the letter to obtain from Mr. Colby a statement in defense of the charges so that it might be published along with the original accusations.

The secretary of state told the correspondents that his whole object in holding conferences with them was to aid them in obtaining accurate information and to cooperate in furnishing international news to the American public. He asked the correspondents whether they thought Mr. Hanna's charges justified and H. C. McMillen, a correspondent of the New York Evening Post, expressed the opinion that they were, but he added that he did not mean to impugn the secretary's integrity nor to appear in the light of supporting the charges.

WOMAN ROBS SEAMAN IN BUSINESSLIKE WAY

BORDEAUX, Sept. 11.—(Correspondence)—Yves Berthon mumbled off the good ship Laverdiere where he presides over the destinies of the galleys, with 1,900 francs in his pocket and a great longing in his heart for a sailor's good time.

"Hands off!" was the shout of a feminine voice that greeted him as he turned into a waterfront street from the docks.

"This is a good joke," said Yves, as he wheeled about to look into the muzzle of a business-like revolver, held by a steady feminine hand. "This is indeed a good joke, let me kiss you."

"Bang!" spat the business-like revolver and Yves felt a stinging pain in the left shoulder.

When he awoke, the 1,900 francs had gone and so had the business-like woman. It was just getting dark, Yves went to the police station first, then returned to the good ship Laverdiere.

MRS. BERGDOLL GUILTY OF AIDING SLACKER SONS

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll and her four co-defendants were found guilty last night of conspiring to aid two of her sons, Grover and Erwin, evade the draft.

The verdict was returned before Judge Dickinson in the United States district court.

Mrs. Bergdoll, her son, Charles A. Bain, and former Magistrate James E. Romig, were found guilty on every count under which they had been indicted.

Albert S. Mitchell and Henry Schu, were acquitted on the indictments in which they alone were defendants, but found guilty with a recommendation for mercy on the joint bills.

On application of their counsel the defendants were released on $10,000 bail each pending a motion for a new trial.

There were seven indictments, including 56 counts. In two of the indictments all five of the defendants were charged with conspiring with Grover and Erwin Bergdoll to assist them in evading the draft. The other five indictments charged each defendant separately with conspiring with the Bergdolls to evade the draft.

ACTION PLEASES ALLIES VIENNA, Sept. 9.—(Correspondence)—Austria's promise to amend her treaty with the Russian soviet so as to conform with the peace treaty with the allies has evoked from British and French representatives the announcement that their government would release credits for the return of Austrian war prisoners, which were held up recently.
