TELL OF SUGAR FACTORY DEAL

Former and Present President Issue Statements on Sale Of Cache Plant

Attitude of John A. Hendrickson, former president of the West Cache sugar company, towards the recent transfer of the company's assets to the Amalgamated Sugar company was shown in a statement issued yesterday by him.

Mr. Hendrickson, in his statement explained that before the meeting at which the transfer was made, was held a special meeting had been held in the morning at which officers of the company resigned as follows: Ernest R. Woolley, as president; William Spry as vice president, and B. C. Rich as secretary.

The new officers chosen at the same meeting were: David A. West, president; W. T. Fox, secretary, and Abe Tyson, director, in the place of Mr. Featherston.

Not one present voted in favor of the sale, except the three men representing the previous officer, who claimed they were made officers at the morning meeting of the directors at Salt Lake.

The present minority stockholders numbering about 150, are extremely dissatisfied and will undoubtedly look into the sale, believing that it was not genuine.

WEST'S STATEMENT. In reply to Mr. Hendrickson, David A. West, president of the West Cache, said:

"I was elected president of the company on September 20, at which time all the stock owned by Ernest R. Woolley and his associates was sold to the Amalgamated Sugar company of Ogden, Utah, in accordance with the resolution approved and ratified without a dissenting vote by the stockholders' meeting at Logan."

The Alhambra meeting Saturday night will be open to all and there will be no reservations made. It was announced today by Arthur Woolley, county chairman. An invitation is extended to the public to attend.

IN VIEW OF THE FACT that Senator Beveridge is nationally known as a brilliant speaker, and the rally will be held on Saturday night, people from all parts of the country are expected to attend.

Arrangements were made whereby Mr. Jefferson will speak Tuesday evening at Brigham City; October 14 at Smithfield and October 15 at Wellsville. October 12 is an open date but arrangements are being made whereby he will speak somewhere in Boxelder county on that day.

Senator W. S. Kenyon of Iowa is scheduled to speak in Ogden next Tuesday evening when another Republican rally will be staged. The senator has also arranged to speak to Salt Lake and other Utah cities.

Congressman Albert W. Jeffers of the Second Nebraska district is to speak in Utah in behalf of the Republican ticket. Word that he is coming was contained in a telegram received by State Chairman Spry from Senator Harry S. New, director of the Republican national committee speakers' bureau.

Arrangements were made whereby Mr. Jefferson will speak Tuesday evening at Brigham City; October 14 at Smithfield and October 15 at Wellsville. October 12 is an open date but arrangements are being made whereby he will speak somewhere in Boxelder county on that day.

Running parallel with the dominant love story of "Julie" and "Babe" is a minor theme no less appealing in its romantic "romance" of the "buddies" and "Lise" Miss Brooklyn.

And through the double story runs the golden thread of Mr. Hillman's music and the humor and pathos which attend the daily doing of the American soldiers as they await their return, after the armistice, to American shores. The seat sale opens tomorrow.

On Wednesday night, October 13, the Selwyn production of "Buddies" comes here direct from a twelve-months' engagement in the Selwyn Theatre, New York City. The production will be at the Orpheum Theatre.

The fragrance of the romance of "Buddies" and the charm of its interlocking music gripped the heart of New York last season as a musical production seldom does. From the rise of the first curtain Julie Deane, the sweet maid of Brittany, has the sympathy of every audience in the trials she endures through the exasperating shyness of "Babe," one of the American "buddies," billeted in her peasant home.

ABOUT MEXICO. J. C. Bentley, president of the Juarez mission, said that the situation in the country where he and his assistants are engaged is much unsettled. Members of the L. D. S. church colonies are awaiting the appearance of orders from the new Mexican government but do not know when they will arrive. American mining activity is virtually at a standstill in most sections, although there is some development of the lumber trade. Crops are fair, but not up to the standard of last year.

Mr. Bentley said that a movement is on foot to make Juarez and other border towns "dry" Saturday afternoons and Sundays, because since the enactment of national prohibition in the United States these towns had been frequented by many from the United States who came for carousal purposes.

SOUTHERN CROPS GOOD. Charles A. Hallister, director of the southern states mission, with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga., said that all over the south the crops were unusually good, although in the coldest section in thirty-one years had brought frosts damaging the fruit to some extent. He said that the cotton was selling for 23 cents per pound, that the people were dissatisfied with the price, and that the newspapers, banks and merchants generally were advising the growers to hold their cotton for at least 40 cents per pound.

Bishop George W. Green of the Lethbridge, Canada, stake, reported that his section of the country had the best crop in years so far as quality was concerned. He added that the best part of it was that the harvest had been made without trouble before frost had time to do any material damage.

William L. Adamson, president of the Blaine (Idaho) stake, a resident of Carey, said that the yields were about an average in the region over which he had jurisdiction, and that, according to his general information, the Gem state was in a flourishing condition. Statements from church officials from virtually every section represented in the conference were optimistic in tone.

GRANT TO OPEN CONFERENCE. President Heber J. Grant was to open the conference this morning. His counselors, President Anthony H. Lund and Charles W. Penrose, will be in attendance. President Penrose was ill for a few days this week, and fears were expressed that he might be confined to his bed, but a member of his family said yesterday that complete recovery had been made.

Yesterday was a busy one at the bureau of information in the tabernacle square, in addition to caring for the usual number of tourists, the new official conference guide was distributed and a heavy seat sale for the CONFERENCE IS OPENED TODAY. Ogdenites Go to Salt Lake to Attend 91st Semi-Annual Sessions. Many Ogdenites were in Salt Lake this morning for the opening of the ninety-first semi-annual conference of the L. D. S. church. Scores of church members from all parts of the conference, opening sessions of which were held in the Tabernacle at 10 o'clock. According to reports from Salt Lake, conversation with the leaders in church work from every part of the North American continent discloses two significant facts which are gratifying to conference visitors. They are pleased to report to the higher authorities of their organization that good progress is being made in the mission work. They are equally pleased to tell the story of good crops in almost every section of the United States. From only one section, Mexico, is a disappointing report as to existing conditions.

Powerful Drama With Beautiful Star Showing at the Ogden Theatre. There is always an element of interest that attracts itself to an actress playing a dual role. Elaine Hammerstein does this admirably in "The Shadow of Rosalie Byrnes," which opened yesterday at the Ogden Theatre, and provides proof that her country-wide reputation as an actress is well deserved. She is twin, Leontine and Leona Maddern. Leontine is the incarnation of selfishness and absolutely without honor. Leona possesses all womanly virtues. The two are constantly crossing each other's paths, and their tantalizing resemblance adds zest to their lives. Most of the time Leontine gets the best of her sister in their encounters because nothing is too sordid for her to make use of to attain her ends. However, Leona comes in for her share of happiness. The story, technically, is of a very high order. The plot, something really new as plots go, is well handled, and the element of suspense well sustained to a satisfying climax.

To Hold Recital for Phonograph, Singer. The Ogden tabernacle will be the scene of a unique recital on Friday evening, October 15, when the Proudfit Sporting Goods company, the Glen Bros.-Roberts Piano company, and the Last & Thomas company, music department, will introduce Miss Marion Evelyn Cox, contralto, and Miss Doris Proudfit, violinist, to a specially invited audience of music lovers. This is her first visit to Ogden, and the music lovers are anticipating a rare treat. From press notices and reports of previous recitals it is certain that she will be warmly received here. She will be assisted by Miss Proudfit and Mr. Edson's Three Million Dollar Phonograph. The recital will be under the management of the Proudfit Sporting Goods company, the Glen Bros.-Roberts Piano company, and the music department of Last & Thomas company. Tickets may be obtained from these stores upon request.
