

Big Double Bill Last Times Today AT UTAH TEA GIVEN FOR CLUB WOMEN

ALL STAR CAST IN "CLOTHES"

Tells the whole human story with dramatic brilliancy and gorgeous mounting.

A FASHION SHOW IN ITSELF

Also the soldier-cowboy actor, Buck Jones, in "The Square Shooter." Tomorrow, Viola Dana in the greatest picture she ever made.

NOT GUILTY IS YOUTH'S PLEA

Ray Clough Arraigned Before Judge Agee on Charge Of Murder

Plea of not guilty to the charge of murdering his father was entered yesterday afternoon by Ray Clough, 14-year-old son of Mrs. Ollie Clough, who was recently sent to the state mental hospital, after being adjudged insane following the murder of James Clough, her husband. The boy was arraigned before Judge A. W. Agee in the district court. The case will be set upon the October calendar of the court.

11th Ward Mutuals Will Give Social

Marking the beginning of the winter sessions of the Mutual Improvement Association, a social will be held tomorrow evening in the Eleventh ward chapel. The program will start at 7:30 o'clock. It follows:

Pair Given Sixty Days in County Jail

Pleas of guilty were entered yesterday afternoon before Judge A. E. Pratt in the district court by Fred Westoby and Jack Wellington, charged with issuing checks without funds in the bank. They were each sentenced to serve sixty days in the county jail.

Ogden Doctor Reads Paper at Salt Lake

Dr. J. E. Morrell of Ogden read a paper "Some Ideals in Medicine," before a meeting of the Salt Lake county Medical Society, at the meeting held last night at the Commercial club in Salt Lake.

Dr. McKeever Talks Four Times Tomorrow

Dr. William A. McKeever, who is scheduled to deliver four addresses in Ogden, will arrive here Wednesday morning on train 19 from the east according to word received here today by Supt. W. Karl Hopkins of the Ogden schools.

HIGH CLASSES NAME OFFICERS

Student Body Also Holds Election; Activities Underway.

The four classes at the Ogden high school—Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors—have elected their class officers for their respective classes during the 1920-21 school term. Officers for the Girls' Athletic Association and the Student Body have also been elected.

Webster Stake to Hold Conference Sunday

Quarterly conference of the Webster Stake will be held next Sunday in the Tabernacle with sessions at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. President L. W. Shurtliff will preside and it is expected that representatives of the general church authorities will be present and deliver addresses. Mutual programs will be rendered at both sessions by the tabernacle choir under the direction of Prof. Joseph Ballantine.

Ogden Doctor Reads Paper at Salt Lake

Dr. J. E. Morrell of Ogden read a paper "Some Ideals in Medicine," before a meeting of the Salt Lake county Medical Society, at the meeting held last night at the Commercial club in Salt Lake.

Columbus Day Is Observed in Ogden

Schools of Ogden observed Columbus day in all of the classes today. Exercises consisting of singing, reading, history and geography were on the program. At the high school every class held some sort of exercise in honor of the discoverer of America, who first landed on this continent 425 years ago today.

Woman Hit By Boy On Bike Recovering

Mrs. N. Fortune living at 2566 Washington avenue is recovering from injuries received when a boy riding a bicycle ran into her at Twenty-fifth street and Washington. She was thrown to the pavement, sustaining a sprained shoulder and lacerations on her right hand and arms.

HOLTHUR BACK FROM CONFAB

Former Legion Commander Attends National Sessions At Cleveland

Louis J. Holthur, former commander of the American Legion post in Ogden, has returned from Cleveland, Ohio, where he was one of the delegates from the state of Utah to the national convention of the American Legion. The other delegates from the state were Earl I. Anderson and Murray McCarty, both of Salt Lake.

Sutherland May Get High Federal Post

Prediction was contained in a telegraph dispatch from Washington, which reached Ogden today, that, in the event Senator Harding is elected president, the appointment of former United States Senator George Sutherland of Utah, either as a member of the cabinet or as a new member of the United States supreme court, can be looked for.

Heavy Enrollment in Night School Classes

More than 300 students enrolled in the night school at the Ogden high school last night in the initial classes of the year for the school. Fifteen courses are offered at the school according to Supt. W. Karl Hopkins of the Ogden schools. Fifteen of the best instructors in the state have been employed to instruct in the various subjects. It is expected that more than 500 students will be enrolled in the night school classes before the first of November.

Man Held on Felony Charge

Robert Burl, chief of detectives, who detailed Detective Robert Chambers, Sergeant A. M. Stephens, and other members of the department to locate the girl.

Woman Hit By Boy On Bike Recovering

Mrs. N. Fortune living at 2566 Washington avenue is recovering from injuries received when a boy riding a bicycle ran into her at Twenty-fifth street and Washington. She was thrown to the pavement, sustaining a sprained shoulder and lacerations on her right hand and arms.

TEA GIVEN FOR CLUB WOMEN

Berthana Scene of Festivities; Drama Club at Weber Tonight

Entertaining at a complimentary tea for the women attending the sessions here of the Utah Federation of Women's club presidents of Ogden were hostesses Monday afternoon at the Berthana. Flowers in various shades of yellow and pink and white were used to carry out an attractive decorative scheme. Two shades of yellow are the club colors of the federation.

CALL OFF BIG LEAGUE GAME

All Stars Have Plans For Barnstorming Trip Upset.

The proposed trip of the big league all-stars was halted at Chicago last Sunday, when the plans of three players—Babe Ruth, Carl Mays and Irish Meusel—were upset, according to word given out yesterday at Salt Lake to a representative of the Standard-Examiner by Ty Cobb, famous Detroit Tiger outfielder.

Man Held on Felony Charge

Robert Burl, chief of detectives, who detailed Detective Robert Chambers, Sergeant A. M. Stephens, and other members of the department to locate the girl.

Man Held on Felony Charge

Robert Burl, chief of detectives, who detailed Detective Robert Chambers, Sergeant A. M. Stephens, and other members of the department to locate the girl.

Man Held on Felony Charge

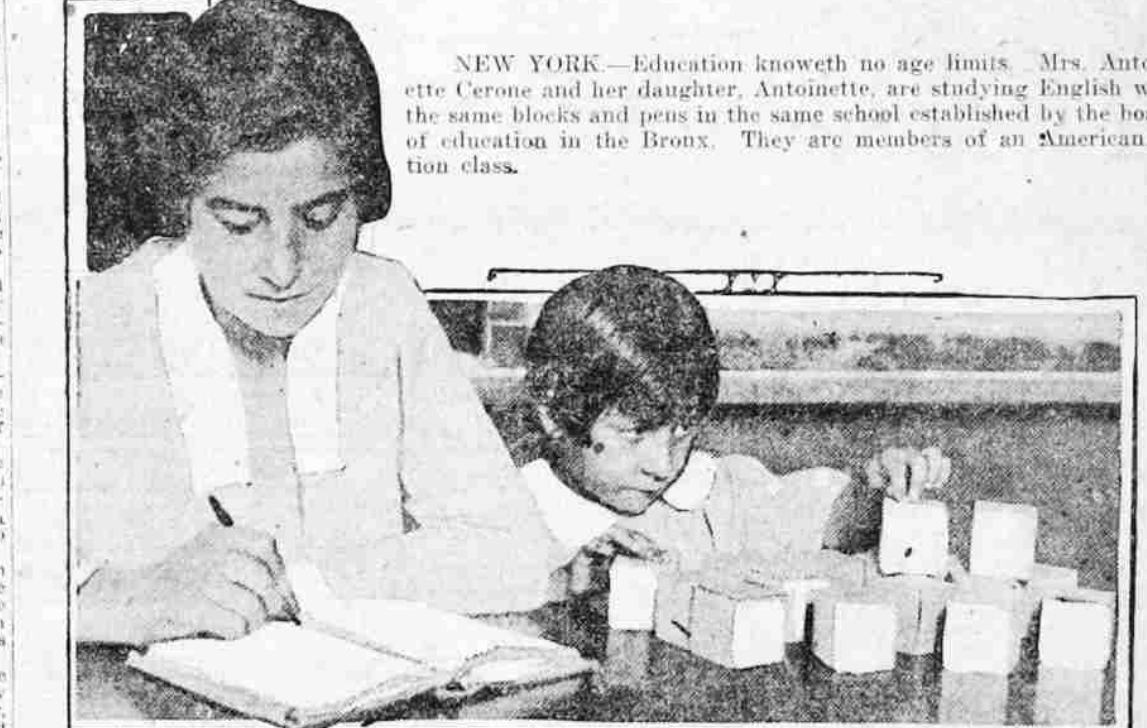

Robert Burl, chief of detectives, who detailed Detective Robert Chambers, Sergeant A. M. Stephens, and other members of the department to locate the girl.

Man Held on Felony Charge

Robert Burl, chief of detectives, who detailed Detective Robert Chambers, Sergeant A. M. Stephens, and other members of the department to locate the girl.

Advertisement for H. W. Jones Shoe Co. featuring various shoe styles and prices. Includes images of men's and women's shoes.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER STUDY ENGLISH TOGETHER

Ogden Man Who Dies In Butte Buried Here

Funeral services for Charles J. McGuire, who died recently in Butte, Mont., were held at Larkin and Sons' chapel this morning, following arrival of the body from the north. Rev. Father John Lagan officiated at the services, which were largely attended.

SMILING JIGGS BURIED UNMOURNED BY CHINESE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Toy Hoy, "Smiling Jiggs of Chinatown," with a gambling record extending over forty years, was buried in the Chinese cemetery yesterday after his death Saturday night during a game of "pie grow."

Advertisement for Senator Smoot Reception at the Republican Club of Weber County. Includes details about the event and location.

Advertisement for 'The Merry Musical Play Buddies' at the Orpheum. Includes showtimes and ticket information.