UTAHNS NAME CLUB OFFICERS

Former Ogdenites Honored in Election Held at Washington

Peter Kasius of Ogden, secretary to Senator William H. King, has been chosen a recording secretary of the Utah club in Washington, according to a dispatch which reached Ogden today from Washington. J. Wesley Horsley of Brigham City was elected secretary of the club by acclamation. He is secretary to Congressman Milton H. Welling and will succeed Lorenzo Richards of Ogden.

Joseph C. Fehr of Salt Lake was elected corresponding secretary. Harold Kay and Mrs. Thomas Rhee both of Ogden were made members of the executive committee which is also composed of Senator Reed Smoot, Senator King, Albert H. Paul of Salt Lake, Mrs. Ben J. Summerhays and J. Bryan Barton. This committee controls the policy of the social and other activities of the society.

More than 300 Utahns now make up the personnel of the Utah colony in Washington, and on that account it ranks as one of the strongest and best organized state clubs in the capital. Senator Smoot and Congressman Welling assisted in the formation of the club last year. Regretting their inability to be present they sent their greetings to the members with best wishes for another successful year.

The officers: President, J. Wesley Horsley, Brigham City; vice president, Miss Evelyn McArthur, Salt Lake; corresponding secretary, Joseph C. Fehr, Salt Lake; recording secretary, Peter Kasius, Ogden; treasurer, Jesse K. Smith, Salt Lake. Executive Committee: Senators Smoot and King, Harold Kay, Mrs. Thomas Rhee, Ogden; Bryan Barton, Mrs. Ben J. Summerhays, Albert Paul, Salt Lake. From Ogden: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Rhee, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGregor, Misses Florence Zimmerman and Mary K. Welden, Percy A. Kar, Stanley J. Tracy and Harold Kay.

Week Generally Fair for Most Interests, Says Crop Report

Good rains fell in the northern half of Utah and temperatures were moderately high, making this a good week for most interests, says the weekly crop and range report issued by J. Cecil Alter, state meteorologist.

The report continues: The fine weather forced the tomato crop ahead rapidly, congesting the canneries generally. The fall and winter pastures have been improved by the rain. Beet digging is progressing favorably and tomato picking is nearly completed. In southwestern Utah the droughty weather continues and fall grain is germinating and growing unsatisfactorily in places and the range is not doing very well. More snow in the mountains has made them untenable, even in southern Utah, and a general investigation of livestock from the summer ranges continues. There is a great deal of shipping, especially of lambs. Practically all stock are in good condition. Sheep dipping and lamb shipping are in progress in Grand and San Juan counties. Stock are nearly all off the summer range in Garfield county, and sheep and cattle are leaving the mountains in Washington county. Some sheep have come into the Modena district, though the range is only fair, and is deteriorating from lack of moisture. Threshing and fall seeding continue at Levan under favorable weather conditions; and apple picking and shipping continue in Utah and Salt Lake valleys, this work being about half finished. Highways have been improved in many districts, though in the Salt Lake and Utah valleys heavy rains have made them muddy, and in extreme southern Utah they are still very dry.

'THE SOUL of YOUTH'

"Judge, I promised not to steal—but I want to take back that promise!" This was the odd message a juvenile court magistrate received over the telephone from a lad whom he had found guilty and put on probation some months before. The judge had dealt leniently then, because the boy looked "straight." This judge seldom went wrong. Still, here was the surprising telephone message. What did it mean? If the lad WAS totally dishonest, why did he warn the judge of new misdeeds?

Utah Federation Of Women's Clubs Closes Convention

With an address last night in the Ogden tabernacle by Professor William McKeever of the University of Kansas, the thirty-seventh annual meeting of the Utah Federation of Women's clubs was brought to a close and the 150 delegates who attended the three-day meeting departed for their homes.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Early yesterday afternoon a board of directors was elected as follows: Four-year term—Mrs. W. J. Lowe, Brigham City; Mrs. E. G. Peterson, Logan; Mrs. W. L. Grooms, Springville; Mrs. W. A. Winters, Mt. Pleasant; Mrs. W. S. Marks, Tooele. Two-year term—Mrs. Wesley Carter, Garland; Mrs. E. T. Perry, Mantie; Mrs. William Fouts, Price; Mrs. I. H. Masters, Provo; Mrs. J. T. Deless, Salt Lake.

An important action was taken in the adoption of a plan to increase the finances of the federation. The plan provides a sliding scale of dues, instead of the fixed rate of $4 for each club belonging to the federation, whether large or small. The new plan provides for $7 dues from clubs of a membership of twenty-five and an additional $7 for each additional twenty-five members or major portion thereof up to 250 members. The representation of the club in the federation is increased by one delegate for each additional twenty-five members.

Mrs. S. S. Smith of Ogden reporting for the industrial committee, said that she was pleased upon investigation to see that the factories of the state were making such good provision for women employees in the way of rest rooms, recreation centers and fair wages. She recommended that the federation use its influence to induce girls in factories, stores and offices to dress appropriately and becomingly.

CLUB REPORTS.

Report were read from individual clubs as follows: Greeters of Welfare Clubs of Salt Lake, Mrs. B. B. Ramey; A. A. C. Salt Lake, Mrs. C. S. Kinney; Salt Lake Mothers' club, Mrs. H. E. Jones; Seekers' club, Salt Lake.

OLIVE THOMAS AT THE OGDEN IN HER LAST MOVIE PLAY

Winsome Olive Thomas, who has appeared on the screen as flapper and baby vamp and sophisticated lady of society, has the most delightful role of her screen career in "Darling Mine" said to be her last picture which will begin a three days' showing at the Ogden theatre today.

Miss Thomas appears as a vivacious gypsy-like slip of a girl from the "old sod" in Ireland who comes to New York with her mascot goat and flirts through the theatrical world radiating romance and kindness and quaint Old World philosophy.

She is seen first among the fisher folk of the Irish coast, then in the slums of New York then as the captivating member of a musical show who wins many hearts and displays one of the choicest selections of bizarre costumes ever filmed.

Kitty McCarty, the girl, Miss Thomas portrays, binds up wounded hearts, patches up lovers' quarrels and suffers many disappointments in her own great romance—always with a brave smile—before she reaches happiness.

The story written by John Lynch and Laurence Trimble, and directed by Laurence Trimble, has many picturesque settings. A capable company including Walter McGrath as leading man support Miss Thomas.

democracy for which so much blood and treasure was spent in the great war, I believe it will come to us out of a very unexpected source—that is, out of the lives of the growing generation. The best that a great war can do is to help us to define a great ideal like democracy, but it always remains for the later-war period to make it a reality. So I am depending upon the childhood of the race and especially the childhood of America to create, through right training and right practice, the real democracy.

"The children of today must lead in the creation of a new race life. They must be guided along the great human highway of tried and tested racial experience and finally come through it all with a personal knowledge of the fact that God hath wrought into our universal human nature a common heritage of instincts, desires and good-will.

"Now, if we are to depend upon our unspoiled children to create a democracy among us, they must grow up through a democracy of experience and daily practice. I have always held that the four unchanging issues or purposes of mankind are these: "To play, to work, to enjoy social fellowship and to worship."
