SLEPT ON HIS DESK

Many a poor fish sleeps at his desk, but this chap slept on his flat-top because he couldn't afford to pay rent on both an office and a bedroom. He was a budding lawyer, you see, and while he had rosy visions of being a supreme court judge some day, he kept looking for the client who would come. And eating a rich diet of crackers and milk he is sure. Then his girl lent a hand at drumming up customers. He didn't know what she was up to at first, but pretty soon he got up to her scheme. She was vamping clients for him, he saw.

SCHOOLS REPLY TO TAX CHARGES

County Board Objects to Making Political Capital Out of Universal Conditions

With the explanation that the board objects to "misconstruction and misrepresentation of facts, such as has appeared in the press lately and is heard in rallies by political spellbinders who are willing to twist and distort facts for partisan reasons," the Weber county board of education, through F. W. Stratford, president, today issued a statement on the taxation question.

ROAD TAX INCREASE

Tax levy shows that the amount levied for state roads has doubled in 1920 over 1919. Some increase is charged to the State Board of Equalization, as well as County Board of Equalization, have greatly increased valuation in Weber county as well as most all other counties. That accounts for some of the increase in people's taxes.

DEPLORES SUCH ACTION

I deeply deplore the present attempts of the Democratic management to give to the league of nations ecclesiastical approval. This great issue is an American question and should be decided by the American citizenship, after deep study and mature consideration, and solely from the standpoint of American patriotism and loyalty.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

The new health requirements necessitated the expenditure of several hundred dollars for extra equipment in first aid supplies, scales, medical examination, etc.
