

NEVADA PLAYS UTAH SATURDAY

Crimson to Take on Sagehens On Salt Lake Field

SALT LAKE, Oct. 27.—While outplayed in the California game last Saturday, the University of Utah grid men displayed excellent condition, according to Coach Tommy Fitzpatrick, who is now putting his warriors through the mill to meet the University of Nevada team in Salt Lake next Saturday. A few bruises, especially the extent of the injuries from the battle with the coast team, but every man will be in tip-top shape to tackle the Sagehens.

Captain Lee Prouse, stellar end, who suffered an injury to his ribs in the Colorado fray, played nearly the entire game against California and showed no ill effects from the hurt.

The Crimson coach is giving special attention to the line. Walt Silver worked at center yesterday and looked good. Harvey Hancock, regular pivot man, was unable to attend practice. He worked at guard Monday. Hancock played guard on the West high team under Coach Henry Richardson, and may hold down a guard job. However, his presence will be needed to fit him for a guard position. Kent ("Fat") Evans played such classy ball against California that he will be a permanent fixture on one or the other side of center. Evans has had no college experience, but played several years at the West high. He weighs close to 180 pounds and is fast and a hard fighter.

Mac Swan and Ern. Hord are both going good at tackle and no change is expected there. A rumor that Swan was injured several Saturdays was groundless. The star tackle was not knocked out, only during the game.

With Captain Prouse back in shape, the ends of the line will be well cared for. Meri Swanson is going to tip-top shape, while Warren Gilmer and G. A. Branker are showing class. Gilmer played at tackle last year, and in an emergency could be shifted to tackle and Stevenson placed on end with practically no weakening of the lineup.

Coach Fitzpatrick is satisfied with the backfield, and is confident that with the line doing its share, the backfield will hold its own. Neil Smith and Moss Stifel went through the California main defense several times for gains.

SCANT SUITS OF SWIMMERS TO RECEIVE NOTICE

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Regulation suits for men and women participating in swimming contests under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic union are required in one of the thirty-five amendments to the constitution to be voted at the annual convention at New Orleans, La., Nov. 15.

Other proposed changes to be considered include a provision for army and navy athletes to compete in A. A. U. events provided their amateur standing has been served upon by a service body similar to the A. A. U.

ROBINSON GETS NEW CONTRACT WITH DODGERS

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—That Wilbert Robinson has signed a contract to manage the Brooklyn National league baseball club for the next three years, on virtually his own terms, was officially announced today by President Charles Ebbets. In addition, it was stated that Robinson received a handsome bonus for winning the league championship of 1920.

Casey and Gilbert To Meet at Murray

SALT LAKE, Oct. 27.—Harry Casey and Pat Gilbert will be the headliners in the Murray Athletic club show Thursday evening.

Casey is one of the best slugging boxers in the western states, and as Gilbert can also swing with the best of them, the fans are looking for a treat. In the battle between the pair several weeks ago Gilbert got the decision. Casey is out to reverse the verdict.

Bill Pfister, who has been coming to the front of late, will take on Emmett Smith in the semi-windup. Smith is a fast and clever youngster of Murray.

Two other bouts will complete the program.

WILL REOPEN TRACK TIJUANA, MEX.

TIJUANA, Mex.—James Coffroth, is setting out to reopen the Tijuana race track on Thanksgiving day. Seventeen states are to be entered.

BOXING

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—Billy McCann, lightweight of Cleveland, Ohio, stopped Tommy O'Brien of Los Angeles in 25 seconds, with a right to the jaw, in a scheduled four-round bout at the Vernon Arena here.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—Pal Moore, of Memphis, and Joe Lynch, of New York, fought eight rounds to a draw here last night, according to a newspaper decision.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 27.—Bob Martin, inter-called and A. E. F. heavy-weight champion, knocked out Larry Williams of Bridgeport, Conn., in the first round of a scheduled ten-round bout here last night.

THEY'RE MAKING CENTRE SHINE

By DEAN SNYDER

The Centre college eleven is one of the best grid squads out this year. The wonder team which made Kentucky famous in 1919 for football as well as its colonels and moonshine stills is being figured from that angle this fall.

Coach Charles Moran lost but three of his 1919 machine. About 90 he had to do was to blow the whistle and move the team off down the field where it had left off a year ago.

Get Roberts' had been practically all Centre had studied this fall. They wore all the grass off the surface of Cheek Field getting ready for the Crimson.

Around big "Bo" McMillin, captain and veteran leather-passer, the team stacks up like so many battleships. At his command the machine rolls down the field like a war-zone bath.

"BO'S" MATES
While McMillin's running mates are all stars, "Red" Roberts, fullback and kicker-in-chief, and Jimmy Weaver, the adamant center possesses a few more spangles than the others.

Roberts does practically all the punting and drop-kicking for Centre. He boots the ball far and accurately. "Red" weighs 206 pounds now, 10 pounds more than last season, which makes him all the harder to stop.

The goal-kicking job is left to Weaver exclusively. The five he booted in the Thanksgiving game made his third consecutive goal. Lacking the pickup between the goal posts is a mere matter of form to him.

VETERAN LINE
Armstrong and Coach Moran's son Tom, along with Roberts, makes a great running trio of backs. Murphy, a substitute back, is light but very fast.

The 190-pound guards, Robb and Ford, are both veterans. Two big rangy Texans, Montgomery and James are the first-string tacklers. Snoddy and Chinn are the wing positions, are distinguishing themselves as forward-pass catchers.

HERO WORSHIP
Centre didn't score any trick stuff in the early games. Just straight football has netted them 241 points in three games without having their goal line crossed.

Hero worship of the players has been about all Coach Moran has had to guard against. His team of human battling-rains has been lavishly idolized by the good people of Danville.

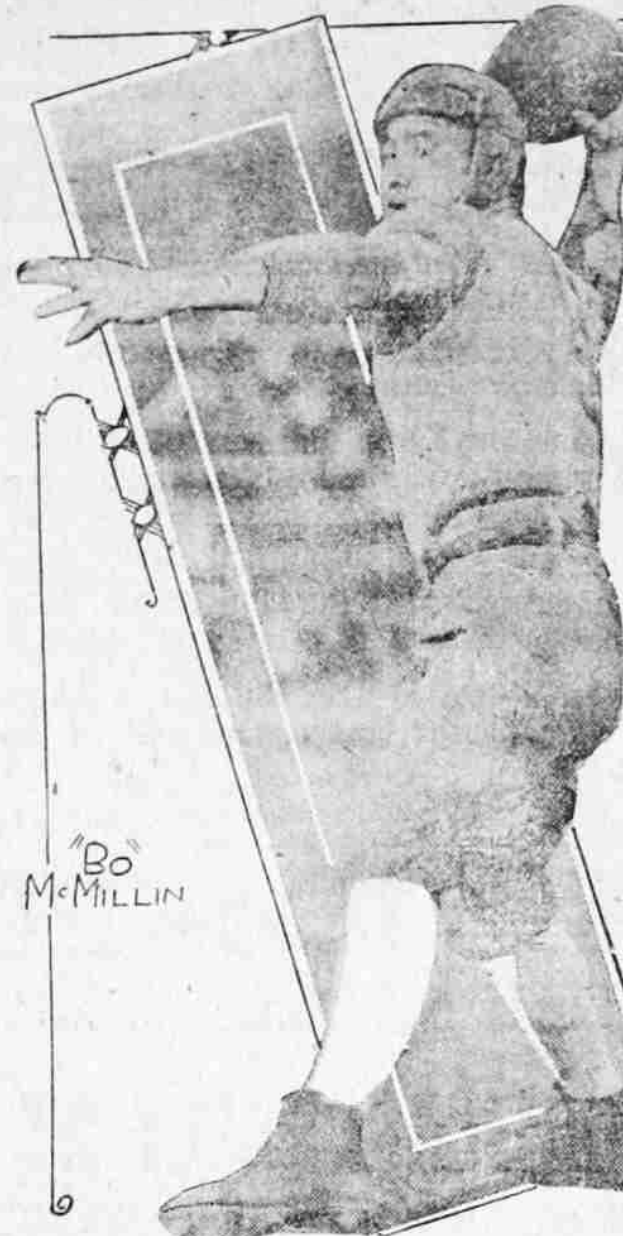

If hero worship could spoil them they'd be out of luck. But the husky southerners aren't that sort. They're the tough and ready, wholesome type of athlete.

"PRAYING ELEVEN"
It's true that they are the "praying eleven" of football. They held prayer sessions in 1919 before big games, and they're doing it again. They pray to play their best. It gets the same results.

Danvilleites call Coach Moran "Uncle Charlie" and refer affectionately to the team as "Our Boys."

Getting a booking with Harvard was the biggest thing that ever happened to the once obscure college.

Yea, Verily, "Bo"

Here's "Bo" McMillin, who was picked on the All-American eleven last year and is back at Centre College again playing super-football.

It's in His Toe

"Red" Roberts does the drop-kicking and punting for Coach Moran's miracle team. Moran has taught them to play the game without thrills, but seriously.

New Athletic Club To Meet in Salt Lake

SALT LAKE, Oct. 27.—The newly formed Utah Athletic association will meet this evening in the public safety building gymnasium.

The purpose of this association is to encourage and foster competition among the athletes of Utah, who are at present permitting their many and varied athletic abilities to lie dormant. At the meeting this evening a team will be chosen to represent the organization on the basketball floor during the coming season. Twenty men, all prominent exponents of the hoop game, have signified their intention of being on hand for the tryouts this evening.

Among these are Orson Wright, Lolo Spencer, Glen Smith, Cal Rawlings, Elmer Deas, Eng Warner, Vardiel Peterson, Kink Clawson, Bill Goodrich and others whose names will always be connected with winning teams in athletic circles.

Charlie Lange, a former boxer, who has the distinction of holding John L. Sullivan to a draw, has been engaged as boxing instructor, and is preparing a team of prominent mitt slingers for battle in the padded ring. The meeting is open to all athletes.

Hoop Games Stirs Pocatello Interest

POCATELLO, Ida., Oct. 27.—The hoop game is attracting interest already in Pocatello. The high school boys are getting into the game first.

A temporary schedule is being worked out for the local lads, with Arco, Moore, Aberdeen, Mackay, Shelley, American Falls and Blackfoot.

Coach Gerald Gilbert is asking for the material to report in a few days and it appears that the town boys will make a good showing in the interscholastic tournament, which will be scheduled at the Idaho Technical Institute early in March. Last year the local lads were the runners up and appeared in the semifinals with Aberdeen winning the trophy.

Dern to Meet Lewis In Twin Falls Match

TWIN FALLS, Ida., Oct. 27.—Ira Dern, middleweight wrestler of Salt Lake, will meet Cliff Lewis of Twin Falls here November 2. Dern held Mike Yoke to a draw last spring. Lewis is a local favorite.

Many a Pretty Face Spoiled by Pimples

Don't close your eyes to the warning which nature gives, when unsightly pimples appear on your face and other parts of the body.

Not only are these pimples and spots disfiguring, but they lead to serious skin diseases that spread and cause the most discomforting irritation and pain. Sometimes they forestall Eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other annoyances that burn like flames of fire, and make you feel that your skin is ablaze.

When these symptoms appear on any part of the body, take prompt steps to rid the blood of these disorders. And the one remedy which has no equal as

CROWDS GATHER FOR BOAT RACE

Fishing Schooner Contest Draws Old Tars to Halifax Harbor

HALIFAX N. S., Oct. 27.—A great "jury" began assembling here today for the international fishing schooner race off Halifax harbor beginning next Saturday.

It is a critical assemblage self-appointed and unofficial, comprised entirely of experts—weather-beaten, sun-browned old salts from along the north Atlantic seaboard, most of them retired sea captains and they expect a real race.

DON'T MIND BLOW

No 25 mile puff is going to call this race off, declared one old skipper who frankly admitted he didn't think much of America cup sloops that had to postpone one of their races because of "a bit of a blow."

But these American and Canadian fisher folks comprise only a small part of the visitors who daily are pouring into Halifax by the hundred. Many of the newcomers are sportsmen or men engaged in the fishing industry, while many more are just plain interested spectators.

CANADIAN BOAT CHANGED

Changes in the Delaware's keel were formally approved by the sailing committee. A special committee reported as untrue allegations that a false keel had been placed on her.

INSIDER

The landlord stood outside the door and shook an angry fist. He made some threatening remarks of which this is the gist:

"I do not want you in my house. Get out, vamoose and fitt. Call up a van and move right off or I will get a writ."

The tenant hollered through the door:

"Go on and hold your peace; I'll stay right here all winter long. Because I've got a lease."

The landlord got a wrecking crew. Each armed with axe and pick. And they got busy on the house. And raved it, brick by brick.

Disembowered roof and falling walls. The tenant put to rout. Whereat the smiling landlord said:

"I got that fellow out!"

Eleven major league ball clubs have subscribed to a plan eliminating the national baseball commission and substituting for it a new body composed of three influential men not financially interested in baseball.

The magnates representing these eleven clubs are honest, sincere in their belief that this will cure the diseases of baseball and restore the game to its former health and confidence.

The plan may accomplish this, but it is also likely to smash the American league and put Ban Johnson out of baseball.

It is natural for the fans to wonder how the magnates eliminated their shoe.

According to the committee a new shoe had been placed on her bottom to replace one that was damaged. While this shoe has the effect of increasing the vessel's depth, the committee found that it was in no sense a false keel.

JOE GEDEON BALL WITNESS

Former Salt Laker Strengthens Case Against Crooked Players

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Joe Gedeon, St. Louis American league second baseman, and Aronson Rotstein of New York Tuesday gave testimony before the Cook county grand jury investigating the baseball scandal which the state attorney's office has now announced had exonerated the two men from complicity in the throwing of games in the 1919 world series, but had materially strengthened the case against some of the men already indicted.

The jury Tuesday completed the taking of testimony in the investigation which has lasted more than a month and resulted in true bills being voted against thirteen men on charges of conspiracy to do an illegal act, but will hold a session Friday to finish clerical work. The jury will vote no more true bills, according to state officials.

TRIED TO STOP IT
Attorney Austrian declared that Rotstein, who had been mentioned in some quarters as the man who financed the bribing of White Sox players, not only had not helped "fix" the series, but had done everything he could to prevent the fixing.

Mr. Rotstein has told me, as counsel for the White Sox, everything he knows of the series fixing," said Mr. Austrian. "He has completely vindicated himself."

Rotstein, said Austrian, said that "every newsmonger in New York knew the series was fixed."

GEDEON'S TESTIMONY
Gedeon told the jury of being tipped by a White Sox player that the series was "fixed" and also told of being present at conferences held by Abe Attell and others in a Chicago hotel. He said he had accidentally wandered into one conference and when he found what was the subject being discussed, he went into the room, so as not to hear what was being said. He declined to tell the jury the name of the player who tipped him off and the question was not pressed, state officials saying they "already knew."

"Sport" Sullivan, of Boston, and E. Brown of New York, against whom the jury has voted true bills, were mentioned by Gedeon as men he understood were back of the bribing. Both were named by Claude Williams, White Sox pitcher in his confession. Abe Attell, Hal Chase, Bill Burns and White Sox players were also named by the St. Louis player.

Attell and Chase, Gedeon told the jury he believed, were the instigators of the game setting and his statement was borne out by Rotstein.

The New Yorker said he was approached by a man on the series question but told this person to "get the hell out of here," and refused to take part in the deal. He refused to name the man. Later he was asked by newspaper men if "anyone but Attell had approached him," and he replied "No."

STALLING UNDER BAN IN MATCHES IN WISCONSIN

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 27.—Investigation of the Law Tandler-Joe Welling bout at the National Athletic club here Tuesday was ordered by Chairman Ligner of the Wisconsin Boxing Commission, immediately after the fight. Tandler was awarded a newspaper decision. Pending the inquiry the club was ordered not to pay the fighters.

The only reason assigned by Chairman Ligner for ordering an investigation of the bout, which was a ten-round no-decision affair, was the fight was slow throughout. Welling, especially, was continually clinching toward the end of the third round. The referee cautioned the boxers to stop clinching and fight.

TWIN FALLS, Ida., Oct. 27.—Ira Dern, middleweight wrestler of Salt Lake, will meet Cliff Lewis of Twin Falls here November 2. Dern held Mike Yoke to a draw last spring. Lewis is a local favorite.
