NURSE GOES ON WITNESS STAND

Elizabeth McClintock Tells of Alleged Indignities She Suffered

Elizabeth McClintock, trained nurse, took the witness stand yesterday in her suit against Leroy Sessions and others whom she charges with having accused her of the theft of a diamond ring and caused her imprisonment in the city jail and indignities of being searched. She alleges her reputation has suffered as a result of the accusations and asks damages of $20,000 from the defendants, which include police officers and matrons at the police station.

Miss McClintock charges that while serving in the Sessions home in December, 1919, she was falsely accused of the theft of a diamond ring valued at $150. She complains that she was taken to the police station by Police Sergeant A. B. Jensen and Detective Everett Noble and threatened with imprisonment and "advertisement" if she did not confess. She testified she was compelled to remain in the police station five hours where she was forced to divest her clothing and allow Malinda Briggs and E. Catherine Boyle, matrons, to search her. The women, she declares, roughly combed her hair in an endeavor to locate the missing jewel.

TELL DIFFERENT STORY.

After the search had been made and proved fruitless, Miss McClintock claims that she asked permission to leave, but Sergeant Jensen told her he would bring a beg to the room and force her to remain all night, or until she confessed to the theft.

Officers Noble and Jensen, in their answer to the complaint, tell a different story. They set forth they were called to the home of Mr. Sessions and were shown where the ring had been placed in a cupboard from where it is alleged to have disappeared.

The officers claim that Miss McClintock willingly accompanied them to the police station and was allowed to leave when the search of her clothing was completed.

They declared that Malinda Briggs and E. Catherine Boyle, nurses of the highest repute, were called to the police station to assist in the search. They claimed the women took Miss McClintock in a private room where the nurse assisted and consented in the search for the ring, both in her clothing and suitcases. It is asserted by them that the woman suffered no ill treatment or indignities.

Miss McClintock names Mr. Sessions and his wife, Terese Sessions; Officers Jensen and Noble and Riley Patten, Mrs. Briggs and Catherine Boyle as the defendants who took part in the accusations and the search and asks damages of $20,000. She claims they were responsible for the accusations which injured her name and reputation.

JURORS SELECTED.

The case, it is estimated, will consume several days before placed in the hands of the jury. Yesterday's sessions were consumed in the impaneling of the jury and taking testimony of the plaintiff and Mr. Jensen.

The jurors in the case are Charles H. Storey, Carl E. Peterson, Richard J. Fowler, E. A. Olson, William Chapple, John McFarland, W. D. Zeller and Thomas E. McKay. The case is being heard in Judge A. E. Pratt's division of the court.

NEGRO HELD FOR BRUTAL SLAYING OF YOUNG GIRL

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.—Police arrested a negro in connection with the slaying of Miss Edna Ellis, pretty 18-year-old stenographer, whose beaten and mutilated body was found early Friday in a clump of weeds in a bacant lot in the northwestern section of the city, near the gorl's home.

The negro's initials correspond with initials on a slip of paper found near the scene of the crime, the police said.

The girl's lacerated hands gave mute testimony of the desperate fight she made for her life. Both thumbs and two of her fingers were nearly severed.

Mrs. Marie Ellis, mother of the girl, told police Edna usually arrived home about 6 p. m. but worked overtime Thursday night to earn extra money to purchase Christmas presents.

RARE FRANKLIN PENNY PICKED UP ON HOMESTEAD

DOVER, Mass. Nov. 4.—A Franklin penny, the first copper coin to be authorized b congress, has been found on the homestead of one of the first settlers here. It was struck in 1787 and is one of a few that were coined.

The penny took its name from Benjamin Franklin because of the inclusion of the homely admonition, "Mind your business," after a suggestion to him that coins should serve purposes other than those of legal tender.

On one side 13 circles appear linked together, a small circle in the middle with the word "United States" around it, and in the center, "We are one." On the other side is a dial with the hours indicated, a meridian sun above it, on one side of which is the word, "Fugio" and on the other the date, "1787." Below the dial appears the Franklin phrase "Mind your own business."
