

CITY ACTS FOR BOXING EVENTS

Ordinance Passed This Morning Provides for Bond and Large License

A city ordinance, under which it is hoped that Ogdan sport fans will be insured good clean boxing and wrestling, and which demands that any promoter who stages a match here must provide $1000 bond and pay $100 for a license for each match, was passed this morning by the board of city commissioners. The ordinance is similar to one now in effect in Salt Lake, and which has proven entirely successful for nearly two years.

The ordinance repeals any former ordinance which governed boxing and wrestling contests and provides punishment for any person who stages a contest without procuring a city license. The license for each match shall not be less than $100 and not more than one license can be issued for any week in the year, the ordinance provides. In the event that one person takes the license for an entire year, $500 will be the minimum amount for the period, and must be paid in advance. It is provided that if more than one match is requested for one week, the matter will have to come before the city commission for approval.

Each applicant for license must file a bond of $1000 to insure payment of the license fee and as an evidence of faith in observing other city laws and ordinances.

Violation of the provisions of the ordinance shall be deemed as a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $200, or by imprisonment for not more than 100 days or both.

In the body of the ordinance it is stated "in the opinion of the board of commissioners, the ordinance is necessary to the peace, health, safety and general welfare of the inhabitants of Ogdan City."

The ordinance will become effective immediately.

Former Sailor Fined $60 on Theft Charge

J. L. Dubois, formerly a sailor on the U. S. S. Prairie, pleaded guilty to a charge of petit larceny before Judge D. R. Roberts of the city court this morning and received a sentence of 60 or 90 days.

Dubois it appeared, had been working for the Amalgamated Sugar company. He was a foreman in one of the mechanics departments at the plant. Following the time when he was laid off, he was given permission to repair his automobile at the company machine shop. After working about a week, he was ordered to depart from the premises. The next day he was arrested, and a sack full of coal and a wheelbarrow load of kindling wood were found in his automobile. He was immediately placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriff J. E. Husbands.

MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE CHARGED

Jack Pass and Gus Burr, two sheet metal workers, were arraigned before the city court this morning on a charge of first degree murder, the charge arising from the death of Darral Wilson, from a gunshot wound, alleged to have been inflicted by Pass. Captain Robert Burk swore to the complaint against the men.

Both men were haggard as they heard the complaint against them.

Attorney W. H. Reeder, Jr., entered his appearance in behalf of the men, and recommended that the earlier charge of assault with a deadly weapon pending against them be dismissed. County Attorney Joseph B. Bates consented.

Preliminary hearing for the two men was set for next Monday morning.

The shooting of Wilson, is alleged to have taken place while Burr and Pass were occupying the rear seat of a taxicab which Wilson was driving.

A revolver was discharged, the bullet taking effect in Wilson's right thigh, inflicting injury that proved fatal.

Pass, it is alleged, was the one who held the revolver when it was discharged.

Makes Use of "Red" Parking Stalls Clear

Red lines on Ogdan pavements, supposed by many to designate a space specially allotted for the use of merchants and business men of the city, are open to the use of the general public providing a car is not parked within the red zone for more than fifteen minutes. This contention was stated by Assistant City Attorney Sam Powell this morning in the case against G. T. Ashby, charged with parking his automobile within the red marker.

Ashby's car was tagged by Patrolman Hawkins, following a complaint of a grocer that a car was parked within the space allotted to the store.

Ashby pleaded guilty before Judge D. R. Roberts this morning but was given a suspended sentence, upon recommendation of Attorney Powell.

Attorney Powell stated that there is a general misunderstanding throughout the city regarding the red markers. They are intended for the purpose of allowing passengers to be unloaded from automobiles, it is stated, but can also be used by motorists making stops of not more than a quarter of an hour's duration.

Tradesmen have no exclusive right to the space enclosed by red lines in front of their places of business, he declared, all motorists being privileged to use the space for not more than a fifteen minute period.

Articles of incorporation of the Hudson-Meyer Distributing company of Ogdan were filed this morning in the county clerk's office. The purpose of the company, as set forth, is to carry on the sale of musical instruments, farm produce, real estate and other sales activities. The capital stock of the company is set forth as $50,000, divided into 50,000 shares of the value of $1 a share. The officers of the company are: H. C. Hudson, president; Maude Meyer, vice president and treasurer, and E. H. Meyer, secretary and manager.

Hayes Fined $60 for Appropriating Belting

Sixty dollars fine, or sixty days in jail, was the penalty inflicted upon Will Hayes, a laborer at the Interstate Sugar company, who pleaded guilty before Judge D. R. Roberts this morning to a charge of appropriating a piece of belting, six inches wide and eighteen inches long. Hayes stated before the court this morning that he had intended using the belting for the purpose of half-sooling his shoe. Hayes contended that the belting he had taken was but a scrap of the belting, that no business incongruities are made in time and place—such positions are most remunerative, and most pleasant.

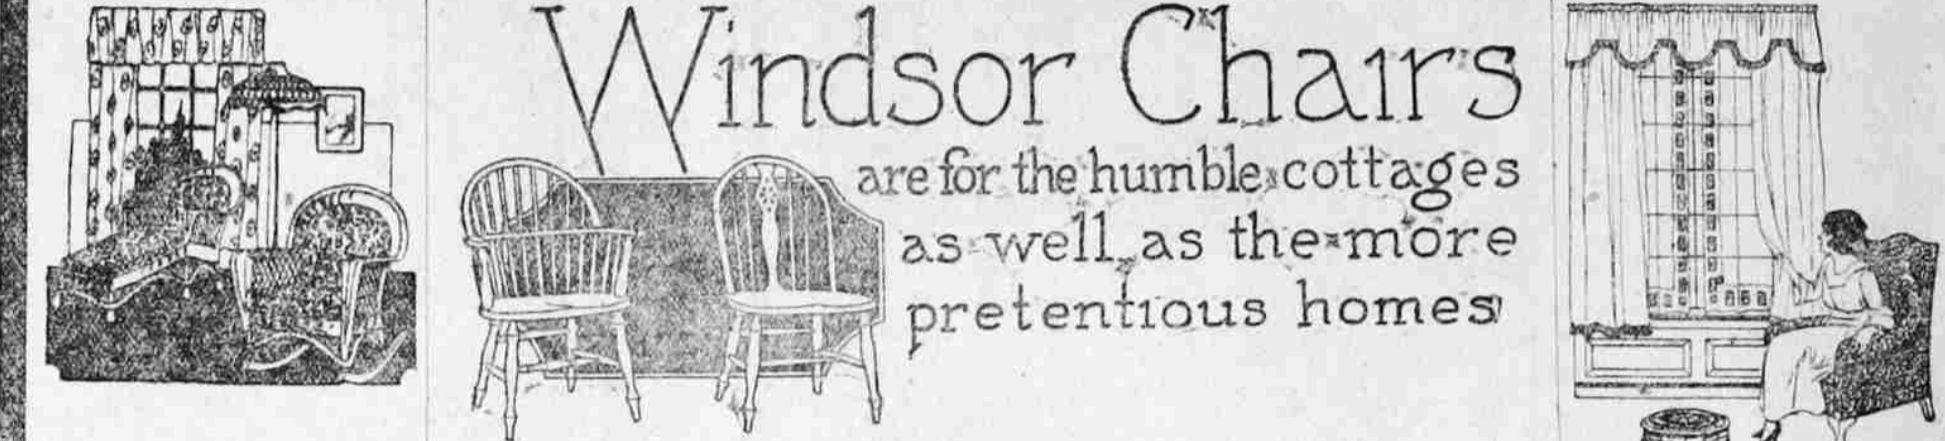

When the defendant appeared, he pleaded guilty, following the reading of the complaint, but added that this did not apply to that portion of the complaint before the court this morning, inasmuch as the belting had never left the company's property.

Husbands said that there was considerable scrap belting being carried away in this manner and that the company intended putting a stop to it.

$100,000 A YEAR!

Twenty-Six-Year-Old Girl Makes Fortune By Playing on Emotions of Her Sex

Loos, who makes $100,000 a year writing NEW YORK—"Women," says Anita Loos, "are great in emotion only—men are great in mentality."

She had been asked how she accounted for the fact that she, at the age of 26, had come to be considered the highest paid, and most sought for scenario writer in America.

"I attribute it to the fact that at the age of 14, when I had written my first scenario and had it accepted by P. W. Griffith, I already knew in what fields women were at home, and never made the mistake of thinking that I could write great mental masterpieces. I stick always to the purely emotional subjects—and the emotion of laughter is my special gift."

SALARIES ASTONISHING

Mrs. Loos says an outsider can never understand why the scenario writer is so well paid. She admits the salaries everyone in the moving picture game gets are astounding, and that there is only one other profession where the pay is as good, and that is in the opera.

"In the picture world," she says, "the man who does the work gets the pay, that's all."

Although it is very hard for a woman to break in, according to Mrs. Loos, once in, there is no easier profession if—and she pauses for emphasis—

"If you know enough to stop when you are what the profession calls 'through.' When your humor has run out, when there is no more tragedy in your drama, when the laugh leaves you and the tear dries before it is shed, then is the time to gather together what you have made, and leave for the woods. And that is precisely what most scenario writers fall in doing—they keep on long after they have anything to say."

WHEN COMEDY IS TRAGIC

"I like lovely things, I enjoy my beautiful home, but when the time comes when I see that I have written a tragedy thinking it a comedy, I am going to take my husband by the arm, and say to him, 'Pack the lunch basket, my love, and bring along my favorite perfume, for we are going to leave this town and go in for the simple life.'"

"Of course there are other branches in the moving picture field most attractive and suitable for women. There are women interior decorators, who attend to the correct atmosphere of the picture to be produced, then there are what are called 'social workers'—women who see that the hair is dressed in period, that there is no mistake in the costume, that no ludicrous incongruities are made in time and place—such positions are most remunerative, and most pleasant."

FREE AT LAST FROM LIFE LONG TROUBLES

Oregon City Man is Well for First Time in Practically His Whole Life; Gives Tanlac Credit for Wonderful Results.

"Six months ago Tanlac set me right and from then until now I have enjoyed absolutely the best health I ever did in my life," was the statement made recently by R. M. Wallace, of Oregon City, Oregon.

"I never knew before what good health meant, for practically all my life I was a sufferer from stomach trouble. I tried everything anybody told me about and at times would be a little better, but soon my old troubles would come back. My appetite was so poor that I have gone for two days at a time without touching a bite hardly, and every time I did eat anything I had to pay for it in suffering."

"But Tanlac came my way and right away it began to set me straight and in a few weeks I had gained fourteen pounds and for the first time since I can remember I was free from all my troubles. I have a big appetite and am eating anything and everything set before me without a sign of trouble afterwards. Those head aches and dizzy spells have all disappeared and I simply feel like I have been made over again. I am working every day and I feel strong and healthy like a man ought to feel."

Tanlac is sold in Ogdan by A. R. McIntyre. Two busy stores—Adv.
