

Tigers Eager For Saturday's Contest With Panther Stars

Kickoff Set for 2:30 O'clock; Keen Rivalry Expected; Four Hundred Students From Salt Lake to Witness Battle; Teams Played 13-to-13 Tie in 1919

Coach Stubby Peterson's Ogdan high school Tigers are eager for the contest with the West high school Panthers to be staged at Lorin Park tomorrow afternoon.

The Panthers will arrive here shortly before noon tomorrow primed for a battle with the local stars.

Coach McIntyre of the Panthers has done wonders with his aggregation this season. With but two old men in the lineup when he took the reins, he has developed one of the best teams in the state.

SPORT CHATTER BY AL WARDEN

Georges Carpentier's visit to Paris this time is to be a hurried one. The French champion departed from New York to be present when the "hair to be thrown" is held in the city.

Carpentier may stage a battle of two at Monte Carlo before returning to the United States to complete his training for the Dempsey scrap.

Dempsey is seriously considering the making of another "movie" during the coming winter. He has been made a splendid offer by the Pathé company to pose before the camera.

The Utah Aggie Freshmen are doing battle with the Utah Freshmen at Logan today. This contest should be a nip and tuck from the start.

The Rocky Mountain conference grid title will be settled at Boulder Saturday afternoon when the University of Colorado and the Colorado Aggie meet.

Coach Woody Romney's Davis high graders are mixing with the Jordan aggregation at Kayville today in a league game.

Granite and the L. D. S. are doing battle at Salt Lake Saturday. The B. Y. U. eleven of Provo will tangle with the Logan high at Logan to settle the sectional title of the state.

Robert Martin, western distance runner, is expected to return to the United States to complete his training for the Dempsey scrap.

LANDIS IS A REGULAR FELLA!

When Baseball Got All "Balled" Up They Called on the Chicago Judge to Do the Moses Act at $50,000 Per Year

BY DEAN SNYDER. CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Why did they pick on Kenneth Mountain Landis, the Chicago judge, to be the Moses of our baseball?

APPLIES HORSE SENSE. His program since 1915 has been to apply horse sense to human troubles. And that's all under the sun that baseball needs right now.

LIKES TO FAN. "You baseball men have been very kind to me," he said. "Want to talk to me, do you? Let's take a walk, then."

GAMES FASCINATING. "I'm not much of a writer leaguer," he said. "The part of the game that fascinates me is the one they play on the diamond."

BASEBALL'S SCOPE. "Thousands of folks never have seen a big league game. Thousands of them never will see one."

HE'S MIE SPOKE. "I've met this Speaker. Well, that is, I shook hands with him during the world series. Stuffy how a fan likes to imagine he's intimate with the stars, isn't it?"

USED TO PLAY. "Did I ever play baseball? I'll say I did. Right here along Michigan avenue. We fellows used to get out here at the noon hour along the water front."

JUDGE K. M. LANDIS

Judge K. M. Landis isn't essentially different at a baseball game from what he is when presiding over his court. The sparkle of interest is in his eyes just the same.

During the hot-foot walk up and down Michigan avenue, the judge spoke to scores of friends. He joked and chattered with the cops in the back with his heavy cane and "bellowed" them.

ADMIRES LINCOLN. "The artist didn't make the mistake of rubbing out a lot of lines as most of them do. See that wart on honest old Abe's face. It couldn't be more natural."

Anything about putting Babe Ruth under the hammer, yet Babe's only worth a major league franchise, which at the present rate would be around a million six figs.

Since the minors cut off the major league draft they are establishing banks and backing other financial enterprises for numerous questions.

"Ouija! What's the good word?"

- MY YOUNG sister. AND IT spelled this. HAS A Ouija board. "GRAMMASHOTTA SEVEN." AND SHE believes it. SO I shut off quick. AND TALKS to Noah. TO HEAD off any. AND I thinks she talks. FURTHER FAMILY scandal. TO HER best fellow. THEN I stopped to smoke. WHO'S DEAD but doesn't know it. A CIGARETTE. AND I used to give her. AND AFTER a while. THE LOUD, rude laugh. I CRANKED up weelie. BUT I'M sorry now. AND ALL of a sudden. BECAUSE LAST night. IT STARTED off. I WAS home alone. AND QUICK as a flash. SO I got the board. IT SAID something. AND PUT in a call. "THEY SATISFY." FOR JOHN Barleycorn. AND OTHER departed spirits. BUT THE line was busy. "SATISFY!"—that's the good word. FOR NOTHING happened. AND THEN I cheated a little. "Satisfy!"—that's the good word. Just light up a Chesterfield and see what experts can do with the Turkish and Domestic tobacco when they blend them in that can't-be-copied Chesterfield way. You'll say "they satisfy!"
