MUCH SPECULATION

There is much speculation as to what form the mediation of Armenia will take. A. J. Balfour, a leader of the British delegation, remarked to the assembly the other day that in order to negotiate it would be necessary to offer Mustapha Kemal, chief of the Turkish Nationalists, something, either money or territory, and this remark is recalled in connection with Mr. Wilson's known opposition to the disposition made of some parts of the territory by Turkey by the Sevres treaty.

WONDERFUL NEWS

"President Wilson's action is a big step toward a solution of one of the most serious problems before the assembly," was the way Lord Robert Cecil characterized the American president's acceptance.
