

The Ogden Standard-Examiner

Fiftieth Year, No. 319

OGDEN CITY, UTAH THURSDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 30, 1920.

LAST EDITION—4 P. M.

OGDEN DRUGGIST OUTWITS TRIO OF BANDITS

Armament Reduction Conference Urged in London

ITALY NOT WORTH DYING FOR, D'ANNUNZIO SAYS

PHARMACIST DRIVES OFF HIGHWAYMEN BY HURLING GLASSWARE

INAUGURATION PLANS TOPIC AT CONFERENCE

Secretary of Lost Theatre Manager Placed on Trial

JOHN DOUGHTY
 Secretary of Lost Theatre Manager Placed on Trial

AGREEMENT TO CUT DOWN NAVY DECLARED NEED

London Editors Enthusiastic Over Proposal to Restrict Armament
 TIMES DENIES BRITAIN WILL SUPPORT JAPAN
 Japanese Reported Willing to Enter Pact Such As Is Proposed

POET TO FLEE CITY WITH HIS WOMAN FRIEND

Captain Says He Will Marry Girl as Soon as He Obtains Divorce
 D'ANNUNZIO DISGUSTED BY ITALY'S ATTITUDE
 "Thought More of Eating Than Our Lives," Fiume Ruler Asserts

DISCOVERIES IN MEDICINE FOUND IN ANCIENT CITY

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 30.—Important medical and economical discoveries that will be of great value to the modern life of the people of the world are on the verge of being made in several districts of Central America by American archaeologists. This discovery was made here last night by Professor William Gates, president of the Maya society.

DETAILS OF MARCH 4 CEREMONY UNDER DISCUSSION WITH SENATOR HARDING

PRESIDENT ELECT AND CHAIRMAN HAYS TALK

MARION, O., Dec. 30.—Following a conference with President-elect Harding, Senator Filander C. Knox, of Pennsylvania, today expressed assurance that the Versailles league of nations will not be signed by the president-elect as the basis for his proposed association of nations.

LAWS TO HELP WORKING WOMEN MOTHERS URGED

State Asked to Co-operate With Government in Protecting Maternity

NECESSITY EXPLORED

Retrieving its advocacy of an agreement between the three powers, the Morning Post, London, said such an agreement should be entered upon by the province of the league of nations.

POET IS DISGUSTED

Trieste, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Hostilities at Fiume between Italian regular troops and the d'Annunzio legionaries ended tonight.

MINING CLAIMS BILL FATE IS STILL IN DOUBT

Belief Is Expressed Wilson Will Sign Measure Today or Tomorrow

TALKS WITH HAYS

The conferences today with the president-elect have led to the hope that some of the cabinet selections will be announced soon.

NEW YORK DEC. 30.—

Restriction of employment, cash benefits to offset loss of earnings and free medical care were declared to be the pressing need to maintain an increasing mortality rate for both mothers and infants.

NATION LEAGUE REQUESTS RED CROSS MEDICAL AID

GENEVA, Dec. 30.—The council of the league of nations has requested the Red Cross societies to supply the personnel and materials to protect the health of the international forces which will go to Vienna to supervise the plebiscite to determine the sovereignty of that district.

BRIDES BLOWN UP

ROME, Dec. 29.—An officer of d'Annunzio's legionaries arrived here from Fiume today and gives an interesting account of events there.

LETTERS OF PROTEST

While disavowing opposition to the bill, Senator Thomas, Democrat of Colorado, said he had received many letters of protest from miners and others who wanted completed the required assessment work on claims.

FORD PLANT WON'T OPEN JANUARY 3 AS PLANNED

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 29.—Announcement was made today by the Ford Motor company that its Highland Park plant, which closed December 24 for inventory, will not reopen January 3 as planned, but will remain closed indefinitely.

RUSSIANS WILL RECALL RED AGENT AT LONDON

LONDON, Dec. 29.—A Moscow wireless message today says that the Great Britain, which recently accepted the plea for a resumption of trade with Russia, has now completely altered its position, and is clearly expanding the obligation which it undertook in July.

PENNA. GUARD OFFICER HEADS MILITIA BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Colonel George C. Rickards, of Oil City, Pa., was appointed today by President Wilson as chief of the militia bureau of the war department.

LARGEST AIR LINER IN U. S. PARTIALLY BURNED

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 30.—Gasoline spilled on the water ignited and set fire to the "Haltosa," the largest passenger and mail airplane in the country late last night at Mantoloking, a small island in the Philippines.

NEW ORLEANS HEADS OFF FLOW OF HOBO TOURISTS

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 29.—Police of this city have launched an anti-hobo campaign, fearing that crime waves attracted by the authorities in the north might start a pilgrimage of undesirable winter tourists this way.

MARRIED AT LOGAN

LOGAN, Dec. 29.—Ernest Leslie Nye and Vera Smith, both of North Logan, were married today by Deputy County Clerk Eugene Yeates.

WILSON REFUSES $150,000 FOR NEWSPAPER ARTICLE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—President Wilson has refused an offer of $150,000 from a syndicate to write an article of his own selection on the ground that no article was worth such an amount.

NEW HAVEN RAIL LINES WILL DROP 2000 WORKERS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 30.—A further reduction in the working forces of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad will be made next week, it was announced last night by C. L. Barde, general manager of the road.

FORMER UTAH TO BE RETURNED FOR TRIAL

SALT LAKE, Dec. 30.—Charged with the theft and forgery of government checks from the mails, Wilmer Thompson, a soldier at Camp Lewis, Wash., is to be brought back to Utah for trial, according to federal officials.

CONGRATULATE NUGENT

BOISE, Ida., Dec. 30.—Governor D. W. Davis replied by letter yesterday to United States Senator John E. Nugent, who resigned as senator to accept an appointment to the federal trades commission.

FRANCE LOST 4 MILLION IN POPULATION BY WAR

PARIS, Dec. 30.—The population of France was reduced by four million during the war, said Louis Morand, the new director of public assistance, in discussing today measures to be taken by the Seine department council to reduce mortality.

WON'T BE ROBBED

Joseph Cave said his father had an aversion to throwing up his hands.

WAS PRETTY MAD WHEN THEY TOLD ME TO HOLD UP MY HANDS

"I was pretty mad when they told me to hold up my hands and it made me madder than ever when he kept pointing that gun at me like he meant to shoot me," Mr. Cave said.

WASTEFUL

Two hundred gallons of whisky, a new truck and two men, Joseph Pomeroy, Chicago, and John L. Evans, St. Paul, Minn., were captured here early today.

WASTEFUL

Fourty-eight barrels of whisky that traveled less than five miles through the streets of San Francisco yesterday is today under federal investigation.

With his soda fountain serving as a breastworks and with soda fountain glassware taking the place of hand grenades, George F. Cave, proprietor of the pharmacy at Twenty-third and Washington late last night put to rout three young bandits, one of whom was armed, when the trio attempted to rob his store.

The bandit front wavered when Cave hurled a couple of syrup bowls with deadly aim, but it took the heavy artillery in the form of a five-gallon orange crush jar to break the enemy force and send the three scampering for safety.

DECEASED

Joseph Cave said his father had an aversion to throwing up his hands.

WASTEFUL

Two hundred gallons of whisky, a new truck and two men, Joseph Pomeroy, Chicago, and John L. Evans, St. Paul, Minn., were captured here early today.

WASTEFUL

Fourty-eight barrels of whisky that traveled less than five miles through the streets of San Francisco yesterday is today under federal investigation.

WASTEFUL

Fourty-eight barrels of whisky that traveled less than five miles through the streets of San Francisco yesterday is today under federal investigation.

WASTEFUL

Fourty-eight barrels of whisky that traveled less than five miles through the streets of San Francisco yesterday is today under federal investigation.

WASTEFUL

Fourty-eight barrels of whisky that traveled less than five miles through the streets of San Francisco yesterday is today under federal investigation.