LOADS OF FINE STOCK ENTERED IN COMPETITION

Second Annual Exhibition to Be Opened Here Next Thursday Morning

YARDS MADE READY FOR RECORD CROWDS

Many of West's Finest Animals to Compete for Ogden Prizes

With thirty-five carloads of cattle, sheep, hogs and horses already entered as competitors in the second annual Ogden Livestock Show and additional carloads to be entered here before next Thursday, the opening day of the show, indications are that this event will be the greatest livestock event ever arranged in the intermountain states. The entries already surpass those of last winter, when the first Ogden show was acclaimed one of the best in the west.

PROGAM OF SHOW

Under direction of the show officers, including Pres. Charles H. Barton, Secretary Jesse Richards and Lester F. Whittick as general managers, the detailed program for the show will start promptly Thursday morning so that all awards can be made during the show.

FROM SEVERAL STATES

Entries already made include hogs and flocks from Utah, Nevada, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Wyoming. Other entries are anticipated.

MORE PRIZE WINNERS

The Butterfield Livestock company of Weber, Idaho, entered forty head of Rambouillet and Hampshire, also prize winners in the sheep contests of these same shows.

SECRETARY INTERVIEWED

Secretary Jesse Richards of the show has made the following announcement regarding the plans and prospects for the event:

COMFORT FOR VISITORS

The buildings at the stock yards are all being enclosed and sties are being cut through the center of the pure bred cattle barn so that visitors can see the whole cattle show without going out of doors and heretofore. Even with cold weather, the barns will be amply warm for the stock.

President's Action Ends Flood of Correspondence With Men in Congress

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The bill extending for six months the time in which 1920 assessment work on mining claims can be done, was signed today by President Wilson.

Under the old law the holders of mining claims would have been required to complete $100 worth of work on their claims by midnight tonight.

Hundreds of mining claims in the west are affected and the holders had flooded senators and representatives from that section with telegrams inquiring what action was to be taken on the measure.

BIG OVERALL PLANTS TAKEN BY CREDITORS

LYNCHBURG, Va., Dec. 31.—The "overall club," a movement of last spring, apparently did not work for a permanent improvement in the business of the Jobbers Overall company of Lynchburg, and its subsidiary, the Blue Buckle Mills of Rockhill, S. C., for announcement was made Thursday that a creditors' committee of bankers had been appointed to take over the concerns.

The report of accountants as filed, showed liabilities of $7,500,000 and assets of the same amount. Among the assets, however, are manufactured goods on hand valued on the books at $4,600,000, the cost price, but which at present market prices are valued by the creditors committee at $1,500,000 less than that amount.
