

CLOTHIER SAYS BUSINESS GOOD

F. M. Nye Asserts Outlook in East Grows More Promising

Fred M. Nye, Ogden merchant, has returned from an extensive trip to Chicago, New York, and other cities. Mr. Nye also attended the annual meeting of the National Association of Retail Clothiers, this meeting being held September 11.

The following appointments have been made in the reserve officers' training corps unit of the Ogden high school. Emmert L. Lipincott, lieutenant colonel; Philip Ring, major; Leon Keller, captain; Marcus Mattson, captain; McNab Boyd, captain; Easton Forbes, first lieutenant; Lamont Hendrickson, first lieutenant; Oren E. Stigers, first lieutenant and battalion adjutant; Theron Jost, second lieutenant; Lewis Summerill, second lieutenant.

Plans have been made for two battalions of two companies each. Up to the present time, however, only three companies have been formed. The uniforms for the R. O. T. C. students are expected to arrive this afternoon, so that issuing might start by tomorrow afternoon. Noncommissioned officers will be appointed Monday.

FOREST OFFICIAL ARRIVES IN OGDEN

George G. Anderson, assistant in personnel in the department of operation of the forest service, with headquarters at Washington, arrived in Ogden this morning for a conference with the officers of district four in relation to problems in administrative matters. He expects to be in the district for about two weeks and during that time may visit the various headquarters of the various forests in the district.

All kinds of AMUSEMENT EQUIPMENT FOR SALE Including Merry-Go-Round Address: P. O. Box 53.

FINE POINTS OF CHICKEN SHOWN

Poultry Expert Conducts Demonstrations in Weber County

Farmers of Weber county were shown yesterday how to pick out the producing hens from the non-producing ones by Vernal Willis, poultry specialist of the Utah Agricultural college. In three demonstrations staged in the county, there were a total of about 75 farmers present at the three demonstrations.

ROADS IN SOUTH IN BAD CONDITION

Roadways in Utah, especially in the southern portion of the state, are in worse condition than they have been for years, according to E. A. Shoemaker, examining engineer of district four of the forest service, who returned to Ogden last night from that section.

THREE ARRESTED IN LIQUOR RAIDS

Raids conducted by the sheriff's department last night netted three arrests and the seizure of several gallons of moonshine liquor.

SCOUT LEADER RETURNS HOME

G. A. Goates Says Conference in North Carolina Big Success

The national conference of Boy Scout executives which was held at Blue Ridge N. C. September 12 to 19, inclusive, was attended by 400 troop leaders according to Scout Executive G. A. Goates of the Ogden council who returned today.

OFFICERS SENT TO BRING BACK QUARTET

Following the receipt of a telegram from Sergeant George Wardlaw, leader of the band of public roads, departed today for the Cascade-Knox project, the Warren Wagon road and the Knox-Yellow Pine projects in Idaho, on a general inspection tour.

GO OVER ROUTE FOR 'SEE YOUR CITY' DAY

The committee named by the Ogden chamber of commerce Monday to aid in formulating final plans for "See Your City Day," which will be held next Sunday and Monday, met with the city commissioners today and discussed plans for the two-day event.

ROAD CHIEF BACK FROM INSPECTION

District Engineer B. J. Finch of the U. S. bureau of public roads, with headquarters in Ogden, has returned from an inspection of several federal aid roads and forest roads in the southern part of the state.

ROAD BUREAU HEAD IN NEW QUARTERS

Rearrangement of the offices of the U. S. bureau of public roads on the fourth floor of the Fred J. Kiesel building was completed today. The office formerly occupied by the draftsman is now the private office of District Engineer B. J. Finch.

All news for the Sunday society section must be in the hands of the Society Editor by 3 o'clock Friday. Future events, such as club notices, dates of meetings, should be turned in as early in the week as possible.

TO MEET Members of the Child Culture club will meet with Mrs. Nellie Hannah, 767 Twenty-seventh street, tomorrow afternoon.

VISITS IN SALT LAKE Mrs. L. Dow Browning, and small daughter, Ida Marie, spent last week in Salt Lake, the guests of Mrs. A. R. Knott.

TO MEET IN REGULAR SESSION Security Benefit association, Ogden council, No. 3557, will meet in regular session this evening at 8 o'clock in the Moose hall. All members and the drill team, are urged to be present.

WEEK-END GUEST Miss Elouise Gibson of Salt Lake, was the guest of Miss Beatrice Browning last week-end.

CARD PARTY Mrs. Etta Ingebretsen will entertain the Royal Neighbors and friends at a card party tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home, 1978 Eccles avenue.

GOOD ATTENDANCE DESIRED The Abraham Lincoln circle, No. 2, Ladies of the G. A. R., will meet in the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

REGULAR MEETING At the regular meeting of Silver Review, W. B. A., tomorrow evening, a large class will be initiated. Following the ceremonies, there will be a social hour, with refreshments. All members, both old and new are cordially urged to be present.

TO ENTERTAIN Mrs. Anna Snyder will entertain the ladies' auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans at her home, 515 West Twenty-first street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

TELEPHONES Business and Circulation Dept., 56 Classified Ads, 56 Advertising Dept., 428 Editorial and News Dept., 870

RANDOM REFERENCES

Waldron, E. Y. The Magazine Man, 2617 Con. E. Bohn—Insurance, Fire and Auto, 417 Eccles Bldg. Phone 1960, 6386

PRICES DROP on Oldsmobile

Oldsmobile advertisement listing prices for 4 and 8 cylinder cars, including models like 43-A-4 Cylinder Roadster at $1255 and 43-A-4 Cylinder Touring at $1275.

30 AUTOS HAVE LIGHTS TESTED

Thirty automobiles were inspected at police headquarters last night, according to an announcement of Chief of Police Curtis Allison this morning.

CITY ABANDONS SIDEWALK PROJECT

Construction of sidewalks in district 155 in the southwestern part of the city, will not be carried out this year, according to action of the city commission at their meeting Monday night.

BOY INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH

Aaron Ross, 5 years of age, son of Mrs. Aaron Ross, 2179 Lincoln avenue, was slightly injured in an automobile accident at the intersection of Twenty-sixth street and Van Buren avenue this forenoon at 10:10 o'clock.

DANCE TO BE GIVEN FOR OGDEN WOODMEN

In connection with the campaign for membership, being conducted under the direction of John A. Fisterer, district manager, Weber camp No. 74 of the Woodmen of the World announces a complimentary dance Saturday, September 30, for members and friends.

SAMPSON TON TRUCK $785

SAMPSON TON TRUCK $785 Ogden STEWART'S 28th and Wash. Ave. Phone 522

New Shoe Arrivals For Fall C. P. Ford Quality $6.85 Ladies' get your shoes of the best quality—the C. P. Ford makes have stood the test for many years and is one of Rochester's most famous shoe manufacturers.

Gym Oxfords Just In $1.69 Already for the Gym work—get these gym oxfords at the special price of $1.69 and $1.98 according to size.

Packard New Styles $1.98 and $7.85 Packard shoes give better wear for men who care how shoes look. Don't forget the Packard quality and don't forget the Clark price—the best men's shoe buy in Ogden.

Clark 2376 Wash. Ave. Advertisement for Clark shoes.

ARCH PRESERVER SHOES THE delightful style in the Arch Preserver Shoe becomes all the more enjoyable when you consider the solid comfort and the foot health it also provides.

Announcement We have moved our place of business from 2309 Washington to the Orpheum building, 2516 Washington avenue.

Announcement We will now be better prepared to take care of our regular customers and we extend a hearty welcome to all MEN WHO WEAR GOOD CLOTHES.

Suits, Tailor-made, From $32.50 to $35.00 Scotch 2516 Washington Avenue Howard Williams, Mgr.