Local News.

For Sale!—A good city lot, good location; cheap. Come to this office quick.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Rockhill of Lehi are visiting in this city with relatives this week.

Keep your eye on the grand select next Tuesday night, Feb. 6th, at Pack's Pavilion.

Alfred Ainge is in town from the Big Lost River country, Idaho, where he has been about 8 months.

Wm. J. Thomas has been subpoenaed as a witness in the Snoot case and left for Washington Tuesday.

Walter Briggs has returned home from Gold Mountain where he has been working in a mine for Parley Darger.

It does not pay to make soap at home when you can buy the best laundry soap at two bars for a nickel.—G. O. Eriksson.

A grand musical and recital entertainment will be given in the Fourth ward meeting house next Monday night. All come out.

James F. Dunn, agent for the Utah-Mexican Sugar & Live Stock Co. has just received a letter from the excursionists who went to Mexico to see their plantation—it shows they have a fine proposition.

Fred Matley has been in poor health of late. He was up town Saturday, when he took a sinking spell and was taken to his home. We understand he will go to Salt Lake soon to be operated on.

Word was received by wire by Lorenzo Thomas Tuesday announcing the death at Schofield of David, the 7 year old son of David J. Rees, formerly of this city. Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Mary Isaac have gone up to attend the funeral.

Niels Peterson, agent of the Salt Lake Route, has returned to work. He and Mrs. Peterson have spent 60 days in California and Deseret. Mr. Huffman, who has been here in Mr. Peterson's place, will leave for parts unknown.

Try our penny system. You save money twice worth the dividend of your shares in the big co-operation. When you deal with us we deliver goods to your homes. Don't let the dealer take care of you, you take care of yourself when you deal with G.O. Eriksson.

About twenty-five friends made a pleasant surprise upon Jos. Hansen at his residence last Thursday night. A number of new games were played. At 12 o'clock all were seated around the table to partake of a delicious supper after which singing and reciting were indulged in.

A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Henry Tilley, last Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Alice Tilley, organist of the First ward choir. The affair was gotten up by members of the choir to show their appreciation of her faithful services. Every thing done was of an impromptu nature, and consisted of singing, recitations, playing games, etc. One feature which caused much merriment was the Kangaroo court. A "Breach of Promise" suit was heard where a "young" man was tried for an offence, of which the Judge turned out to be the guilty party. The Judge in his eagerness to convict the defendant, was judge and prosecutor both, and had to be reminded by the defendant's attorney several times that there was a prosecuting attorney in the house. "Attorney" Hill defendant's counsel, was a surprise to the court and every one else and (we advise the "boys" to employ him when in trouble, as he will always "clear them.")

CITY COUNCIL.

The City Council met in special session last Saturday night, Jan. 27th, 1906, with Mayor Creer and full quorum of councilmen present with the exception of Councilman Brockbank who was excused. Several bills were presented, allowed and appropriated. Mayor Creer then appointed the members of the various standing committees as follows:

Election—R. W. McKell, A. J. Hansen, James L. Hales.

Judiciary—Marinus Larsen, Samuel Brockbank, James L. Hales.

Finance—James L. Hales, Marinus Larsen, Samuel Brockbank.

Claims—James L. Hales, Marinus Larsen, R. W. McKell.

Police and City Prison—Samuel Brockbank, R. W. McKell, A. J. Hansen.

Public Grounds and City Property—A. J. Hansen, R. W. McKell, Samuel Brockbank.

Streets, Alleys and Irrigation—Samuel Brockbank, James L. Hales, R. W. McKell.

Engrossing and Printing—A. J. Hansen, Marinus Larsen, James L. Hales.

Rules—Marinus Larsen, Samuel Brockbank, A. J. Hansen.

Cemetery—R. W. McKell, A. J. Hansen, Marinus Larsen.

Sanitation—James M. Creer, Dr. W. E. Warner, Samuel Brockbank.

Next in order was the naming of the appointive officers. Mayor Creer named the following:

City Attorney, A. B. Morgan.

Watermaster and Road Supervisor, George C. Thomas.

Sexton, Nicholas Smith.

Poundkeeper, R. D. James.

Building Inspector, John Braithwaite.

Council discussed for some time the numerous needed improvements for Spanish Fork City, such as the grading of the streets and sidewalks, repairing and making bridges. Then Marshall Olson suggested that the city was in need of a night patrolman. All the Councilmen expressed themselves very favorable to the proposition.

Council, on motion of Councilman Larsen, then adjourned.

Architect T. T. Davis of Provo was over on Monday looking up business in his line for the coming season.

The Relief Mining property is being worked right along. A gang averaging from 8 to 10 men have been working there since the 1st of December.

Saturday evening, Feb. 3rd, the High School will present the sensational drama, entitled, The Bank Cashier. Everybody come out and assist in a good cause.

Guss Carlson of Salem returned home from his sheep herd for a long needed rest. The sheep are grazing on the western desert. He reports sheep doing well. Plenty of snow and feed.

Methusala was all right, you bet. For a good old soul was he. They say he would be living yet. Had he taken Rocky Mountain Tea. Ask your druggist.

Weakened systems need a mature, wholesome, mellow liquor—that's L. W. HARPER Whisky the kind your grandfather used. Sold by Joseph Wren.

For a good time go to the "Spanish Cafe." Fresh oysters and refreshments of all description. Prompt service, and all equipment down-to-date. Open after dances. Opposite postoffice, Spanish Fork, Utah.

Ann Elizabeth Dart of Spanish Fork has commenced suit for divorce against Fred E. Dart on the ground of cruelty consisting of striking, choking and threatening to kill plaintiff and falsely accusing her of unchastity, and for failure to provide. Plaintiff asks for the custody of three minor children, alimony, attorney fees and costs. The parties were married at Salem, Nov. 21, 1900.—Provo Equirer. [Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Dart wish to assure their friends that the above does not apply to them.]

NEW BABIES.

A son was born to Mrs. John C. Holt last Sunday.

A son was born to Mrs. George Christensen this morning.

A son was born to Mrs. Roswell Bradford this morning.

A son was born to Mrs. Frank Simmons last Monday.

A daughter was born to Mrs. Eph. G. Hughes on the 22d of Jan. at Baltimore.

Mrs. Rose Merriman left for Eureka last Friday.

A bowling alley in a tent is being put up opposite the postoffice.

Last Saturday Miss Caroline Peterson was taken to the Provo general hospital to be operated on.

The Scandinavian party last night was a grand success; it was well conducted throughout and all had a good old time.

Jesse S. Missener, solicitor and collector for the American Fork Citizen, made this office a pleasant call last Saturday.

T. A. Petersen, a matchmaker of 30 years experience, and a former resident of this city, has opened up in business in Martell & Clark's furniture store.

Farm for Sale—Good location; seven room brick house; 34 acres farming land, 60 pasture, 16 meadow, 2 in orchard. For particulars call at this office.

Some one borrowed the chappel ladder from the Presbyterian church some time ago. It is not known who has it, and Rev. Lee needs it. Kindly bring it back.

The Snow Dramatic Co. of Salem played to a fair audience at the opera house in this city last Saturday night. The play was very good, and each character from Mr. Snow down, with the exception of a couple of the young ladies who had hardly had enough experience—took their part O. K. The singing was enjoyed by some, while others blushed and said they didn't like it.

Gas in the Stomach.

Belching and that sense of fullness so often experienced after eating is caused by the formation of gas. The stomach fails to perform its functions and the food ferments. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct the disorder. They aid digestion and strengthen and invigorate the stomach and bowels. For sale by City Drug Store.

Fred M. Cornaby and wife are at home to their friends, having removed to their new and commodious home on the thirtieth.

Mrs. Harward left this morning for her home in California; her mother, Mrs. Alfred Rees, accompanied her as far as Ogden.

Good looks bring happiness. Friends care more for us when we meet them with a clean, smiling face, bright eyes sparkling with health, which comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c. Ask your druggist.

Have you been betrayed by promises of quaks, swallowed pills and bottle medicine without results except a damaged stomach. To those we offer Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents. Ask your druggist.

Our young friend, George Bearson has set a good example to matrimonially inclined young men by building a good substantial brick residence which is now occupied by himself and wife. Young men go and do likewise. Use your spare time gathering together building material to make a home.

On Tuesday last the 25th anniversary of Henry Cornaby's birthday was the occasion of a gathering of the Cornaby family when Mrs. Mamie Cornaby demonstrated her ability as a first class cook and hostess by preparing an elegant dinner after which the evening was spent in social enjoyment.
