

Elbert Hubbard Talks of Cash at Convention Incidentally He Expresses the Opinion That Taft Will Be Nominated on the First Ballot.

BY ELBERT HUBBARD. CHICAGO, June 17.—An honest politician," said Thomas Brackett Reed, "is one who stays bought."

ing animates the flagging zeal of a lawyer equal to a hundred-dollar bill.

Monarchy in Disguise. Many of the Taft delegates were appointed to office by Theodore Roosevelt.

Bribery and Barter. General Hooker once telegraphed to President Lincoln: "I have been offered $200,000 to let cotton through the line."

For Services Rendered. It is payment for services rendered or to be rendered. It is the mark of faith twixt man and man.

Your Uncle Trusty. So there we get a new kind of talk, and we see how the old ideas of Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson are being construed.

Who's to Blame. The blame for the Roosevelt defeat is being put on the men who manned the steamroller.

The Brotherhood of Man. Never was there such fraternal and fine feelings of human felicity as are now being exhibited between the whites and the blacks.

Start for Baltimore. SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—The California Democrats left here for Baltimore on a special train with a large stock of Confederate flags and a pair of Champ Clark mascots.

HAVEMEYER PAID WELL FOR STOCK. Cost Magnate 80 Per Cent Above Par to Get Control of Utah—Idaho Sugar Company.

TERRIFIC RAIN STORM FOLLOWS A WARM DAY. By International News Service. NEW YORK, June 17.—A miniature tornado, accompanied by torrential rain, swept over New York and Brooklyn late this afternoon.

AMERICAN CLERGYMAN KILLED BY ACCIDENT. LONDON, June 7.—The Rev. Elmer Orlando Weld, an American clergyman, was run over and killed by a motor bus today in Cockspur street, a busy west end street.

ANTOMAUCHI FAILS TO EXECUTE THREAT. WASHINGTON, June 17.—With interrupted communication by wireless and cable between Washington and the republicans in eastern Cuba, and no reports whatever of any serious attempt to execute his threat to hang all foreigners and destroy their property.

Famine in Nicaragua. NEW ORLEANS, June 17.—Mail advices received here from Bluefields say that people are dying from famine in the interior of Nicaragua.

ARMY OF THE REBELS. THE REBEL FRONT. LA OZCROZ, Mexico, June 17.—Three times today 2000 federal cavalry under General Rabago, forming the vanguard of General Huerta's forces north toward this town.

DEMOCRATS TAKING ABOUT DARK HORSES MAJORITY INDICATED BY TAFT'S COUNT

Governor Foss of Massachusetts and Mayor Gaynor of New York Mentioned. Claims of Roosevelt's Managers Grow Feeble, but Fighting Spirit Remains at Fever Heat.

SOME ACTIVITY SHOWN Leaders in Baltimore Preparing for the National Convention Next Tuesday.

BALTIMORE, June 17.—Two "dark horse" booms for the Democratic presidential nomination were informally discussed here today by national committeemen.

May Grab Gavel. If Borah is chosen peace will ensue. If Root is elected, well, tonight the Roosevelt men say peace will also ensue.

Claims of the Rivals. The revised Taft figures give to the president 560, a majority of 21, to Roosevelt 471 and to Cummins and La Follette 47.

Gaynor Is Boomed. NEW YORK, June 17.—Jacob A. Cantor, chief clerk of the Democratic Association of New York for Governor for president, left here for Baltimore today.

Start for Baltimore. SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—The California Democrats left here for Baltimore on a special train with a large stock of Confederate flags and a pair of Champ Clark mascots.

Applied to Wrong Man. NEW YORK, June 17.—Mayor Gaynor received a message today purporting to be a telegram from a southern Democrat, who said he had charge of an unopposed delegation from a southern state to the national convention.

Trains to Saltair every 45 minutes. ANTOMAUCHI FAILS TO EXECUTE THREAT. WASHINGTON, June 17.—With interrupted communication by wireless and cable between Washington and the republicans in eastern Cuba, and no reports whatever of any serious attempt to execute his threat to hang all foreigners and destroy their property.

Famine in Nicaragua. NEW ORLEANS, June 17.—Mail advices received here from Bluefields say that people are dying from famine in the interior of Nicaragua.

ARMY OF THE REBELS. THE REBEL FRONT. LA OZCROZ, Mexico, June 17.—Three times today 2000 federal cavalry under General Rabago, forming the vanguard of General Huerta's forces north toward this town.

TIED NO. 13 TO HER BIPLANE; IS KILLED

Through the streets all day have marched scores of men bearing banners with attacks on the senator written by the colonel and his friends and extracts from newspapers alluding to Root as the jackal of the trusts.

Tactics Prepare Plans. For the Roosevelt men, E. L. Lampson of Ohio is making up the parliamentary programme and Albert J. Beveridge once senator from Indiana, conducted a parliamentary school, to which all delegates were invited this afternoon.

DELEGATES CAUCUS AND NAME OFFICERS. CHICAGO, June 17.—The Roosevelt leaders caucused with many of the state delegations today previously to the general caucus of the full delegations.

Had Little Practice. CHICAGO, June 17.—Mrs. Julia Clarke became interested in aviation during the international aviation meet in Chicago in August, 1911.

Admission to Salt Palace grounds free. At Lagoons next Wednesday. Fare 25c.

MEMBERS WHO WILL PASS ON CONTESTS. CHICAGO, June 17.—The following members of the credentials committee were selected today at the general slate caucus.

Panic Ends Suddenly. Late tonight Knight was still standing firm. When asked what he was going to do about it, he replied that he did not know Meyerfield and Tryon.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

descended and pronounced the machine in good condition. Mrs. Clarke, who was in waiting, smilingly took charge of the machine for her first flight, made a beautiful start and circled around the fairgrounds for several minutes.

Popular and Fearless. Others of the exhibition party are tonight half crazed with grief, as Mrs. Clarke was as popular as she was fearless.

Had Little Practice. CHICAGO, June 17.—Mrs. Julia Clarke became interested in aviation during the international aviation meet in Chicago in August, 1911.

Admission to Salt Palace grounds free. At Lagoons next Wednesday. Fare 25c.

MEMBERS WHO WILL PASS ON CONTESTS. CHICAGO, June 17.—The following members of the credentials committee were selected today at the general slate caucus.

Panic Ends Suddenly. Late tonight Knight was still standing firm. When asked what he was going to do about it, he replied that he did not know Meyerfield and Tryon.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

Roosevelt Threatens Denten. His side did not count for much. Twenty-two of the delegation listened to him respectfully and said they guessed they would vote for Root.

ERTA'S ARMY... COLUMN HAS NOT YET ARRIVED... Steever Has Warned the Insurgents.

THE REBEL FRONT. LA OZCROZ, Mexico, June 17.—Three times today 2000 federal cavalry under General Rabago, forming the vanguard of General Huerta's forces north toward this town.

RE EXPECTED... THE BORDER. June 17.—Distinct tension is over the latest plan of the government to capture this town and the Huachuca, the only two important posts held by the Mexican rebels.

Expected. Official reports are expected to be made public today.

Apparent. It is added to the ill-reputation of the United States which admitted there since the policy of all-out.

Army of Occupation. Little Every Day... CARTER'S LITTLE PINK PILLS.

Army of Occupation. Little Every Day... CARTER'S LITTLE PINK PILLS.

Army of Occupation. Little Every Day... CARTER'S LITTLE PINK PILLS.

Army of Occupation. Little Every Day... CARTER'S LITTLE PINK PILLS.

Army of Occupation. Little Every Day... CARTER'S LITTLE PINK PILLS.

Army of Occupation. Little Every Day... CARTER'S LITTLE PINK PILLS.

WALKER BROTHERS BANKERS. Founded 1858. A Tower of Strength.

ARMY OF OCCUPATION... CARTER'S LITTLE PINK PILLS.