Flugel, Bride of the Month, Who Will Be Guest of Honor Today at an Afternoon Affair.

matter for Sunday society page in this office by noon Saturday notes, etc., should be in by evening.

...more delightful, nor on a more magnificent scale, has been the social calendar the present season than the garden party given yesterday afternoon by Tarlin Harris in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Edwin Frances, who is here from California for the summer.

...the Harris family, and never has the beautiful garden presented a more brilliant appearance. The grounds were all brilliant with the season's flowers and gay with the awnings and rugs and cozy seats arranged for the comfort of the guests. The orchestra of eight pieces, on the rounding terrace outside, welcomed the arriving guests with strains of sweet music, and here on the veranda to the west of the house, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Harvey, received their guests, assisted by Miss Scheel. Further assisting at the grounds were Mrs. E. M. Armstrong, Mrs. E. Jennings, Mrs. James E. Jennings and Mrs. A. Scheel. Further assisting at the grounds were Mrs. E. M. Armstrong, Mrs. E. Jennings, Mrs. James E. Jennings and Mrs. A. Scheel.

...a quiet wedding of Thursday was that of Miss Violetta Smith of Draper and James H. Jensen of Bingham. The ceremony was performed at the Phillips parsonage by the Rev. P. A. Stuppin in the presence of a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen left at once for Draper, where a reception was tendered them at the home of the bride's parents, which was attended by a large number of friends.
