

CONFERENCE OF RELIEF SOCIETY

Meetings Will Be Held on Thursday, Oct. 3, and Monday, Oct. 7.

SESSIONS IN ASSEMBLY HALL

Program in Detail Covering Four Gatherings, Including Third Quinquennial of N. W. R. S.

A conference of the Relief Society will be held Thursday, Oct. 3, and Monday, Oct. 7. The first meeting will convene at 10 a. m. on the first date named, and will be held in the Assembly hall, President Bathsheba W. Smith will preside, and the following program will be carried out. Mrs. Lizzie Thomas Edward is musical director, Miss Edna Coray, accompanist.

HYMN, "Come, come ye saints." Prayer. HYMN, "Zion stands with hills surrounding." Greeting and welcome, President Bathsheba W. Smith. Address, Counselor Annie Hyde Taylor.

HYMN, "Our God we raise to Thee." Prayer. HYMN, "Come let us anew." Remarks, Mrs. Juliana L. Smith, Sarah Jane Cannon, Dr. Ellis R. Shipp, nurse work instructor.

MONDAY 11 A. M. BARRATT HALL. Testimony meeting, President Bathsheba W. Smith presiding. HYMN, "Guide Us Oh Thou Great Jehovah." Prayer.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A quiet home wedding of the week was that of Miss Mammie Thomas and Mr. George Albert Kingdon who were married on Thursday at 8 o'clock, by Elder George R. Emery. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. H. E. Llewellyn, No. 256 north Seventh West, the ceremony being witnessed by the members of the two families, after which a reception was held. The rooms were very tastefully decorated with flowers and the bride carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, Mr. and Mrs. Kingdon will be at home to their friends after Oct. 1, at 457 south Main street.

A pretty home wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Mary W. Seare and Albert Davis the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents, with Bishop Burton officiating. The rooms were decorated in various colors, the dining room being especially pretty with its plumosa and blue larkspurs. The bride's gown was white chiffon broadcloth with trimmings of Irish lace and carried a shower bouquet of pure white flowers. She was attended by Miss Mabel Lund and the groom by Hyrum Richards. Music was furnished by Richard's orchestra, and those assisting in receiving were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Seare, Mrs. Joseph Davis, Mrs. George Rankin, Mrs. W. Luke, Miss Annie Hutton, Miss Jean Rankin and Mrs. Collins presided at the punch bowl. A delicious wedding supper was served covers being laid for 25. The couple received many beautiful and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at home after Sept. 28 at No. 416 west Seventh South.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Luce entertained at their home in honor of the one hundredth birthday anniversary of her father James Vincent. It was a family gathering and the home was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns and flags and a profusion of flowers. The evening was passed with games and music and during the evening a drawing took place for a pretty Japanese vase given as a keepsake in memory of the occasion. The winning drawing the lucky number, Mrs. M. Vincent being the winner. Among those gathered at the home were two

Refuse to buy any Piano till you have Seen and heard The High Grade

ANDERSON PIANO.

Also Baby Grands, Player Pianos and Piano Players. We also have Becker Bros., Stoddart, De Rivas & Harris And Bailey Pianos.

NEW YORK PRICES

With Freight Added 46 Market St.

Near Main St. Postoffice.

New York & Western Piano Co.

of Mr. Vincent's children, Mr. John Vincent of the Sixteenth ward and Mrs. Henry Luce and many of his grandchildren and great grandchildren. There have been 151 direct descendants who are scattered throughout Montana, Washington, Canada and other places.

The marriage of Miss Caroline Arnold and Mr. John W. White took place on Wednesday last, the event being solemnized in the Temple. A reception was held for the immediate relatives, after which the young couple left for a short trip.

Mrs. Will J. Reeve entertained informally Thursday evening in honor of her friend Mrs. Charles Reeder of La Porte, Ind. The evening was spent with music and games, prizes being awarded to Mrs. R. Sheeks, Mr. J. Taylor and W. Nuttall. Dainty refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. L. E. Hicks.

Mrs. B. B. Herwood was hostess at a luncheon yesterday at the Cullen hotel in honor of Mrs. Barrett and Miss Canady of Logan, the table being decorated with a centerpiece of lavender asters and asparagus ferns and the place cards being Japanese fans. The guests were Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. Elizabeth Bonemont, Mrs. W. Baxter, Mrs. F. S. Dickinson, Mrs. Horace Dunbar, Mrs. Wellington E. Lake, Mrs. George Morgan, Mrs. Isadora Mayer, Mrs. W. D. McAllister, Mrs. C. H. Reed, Mrs. Mary Sanborn, Mrs. P. I. Seffert, Mrs. Pauline Sands, Mrs. Fred A. Wey, Mrs. A. B. Wheelock, Mrs. Whiteman of Butte, Mrs. R. G. Wilson and Miss Eva Thompkins of Los Angeles, Mrs. J. D. Wood, Mrs. Frank Kimball and Mrs. V. P. Taggart.

Mrs. O. H. Jensen entertained this afternoon at a luncheon in honor of Mrs. E. J. Saunders and Mrs. W. G. Williams, the table being prettily decorated in autumn flowers and a number of intimate friends being present.

Today seen the practical end of the regular season at the Country club, though informal events will continue while the weather permits.

Miss Florence Sears, whose marriage to Stanley Wade will be one of the near events, will be guest of honor at a china shower party next Tuesday to be given by Miss Margaret Primm.

Mrs. M. A. Breeden gives a matinee party at the Orpheum this afternoon followed by a luncheon at Franklin's in celebration of her tenth birthday anniversary of her daughter Talma. The guests will equal the birthday years.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton J. Chessman have shortly for an extended European trip.

Mrs. Isabella M. Pitts has been the guest of Mrs. Winnifred Walker this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Seibed are expected home today from their wedding trip.

Yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Ladies' Literary club was addressed by Edward Kapellan, the rug dealer, who spoke on rugs, their design and cost, illustrating with a collection of 95 of these articles from the orient.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Spencer will entertain at dinner tonight in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Spencer whose marriage took place this week in the temple. The bride was formerly Miss Ella Friday and the groom is a nephew of the host.

One of the prettiest weddings of the week was that of Miss Mabel Pearl Anderson and Mr. A. O. Soderberg. The marriage ceremony was performed in the temple in the afternoon by President John R. Windar, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents in the evening. The house was beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and out flowers. The diningroom being especially pretty in pink and white. The centerpiece was a mound of pink roses and sweet peas and pink ribbon streamers were brought from the chandelier to the corners of the table. The bride and groom stood under a canopy of green embanked with flowers and palms. The bride wore a dainty princess gown of chiffon tulle, with lace trimmings and carried bride's roses. Those who assisted Mr. and Mrs. Anderson in receiving were Mrs. Sam Ashby and Mrs. P. Lettler, Miss Ruth Taylor presiding over the punch, while Mrs. George A. Mills, Misses Effie Pyper, Martha and Lizzie Child and Ethel Tuckett served in the dining-room. Vocal and instrumental music were rendered during the evening by Miss Margaret Hooker, Miss Eva Dunyon, Mr. George D. Pyper and others. The presents were numerous and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Soderberg will be at home to their friends after Oct. 10, at 303 South Avenue.

BLOCKED THE STREETS.

Rio Grande Trainman is Fined Ten Dollars for Obstruction.

In the criminal division of the city court this morning three railroad men, employed by the Rio Grande Western, were arraigned on the charge of obstructing the streets, or violating the street ordinance. The men are accused of permitting a string of freight cars to remain on the crossing on Second South and Fifth West streets for 15 minutes, thereby preventing street cars and teams from crossing the street.

The men arrested are W. J. Lemmon, A. L. Husted and E. R. Parson. The first named took until Monday to plead and the case of Parson went over until that time. Heusted pleaded guilty and was fined $10.

CHANGED HIS PLEA.

A young man named Pat O'Connor, charged with stealing a coat from a Commercial street pawn shop, was tried this morning for petit larceny. Two witnesses testified they saw O'Connor take the coat. At this point the accused said he would change his plea of not guilty to guilty. Judge Dohi then sentenced the man to pay a fine of $75 or serve 75 days in the city jail.

SHIPPED TO BUTTE.

Remains of Park City Miner Sent to Montana for Burial. (Special to the "News.") Park City, Sept. 28.—The longest over the remains of John P. Holland, killed by a cave-in at the Silver King mine yesterday, was adjourned until this evening to permit the jury to visit the scene of the accident.

The remains of the unfortunate young man were shipped to Butte this afternoon. His parents reside in the Montana town.

There is no change in the strike situation. About 75 men left camp this morning for Salt Lake, where they will look for work.

The aerial tram of the Ostaro mine, which was broken several days ago, has been repaired and will start hauling ore again tomorrow.

NEWTON CASE MONDAY.

The case of Atty. William Newton, charged with receiving stolen property, was to have been settled in Judge Dohi's court this morning. The defense had made a motion to dismiss on the grounds that the state had failed to make out a case, but the court took the matter under advisement again and will decide the question next Monday morning.

STEWART FAMILY MEETING.

Representatives of the Stewart family, including the Stuart, Stuard and Stewart families are respectfully requested to meet at the office of Stewart & Stewart in the Commercial building in Salt Lake City, Utah, at 12 o'clock, noon, on Oct. 5, 1907, in the interests of genealogical and temple work. We trust that each family will be represented. J. Z. STEWART, Logan Utah.

TRIB

A guaranteed cure for the Liquor and Tobacco Habits. PRICE $12.50

Schramm's, Where the Cars, Stop, Sole Agency.

Standard patterns at Walkers

The most reliable and up to date patterns on the market. Designed on scientific principles—they simply can't help fitting. 10c 15c each—none higher.

The Designer—a splendid magazine at 50c the year—Subscribe at our pattern counter.

Phones: Independent—227, Bell—EXCHANGE 22; Call all departments

Our cut flower dept.

One of our most interesting departments is the one handling cut flowers and palms—a delightful surprise to all who have visited it. Here you will find the best selection of cut flowers in the city—in fact right at the present time when florists are looking in vain for American beauties and carnations, we are fully supplied, and with the best too. Just drop in and see our show case—The best place in town to buy your cut flowers. Main street floor—Open every Sunday.

Unsurpassed styles and values shown in our ready-to-wear section

A very pleasing line of Women's tailored suits—All the newest shades and fabrics included—Every suit a beauty—even the less expensive one possessing an air of style and exclusiveness that is distinctive. Prices begin at $25.00.

Our showing of afternoon and evening gowns is simply superb—Lovely creations of nets, laces, crepes and silks. Delicate colorings to please any fancy. Mostly imported models. Prices range upward from $25.00.

Fetching line of walking skirts now exhibited. Panamas, serges, worsteds and broad cloths in pleated and gored styles. Correct lengths. Very special values at $6.75 and up.

Neat linen waists—handsomely embroidered. A splendid line just received that is causing a great deal of comment. Every one handsomely embroidered on collar and front. Long sleeves styles, $3.75 and up for these.

First floor—Annex.

Another week of lively interest in the millinery

Fully as great as last week will be the interest in this department—though the opening is past, there will be many new things not seen before. New arrivals and new things from our own shop. Our supremacy has thoroughly been established this season. No where in the city except at Walker's can such a beautiful assortment of newest models and at such moderate prices be found.

Handsome silk petticoats-special

Made in black and colors—full flounce, accordion and cirruffles. Monday Special $6.95

A splendid showing of flannellette night gowns in white, pink, blue and stripe effects. Extra full models and good lengths. Prices range from 65c to $2.25 each.

Baby Sacques in white cashmere and French flannel embroidered scallops Special each $1.25

First floor—Annex.

Val laces at 66c the dozen

Insertions also included in this lot—Values 7c, 8c, and 10c the yard—Monday and week you select at the dozen yards 66c

Dainty line of braids in assorted colors—Splendid for trimming children's dresses. Special Monday and week at the yard 5c

Fine linen handkerchiefs—A tremendous quantity—purchased for school children. Special Monday and week at 5c

Juvenile section

Our showing of boy's and children's clothing this season is very exclusive. The models are the very newest and possess a distinctive style quality not to be found in the average children's store.

Every garment well made and perfect fitting. Best fabrics and materials throughout—Prices upward from $3.50 the suit.

Girl's dresses in Peter Thompson style. Blouse trimmed with soutache braid—Skirts full pleated. In the assortment are browns, blues and reds—Fabric, serge in the best quality. Sizes for girls 4 to 16 years of age. Prices $7.00 and $7.50 each.

Our line of Boys' hats and caps has been very carefully selected. The assortment is larger than ever before—the styles are the newest and the prices are right. 50c each and up.

First Floor Annex

Women's gloves

Our glove department bears an enviable reputation. The reason is—only the best lines are handled. No gloves we can not guarantee are on our shelves.

Among the leaders "Perrin's" take first place. They are far superior to any glove we know of. Our three pearl clasp, real French kid overseas glove is a beauty. Full range of colors. The price—$2.00.

Misses' fine kid overseas gloves in white and colors—$1.25 the pair. 16 button silks in all shades. 12 and 16 button capes. Fine assortment of automobile gloves.

The "Men's corner"

A MONDAY SPECIAL—100 dozen pure linen handkerchiefs. Good full size. Neat quarter inch hemstitch. As an extra special Monday only, we offer these at 12 for $1.00 or each 9c

Our 50c line of neckwear represents the best in the world. Highest grade of silks. Newest patterns and best cuts. Ties worth 75c each. We make a specialty of at 50c each.

A few of the high class lines handled in our men's corner mentioned here.

E and W Collars at 25c each—six for . . . $1.40 Arrow brand collars at 15c each—2 for . . . 25c Perrin's gloves—newest shades for fall. Laces and Kennedy's gloves. Full line. Kneipp linen mesh underwear. Three weights. Norfolk, New Brunswick mills underwear. Bon Bon's French cashmere underwear. East aisle—Main Store.

Unusually interesting offerings from the linen and domestic aisle

Pure linen table cloths. Handsome patterns. Worth $2.00 each—Special $1.10

Heavy unbleached table linen worth 50c the yard very special 33c

Five pound indestructible blankets—Regulation government brown. Worth 5.00 each Special $2.95

St. Mary's all wool blankets—11-4 size. Grey and white—Special $4.95 per pair

Large size cotton bats worth 15c each Special 10c

Wool filled comforts, very special Monday and week $2.85

Silkoline covered comforts. Light and medium colors. Pure white cotton filled. Special each $1.00

Extra large size fluffy comforts. Worth $2.00 each—Very special $1.50

White kid belts worth 75c to $4.00 each—Half regular prices.

Seal leather hand bags—splendid values at $1.25 each—Choose 89c at

All white wash belts at one fourth off.

Handsome seal hand bags—leather lined, coin purse included—Worth $6.00 each—Choose $4.98

Center aisle—back. Main store

Women's hosiery and knit underwear

A beautiful showing of Italian silk underwear. Every garment beautifully finished. Some elegantly embroidered, some with plain yokes and narrow shoulders. No underwear on the market is as pleasing to the exacting woman as Italian silk. Colors, white, sky or pink. Prices $3.00, $3.50 and $5.00 the garment.

Portage habrigan union suits—$2.50. Harvard Mills fine ribbed underwear $1.00 the garment.

We show the largest line of silk hose ever brought to this city. Plain colors and fancy embroidered effects in every conceivable combination. $1.50 to $5.00 the pair.

Especially strong is the line at $2.00 the pair—plain silks. Women's outside hose—rib top or split sole. Worth 65c the pair—Monday and Tuesday 45c

Pinand's Violette de Parme face powder worth 35c 50c Special Monday 35c

"Priscilla" box stationery. Fine quality linen—Worth 20c the box—Special Monday 14c

Hand mirrors—Good assortment—Worth 50c, 65c and 75c each Choose Monday at one third off.

East aisle—Main store.

JEAN STRONG, Expert Medical MASSEUR,

Late of New York, where his methods were highly endorsed by the leaders of the medical profession, will open offices

Monday, Sept. 30, in Suite 212 of the New Utah Savings & Trust Building, Fully equipped with all the most effective paraphernalia for first class massage work.

Mr. Strong treats and positively cures all cases of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Chronic Fractures, Nervous Diseases and Indigestion, without the use of drugs.

Womens treatments with the assistance of Woman Experts by appointment. Only the better class of patronage solicited. OFFICE HOURS 10 to 12 A. M.; 2 to 7 P. M.