

ANARCHY'S RED FLAG UNFURLED IN FRANCE

May Day Fails to Usher in the Revolution But Disorder Pre- valent in the Country.

ARMED SOLDIERS SAVE PARIS

More Than a Thousand Persons Ar- rested—Workmen and Socialists Assert That They Have Not Shown Their Real Strength—Situation Still Serious—Quiet in Russia.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, May 1.—The long dreaded May Day failed to bring the revolution which inflammatory journals predicted, but none the less it brought scenes of extreme violence.

The labor districts which thousand of troops controlled with difficulty, and even central portions of Paris have taken on the appearance of a siege, with regiments of infantry and cavalry about the Arc de Triomphe, the Bourse, the Bank of France and the great railway station while military sentinels paced before the banks and private establishments.

The main thoroughfares in the residential portion of Paris were tranquil.

Plenty of Work for Troops.

Throughout the afternoon dragoons, republican guards and cuirassiers charged disorderly masses, sweeping the Place de la Republique and the broad boulevard De Magenta.

Toward nightfall, cavalry charged with drawn swords and many persons were wounded on both sides. The manifestants overturned omnibuses, and threw up hasty barricades. More than 1,000 arrests were made during the day.

Just a Leaderless Mob.

At no time did the demonstration reach the magnitude of revolt, but was rather a leaderless tumult, in which the serious labor element, struggling for a principle, was hopelessly confused with violent agitators, anarchists, revolutionists, roughs and a large number of the curious.

Workmen never succeeded in forming a procession or ever in assembling more than scattered bands.
Their chief action was a reunion of of many thousands in the labor exchange, at which a resolution was adopted not to return to work until the eight hour day shall have been accorded.

Police Give Way to Troops.

The worst hours of the day were towards 5 o'clock this evening, when the police practically lost control and were compelled to rely on the mounted troops. The latter forming in lines twenty yards across and fifteen yards apart, swept around the Place De La Republique, driving the disorderly crowds into the surrounding streets.

Most of the mob sought refuge in the boulevard De Magenta and at the Que De Valmy, which became centers of disorders. Here trumpets sounded repeated commands to disperse and the cavalry galloped into the crowds trampling and injuring many.

Foot Guards Entrapped.

A body of foot guards became surrounded by manifestants and was rescued with difficulty by cavalry with drawn swords. Here a considerable number were wounded. By 6 o'clock calm had been measurably restored and most of the troops returned to their barracks.

Throughout the disorders the authorities succeeded in executing their original plan of holding the participants strictly within the limits of the labor districts and not permitting them to press towards the wealthy commercial and residential sections.

Traffic Suspended.

Tonight vehicular traffic is completely suspended. Cabs, omnibuses and street cars are not running, the result being to give the usually busy boulevards a singular aspect of desertion. Enormous crowds of curious persons fill the streets. The opera and other state theatres are open, the opera having two squadrons of cuirassiers in the basement, while Pellx Weingartner is conducting a Beethoven and Berlioz festival in the auditorium.

Ten Theatres Close Doors.

Ten of the leading theatres closed on account of the exceptional conditions. The banks were closed throughout the day.

The temper of the workmen tonight is threatening. They claim the police acted brutally and cite many instances of innocent people being beaten and arrested. They declare that today was only the beginning of the movement.

Red Flags Flaunted.

Reports from the provinces show there were violent demonstrations at Marseilles, Brest, Bordeaux, St. Etienne, Lyons and Rouen. At Marseilles processions carrying red flags and creating violent disorders came in collision with the troops and a number of persons were injured.

Police Killed in Warsaw.

WARSAW, RUSSIAN POLAND, May 1.—Three policemen were killed in the streets here during the night but the threatened May Day outbreaks have not materialized.

Quiet in Italy.

ROME, May 1.—May Day passed off quietly in Italy today.

No Disorders in Berlin.

BERLIN, May 1.—May Day assemblages of workmen were larger in Berlin and the industrial centers of Germany today than for many years previously but there were no disorders.

Socialists Strong in Budapest.

BUDAPEST, May 1.—5,000 Socialists made a demonstration here today.

Order Prevailed in London.

LONDON, May 1.—8,000 men and women took part in labor demonstrations here.

Carpenter Olmstead Transferred.

Carpenter L. H. Olmstead, U. S.
N., has been detached from the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company and ordered to the Hancock, Carpenter Olmstead has been in this city quite a while and has made many friends who will regret his departure.

BLUE AND GRAY UNITED

Norfolk Arranges for the Coming of the President.

LINE OF MARCH IS MADE OUT

Camp of Confederate Veterans Will Troop Behind Old Glory and the Stars and Bars Will Be Unfurled From the Big Monument.

(By Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, VA., May 1.—Four definite things were decided at the meeting of the Citizens and B. M. A. committees tonight in Portsmouth concerning the President's visit here on May 30. These are:

The line of march.

A proclamation asking that all citizens decorate.

A platform for school children.

Not to provide entertainment for any visiting militia.

The camp of Confederate Veterans will be in the line of march and will carry at their head the American flag. When this decision, reached at a meeting of the veterans tonight, was announced in the committee session by C. W. Walker it was greeted with long applause. A Confederate flag will float from the top of the Confederate monument and the Army and Navy Union will march under a flag of Virginia.

Rather characteristic of President Roosevelt is the statement accredited to him by Provisional Commander Glenn of the Army and Navy Union:
"We intended to form a guard around his carriage," said Mr. Glenn "but he wouldn't have it. 'I want to see the people,' he said."

The following officers have been detached from various duties and ordered to the battleship Louisiana, under Franklin in connection with Louisiana's crew.

is now preparing plans for the new church for the Grace Episcopal con-

STATE INSANE ASYLUM BEING INVESTIGATED

Legislative Committee Gets Down to Business and Has Sum- moned Witnesses.

STARTLING TESTIMONY EXPECTED

Partisans are Lined Up for the Fight and Already There is Much Bitter- ness Aroused—Solons are in Earn- est and the Inquiry May Bring Out Sensational Disclosures.

(Special to the Daily Press.)

WILLIAMSBURG, May 1.—Chairman Joseph P. Sadler, senator from Powhatan, called to order this morning the special legislative committee appointed to investigate the management of the Eastern State hospital.

Those present from the senate are Joseph P. Sadler, of Powhatan, chairman, and George T. Rison, of Chatham; from the house, Willis C.
Pulliam, of Manchester; Eugene Ould, of Campbell; Dr. Thomas N.
Dunn, of Albemarle; Senator Robertson, who was named a member of the committee by Governor Swanson in place of Judge A. A. Phlegar, is not present.

Gets to Work at Once.

The committee soon got down to work. The resolution under which the committee was appointed was read. Mr. Rison offered a resolution that all officers of the hospital, all members and ex-members of the special board and all employes of said institution be at liberty to attend this investigation.

Senator Sadler offered the following amendment: "Provided that all witnesses be excluded until charges are preferred against him or them; that in that event they shall be present and be confronted by their accusers."

Senator Rison offered another amendment providing that the committee shall, when in its judgement it is necessary to do so, exclude any particular individual at any time for the time being. Both amendments were adopted.

Dr. Foster on the Stand.

Dr. L. S. Foster was put on the stand. Judging from the remarks let fall by the committee members, they anticipate startling testimony, something that will intensify the bitterness that now exists.

Mr. Eugene Clowes, of Richmond, a former member of the board, is here to testify. He appears to be armed with important testimony, the nature of which he has not disclosed.

A member of the committee says they expect to finish their work by Friday evening. If all who want to testify are heard, the investigation will not close in that time.

Sergeant-at-Arms Watkins is in charge of the doors of the committee-room, but he was not much disturbed by intruders at this morn-ing's session.

conference at noon. All were present except Dr. Uphur and Captain Tabb.

NO TRIUMPHANT MARCH FOR FATHER SHERMAN

Old Soldiers, Federals and Con- federates, Are Opposed to Trip Through Georgia.

MILITARY ESCORT UNNECESSARY

Cities All Along the Route are In- censed Over the Campaign Out- lined by the Army Chaplain—Pres- ident Calls Off the Affair So Ends the Rumpus.

(By Associated Press.)

SAVANNAH, May 1.—The march of Father Sherman, son of General Sherman, through Georgia with an escort of federal cavalry bids fair to be no triumphal progress.

Reports from cities all along the route from Chattanooga to Savannah show that the people frown severely upon the project, and one would judge that the military escort would be necessary.

Captain Louis C. Young, commander of the Confederate Veterans' Association of this city, and General S. F. B. Gillespie, of the local post of the Grand Army of the Republic, join in condemning the plan, and their expressions mark the general sentiment.

And Its Called Off.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.—The President tonight directed the recall of the Twelfth cavalry as an escort to Rev. Father Thomas Sherman on a march over part of the line of General Sherman's famous march to the sea.

War Department's Excuse.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The war department is without official information concerning the march to the sea which the Rev. Father Thomas Sherman, son of General W. T. Sherman, is reported to be making under military escort from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.

Neither General Bell, the chief of staff, nor General Ainsworth, the military secretary of the army, has been advised of the sending of troops with Father Sherman.

Troops With the Priest.

The dispatches state that Rev.
Father Sherman is accompanied by a second lieutenant and six privates from Fort Oglethorpe, in Georgia.

"If this be true, the order must have been given by the Commander of the Gulf, General Duvall, at Atlanta," said General Ainsworth, the military secretary. "No such order has been issued by the Secretary of War. It is incredible that a military escort should accompany the party."

"This trip is most unfortunate, if military accompanies Father Sherman, said Senator Bacon, of Georgia. "In fact, it is an outrage. Old General Sherman himself, were he alive, could go all over the country alone in Georgia and not be molested. The sending of his son through there under military guard is highly offensive to our people."

Gen. Bell Responsible.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., May 1.— Colonel Chase commanding at Fort Oglethorpe was shown the above press despatch today.

Colonel Chase has a letter instructing him to provide the escort from General Wade, commanding the department of the Gulf at Atlanta, who was spoken to concerning the arrangement by General Barry, assistant chief of staff to General Bell.

athon road and the surrounding hills, forming a human barrier behind the entire length of the course.

DANIEL OPPOSES BAILEY.

Senator From Virginia Supports Rate Making Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The proceedings in the Senate today included an extended discussion of the railroad rate bill by Mr. Daniel, an explanation of the status of the appropriation bill for the relief of the earthquake sufferers of California by Mr. Allison and a controversy among a few senators as to the propriety of adopting without referring to a committee a resolution tending the thanks of Congress to General Horace Porter for his services in rescuing the body of John Paul Jones.

Mr. Aldrich opposed action in ad- vance of committee consideration and succeeded in having the meas- ure referred to the committee.

In his rate speech Mr. Daniel supported the right of congress to legislate so as to fix rates and to delegate its power to a commission. He opposed Mr. Bailey's re-suspension provisions.

resuming business in a small measure through the branch United States
