HE WON HIS CASE.

An Incident That Illustrates the Shrewdness of Gen Butler.

A number of years ago General Benjamin F. Butler was a guest of friends in Brooklyn. During his visit he noted the rule of the street railway companies compelling conductors to register fares as soon as passengers entered the cars and before the fares were actually collected.

Butler's client received a verdict—Brooklyn Eagle.

HOW TO REPEL A DOG.

Letter Carrier Had a Remedy For Vicious Curs.

"No one comes in contact with all sorts of dogs more than the letter carrier," said the man in gray as the interviewer trudged along beside him.

"Do you kick them?" was asked.

"That would be foolish. I carry here in my side pocket about a quarter of a pound of dry fine cut tobacco. You see it is almost as fine as snuff. The dog that means to bite you won't come charging down with a roar.

Indians With Blue Eyes.

One of the mysteries of Mexico is presented by the Maya Indians, who inhabit the Sierra Madre mountains in the lower part of Sonora. They have fair skins, blue eyes and light hair, and students of ethnology have always been puzzled to account for them.

An Ancient Prayer.

Old John Ward, who was pilloried by Pope in the "Dunclad" and who actually stood in the pillory in the year 1727, when he was said to have been worth £200,000, was nevertheless a pious man.

The Vulgar One.

Cornhill Magazine tells of an Englishwoman of high station who bewailed to a friend the loss by death of a somewhat ill bred but extremely wealthy neighbor who had been very liberal in his help to her country charities.

Odd Coincidence.

Not many years since a pastor in New York state read in his pulpit this portion of a hymn:

Well, the delightful day will come When my dear Lord shall take me home, And I shall see his face—

MISTAKE TO WEAR CLOTHES.

Nude Nations More Virtuous, Says Mrs. O. A. James.

In a paper read before the "Twentieth Century Club" today, Mrs. O. A. James, speaking on "The Science of Artistic Dress," said unclothed people, accustomed to see the human body nude, are less vicious than clothed nations, among whom clothing adds allurements to the mystery of the human body.

about the exposure of the upper than of the lower limbs? "Modesty is the latest evolved of all the virtues and originally is the effect rather than the cause of clothes. The first chapter of Genesis show that clothing originally was the result of moral degeneracy.

mates to adopt clothes originally. "The garments worn by Japanese women are the best of all models hygienically for women's wear, yet the Japanese are discarding them for Western styles.

"The very adoption of clothing by the human race in the beginning was a mistake hygienically. Compressed waists, distorted spines, bunions and other physical ailments are the penalty, as well as the hate, envy, grief, extravagance and vice that accompany their use. There was positively no excuse for people of warm climates

"Clothing, to be really modest, must be so from the universal standpoint, and the clothing worn by heathen nations is really more modest than that worn by us Americans, with the exception of the English, who have less sense of beauty in clothing than any nation.

"Who shall say that the dress of the South Sea Islander is less artistic than that of the Twentieth Century dandy?"—Detroit Dispatch in New York World.
