docket, and it had been hoped by the theater attorneys that the old cases would be tried first, as they stood a good chance of getting acquitted.

KANSAS CITY, MO., April 21 - More than two thousand cases against theater owners, actors, managers and others employed in Kansas City playhouses, which were brought as a result of the Sunday observance crusade started by Judge William H. Kimbrell, prosecuting attorney of Jackson county, made a motion to dismiss the cases.

The total amount of bonds put up to procure the release of the various actors arrested since the crusade started is close to $1,000,000.

Attorneys for the theatre owners and employees are not entirely pleased with the turn of affairs.
