

Orders for JOB PRINTING, of all kinds, left at this office, will be promptly attended to, and the work executed in the best style, and on the lowest terms.

The business of this office is conducted entirely on the CASH system.

COUNTY COURT.—The Court met this morning, Robt. Crupper presiding, Lewis McKenzie, Samuel L. C. Sidebottom, Robt. Bell, sr., J. C. McCracken, C. W. Nolan, J. T. Taylor, Samuel Tucker, W. N. Berkley, C. A. Ware, J. C. Clark, W. L. Penn, and H. McGinnis, associates.

Andrew Wylie appeared and qualified as Commonwealth's Attorney.

Licenses were granted to Donnelly & Walton, Peck & Davis, S. F. Gregory, Mary Ahen, and Boyl & Kish to deal in ardent spirits, and to J. E. Bruffey, A. Bussart, W. B. Fisher, James Morton, J. Woods and Mrs. Ann Englebright to keep ordinaries. A license was refused Thos. Cullan, and it was ordered that no more licenses be granted at this term.

Two civil suits were disposed of, of no public interest.

W. M. Johnson qualified as a Constable.

The case of two free negroes, Wm. Smith and Edmund Frazier, charged with larceny, was taken up, and Frazier discharged, and Smith sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

LOCAL.—We have what the farmers call "fine growing weather," alternate showers and sunshine, and the heat summer like:—amongst the persons arrested on Saturday last was Dr. Kleipstein—but he, with the others, after examination, was discharged:—we are requested again to notice the high price of wood for fuel, and to say that cargoes and wagon loads would sell well here:—we see on the streets more of the military, officers and men, than we have noticed for some time previous:—a number of river craft and small vessels arrived on Saturday and yesterday:—all the churches open in this place yesterday were well attended:—Rev. Mr. Wall is now the rector of Grace church in this city, having accepted the call to that effect.

FOREIGN NEWS.—The steamer City of New York brings English dates to the 22d. Cotton has slightly advanced. Breadstuffs unchanged. Hesse Cassel has rejected Russia's ultimatum, and diplomatic relations between the two countries have been suspended. The English journals continue to expatiate on the fall of Yorktown. The London Times treats the evacuation of Yorktown as a great reverse to the Confederates, and says if Richmond is captured, it will be a tremendous victory to the Federals.—It enlarges on the difficulties that must arise in governing the South when the Federals, by continued victories, have brought the Secessionists within their power. The London Post thinks the present is the time for compromise. The Liverpool Post regards the war virtually at an end. Earl Russell, on submitting the new treaty with America on the slave trade to the House of Lords, bore testimony to the efforts of President Lincoln's government to put a stop to the traffic. It was rumored that the French troops were to be withdrawn from Mexico, but this was considered doubtful. The Bank of England has increased its minimum rate of interest.

Dispatch from Gen. McClellan.

FIELD OF BATTLE, 12 o'clock, June 1.

Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

We have had a desperate battle, in which the corps of Sumner, Heintzelman and Keys have been engaged against greatly superior numbers. Yesterday, at 1 o'clock, the enemy taking advantage of a terrible storm which had flooded the valley of the Chickahominy, attacked our troops on the right flank of that stream. Gen. Casey's division, which was in the first line, gave way unaccountably and disunitedly. This caused a temporary confusion, during which guns and baggage were lost, but Heintzelman and Kearney most gallantly brought up their troops, which checked the enemy. At the same time we succeeded by great exertions in bringing across Gens. Sedgwick and Richardson's divisions, who drove back the enemy at the point of the bayonet, covering the ground with his dead. This morning the enemy attempted to renew the conflict, but was everywhere repulsed. We have taken many prisoners, among whom are Gen. Pettigrew and Col. Long. Our loss is heavy, but that of the enemy must have been enormous. With the exception of Casey's division, our men behaved splendidly. Several fine bayonet charges have been made. The Second Excelsior made two to-day.

G. B. McCLELLAN,

Major General Commanding.

COMMUNICATIONS.

I would respectfully call the attention of the proper authorities to the injustice done to the regularly licensed Restaurant Keepers by some who sell without license. *

A number of idle and mischievous boys are prowling, every day, about the gardens and lots in the suburbs of the town, shooting birds, endangering the lives of citizens, trampling down the growing vegetables, breaking the fences, &c. It is believed that it is only necessary to state the facts, to have the remedy applied.

QUIS.

Wendell Phillips and Wm. Lloyd Garrison, in some of their late speeches, soundly abuse President Lincoln and Gen. McClellan.

The indications are strong that Gen. Sigel is to be invested with the command of the troops now in the Valley of Virginia.

A sister of Mrs. Greenhow, was arrested in Montgomery county, Md., last week, but soon released.

There have been nine revolts or attempts at revolution, in Greece, since King Otho was placed on the throne there twenty years ago.

Col. Corcoran, now sick at Salisbury, N. C., and will probably be now released.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The following dispatch was received at the War Department this morning:

The following is a copy of Gen. Halleck's dispatch, received at one o'clock twenty-five minutes this morning, dated Halleck's Headquarters, Department of the Mississippi, Camp near Corinth, June 1:

To Hon. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of war:

The following dispatch has been received from Gen. Pope to Major Gen. Halleck: It gives me pleasure to report the brilliant success of the expedition sent out on the 28th ultimo with the Second Iowa Cavalry. After forced marches, day and night, through a very difficult country, and obstructed by the enemy, he finally succeeded in reaching the Mobile and Ohio railroad, at Boonville, at two o'clock, a. m., on the 30th. He destroyed the track in many places, both South and North of the town; blew up one culvert, destroyed the switch and track, and burned up the depot and locomotives, and train of twenty-six cars loaded with supplies of every kind. He also destroyed ten thousand stand of arms, three small pieces of artillery, and a great quantity of clothing and ammunition, and paroled two thousand prisoners, whom he could not keep with his cavalry.

The enemy had heard of his movements, and had a train of box cars and flat cars, flying artillery, and five thousand infantry, running up and down the road to prevent him from reaching it. The whole road was lined with pickets for several days.

Colonel Elliott's command subsisted upon meat alone. Such as they could find in the country. For daring and dispatch this expedition has been distinguished in the highest degree, and entitles Colonel Elliott and his command to high distinction. Its results will be embarrassing to the enemy, and contribute greatly to their loss and demoralization. He reports the road full of small parties of the retreating enemy, scattering in all directions.

(Signed) JOHN POPE, Major General.
W. W. HALLECK, Major General.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Despatches of an unofficial character received from the headquarters of the army of the Potomac, say that the importance and dimensions of our victory increase as they are hourly developed.

Municipal Election.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Municipal election progressing quietly. The police are out in full force to prevent any breach of peace that may occur. The vote will be slim, the anti-Wallach men voting in but few instances.

Up to one o'clock, the ballots indicated Wallach's chances as three to one of Haliday.

THE ODEON.—In addition to the attractions offered to the visitors of the Odeon, the proprietors have engaged Mr. H. Carlos, the comedian, who will make his first appearance there to-night, and continue his performances during the week. This additional attraction will doubtless draw a full house to the Odeon. The admission is free. *

STRAWBERRIES AND CREAM.—Our thanks are due Messrs. Davis & Studds, No. 118 King street, for ice cream and strawberries.

Col. Kenly, at last dates, was lying wounded in Winchester.
