FROM WASHINGTON.

Surgeon-General Hammond came up from Aquia to-day; he left the wounded in a comfortable condition. They will be sent away at once to Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York, Point Lookout, Alexandria and Washington.

The Secretary of War has relaxed his order as to passes to Aquia, and given a number of friends of wounded men passes to go down and see their friends where it was known they had not been removed and needed assistance.

A caucus of fifteen Republican Senators waited upon the President to urge upon him the importance of energetic measures to suppress "the Rebellion and a change in his policy and the taking of Richmond at once."

To-morrow is the day fixed for hanging the Minnesota Indians. The President has refused to grant any delay or pardons.

MARRIED.

In Washington, on the 18th inst., by Rev. W. M. D. Ryan. Mr. S. AARON COLEMAN, of Rochester, N. Y., to Miss M. ALICE HUNTER, of Alexandria, Va.

NEW AND SIMPLIFIED METHOD FOR PIANO FORTE AND SINGING.—PROF. ALEXANDER WOLOWSKI, PIANIST, VOCALIST, AND COMPOSER, has opened Ladies' and Gentlemen's afternoon (4 o'clock P. M.) Singing Classes, on the most liberal terms. Prof Wolowski will also explain the full theory of music and reading by his system.

By Prof. Wolowski's new method a person having only a slight knowledge of music will be enabled, in a very short time, to read music with great facility, and execute operatic as well as classified music with rare perfection.

As to the vocal part, by his way of vocalization, he arrives at most extraordinary results, renders the voice powerful and enables the singer to vocalize with facility, accuracy, and fine quality of tone.

Subscribers for Singing Classes or Private Piano and Singing lessons can leave their names at the Bookstore of Mr. L. B. Stone, No. 104 King street, or Professor's residence 451 10th st. Washington, D. C. dec 16—1m

LOST.—On Satnrday night, a POCKET BOOK, containing about $30 in notes, a key and several business cards, was lost by the advertiser, who will pay a liberal reward for its recovery. The finder can have one-third the money if the pocket book and the contents are returned, or if the key is dropped in the Post Office, no questions will be asked. dec 18—3t

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE SCOTIA.

NEW YORK Dec. 19.—The steamship Scotia, with Liverpool dates to the 6th inst., has arrived.

The newspapers advance nothing new on American affairs.

The Paris Moniteur, in official form, alludes in the presence of the French Squadron at New Orleans, which is represented to have elated the disaffected population.

The London Globe thinks that the situation of America promises striking results soon.

The Times thinks that the Democratic successes have rendered the U. S Government desperate instead of daunting it; and it looks upon the last advices the worst yet as an indication that the propogation of servile war is about to commence.

The Hon. Mr. Gladson, in a letter to Professor Newman, denies that he has expressed any sympathy with the Southern cause, or passed any eulogeum upon Jefferson Davis, and had thought it out of his province to praise or blame on such a complicated question. He claims to be a much better friend to Northern Americans than those who encourage them to persevere in a hopeless and destructive enterprize.

Interesting and very encouraging statements have been submitted to the Atlantic Telegraph Company by Capt. Hoskyns, who took soundings on the Porcupine Sound, and Mr. Varley, the Electrician. Government has ordered as soon as possible, twelve hundred miles of telegraph communication with India.

The French government has concluded contracts for the supply of its army in Mexico for two years. A prolonged occupation is thus inferred.

The cotton famine, and distress in France was increasing. The Greek question remains unchanged.

It is rumored that some of the Greeks failing to get Prince Alfred for their King, will ask for a son of Lord Derby.

Signor Pasatene was trying to form an Italian ministry.

A squadron of lancers recently mutinied at St. Petersburg.

LATEST.

The Daily News replies to the Times on the horrors of President Lincoln's emancipation schemes, and quotes evidence to show that the predicted horrors are purely emaginary, and that slaves will make a better use of freedom.

The text of the Queen of Spain, in her speech on opening courtes, is received in promising present communication, respecting grave events on the Coast of Cuba. She said that she felt confident that those events would not change the excellent relations the government of Spain maintain with the United States.

Southern Account of Saturday's battle.

NASHEILLE, TENN., Dec 17, 1862.—The following extracts are taken from the Murfreesboro' Rebel Banner of to-day, the 17th:

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 14, 1862.—An official dispatch from Fredericksburg to Gen. Cooper says: "At nine o'clock on Saturday morning, the enemy attacked our right wing, and as the the fog lifted, the battle raged along the line from right to left until 6 P. M., the enemy being repulsed at all points, thanks be to God. As usual, we have to mourn the loss of many brave men. I expect the battle will be renewed to-morrow morning.

"General Hamilton reports that he entered Dumfries and captured twenty wagons with stores, and fifty prisoners.

"Gen. Sigel is expected at Dumfries to-morrow. R. E. Lee."

A second dispatch to Richmond says: "Passengers report that the enemy were driven back two miles yesterday, and our troops occupied the battle field this morning. Our loss is variously stated—probably not more than 500 killed and 2,500 wounded. The body of Gen. Tom Cobb was brought down this evening. The enemy's loss is reported immense A thousand lay in one field. Gen. Hooker, Union, is reported killed."

A private dispatch from General Stuart says: "We have had a great fight and repulsed the enemy at all points. We have lost many good men. Passengers report that we have 1,500 prisoners.

The "Lancashire (English) Relief Fund" foots up $119,900,80.
