

FROM THE WEST.

NEW YORK, May 31.—The morning papers contain the following:

LEAVENWORTH, May 29.—Colonel Phillips had a severe fight with a portion of Price's army on the 20th inst.

The Confederates crossed the Arkansas river near Fort Gibson. Phillips drove them back. The Federal loss was thirty killed.—The enemy's loss was much greater.

The enemy was led by Generals Steele, McIntosh, and Cooper. They are now massed in front, claiming 11,000 men and considerable artillery. We have only 3,000 and one battery, but are well fortified. This is evidently the advance of Price's main army.

Dispatches from the front inform us of the approach from the Southwest of a large Confederate force of Texans and Indians with a design to intercept trains en route to New Mexico.

The guerillas on the border are becoming more numerous. The Federal forces at these points are inadequate for the work they may have on hand. General Blunt, however will make the best possible fight.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Newbern dates to the 26th inst., received here, state there were indications of another expedition about to start for the interior to run out guerrillas. A large number of troops have been notified to get ready to leave, and the gunboats and light-draft transports are being fitted out for the occasion.

A spy has been arrested having upon him plans and information concerning operations.

Preparations are being made at all points of Newbern to receive a large force of Confederates who have been making lately very suspicious movements.

A handsome tomb is about to be erected over the remains of the late Theodore Frelinghuysen, for many years president of Rutgers College, and distinguished for his active connection with religious and humane enterprises. The tomb is in the Gothic style, very rich and massive, cut in solid Italian marble, with granite base.

A lady in Hartford purchased three shad lately for seventy-five cents, and, on dressing one, found inside a plated finger ring and $2.50 gold piece. A wealthy shad, and a good spec.

A lady in Bridgeport, Conn., recently received by express a young alligator ten inches long. It is said to be a love of a beast.

The fine old eight-day clock imported by Thomas Hancock in 1739, is now in the possession of the Antiquarian Society, Worcester, Mass.

According to an army order just issued from Headquarters of the army of the Potomac, hereafter, all captured property of whatever description will be transferred to the department or the staff to which the property appertains. Contrabands will in like manner be transferred to the provost marshal general.—Any officer failing to make prompt and complete returns of the captured property that may fall into his possession and transfer the same, or permitting such neglect in his command, will be speedily reported to headquarters with a view to his dismissal from the service with disgrace.

Grain crops in Europe are, on the whole, less promising now than some two or three weeks back. In England complaint is made of the lack of rains, from which the wheat is suffering, while the sowing of certain root crops has to be procrastinated. From the continent the reports are more favorable, as far as respects the weather; but the Polish war is clearly confusing everything.

Wright, of Ind., who goes out as U. S. commissioner to the international agricultural exhibition at Hamburg, and Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, of New York.

The New Bedford insurance companies suffer heavily by the last reported deprivations of the Alabama and Florida. On the ship Oneida, which belonged there, they had $25,000 on the ship, and $10,000 on the cargo, and on the three whalers destroyed something over $30,000.

The following resolutions were passed by the Washington City Council on Friday evening by a vote—on the first resolution of 17 to 2; and on the second, 19 to 0. The only opponents were Messrs. Utermehle and Wilson:—"That we cordially approve and indorse the action and sentence of the President of the U. S., in banishing Clement L. Vallandigham from the association of those who are loyal and true to the Union, and defenders of their country's welfare and interests. That we will not, as far as it be in our power to prevent, encourage treasonable sentiment, or sympathizers with this wicked and infamous rebellion, and would advise all such to go beyond our lines and into those of the rebels where they properly belong."

An order has been issued dismissing Capt. Herman M. Cady, 17th regiment infantry, regular army, from the military service of the U. S. Capt. Cady is the individual who was reported a day or two ago as having been arrested for intoxication, and for given an assumed name when arrested.

James B. Evans, of the Stonewall Brigade, Co. A, Confederate States army, was arrested day before yesterday, on suspicion of being a spy, and for using treasonable language. He was sent to the Old Capitol prison.

Adjutant Gen'l. Thomas has passed through Cairo en route to Louisville, very sick—so much so that it is thought he will have to abandon his labors in the West for the present.

The newspapers report that "negotiations will soon be commenced for the continuance of the exchange of prisoners under the late rules."
