

The Alexandria Gazette.

VOLUME LXIV.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 9, 1863.

NUMBER 136

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY EDGAR SNOWDEN, Jr.
OFFICE—No. 104 King street, over
Stone's, (formerly French's) Book Store.

Passes for the South.

WAR DEPARTMENT,

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 8, 1863.

Ladies desiring passes to go to or return from the Confederate States, can receive permits under the following regulations:

First. All applications for passes to go South must be made in writing, and verified by oath, addressed to Major L. C. Turner, Judge Advocate, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I, A. B., applicant for a pass to go to City Point, Va., and now residing at ———, do solemnly swear that, if said pass be granted, I will not take any property excepting my wearing apparel, and that all the articles to be taken with me are contained in the trunk or package delivered or to be delivered to the quartermaster on the transport steamer on which I am to go to City Point. That I have not been in any insurgent State, nor beyond the military lines of the United States within thirty days last past. That I will not return within the military lines of the United States during the present war, and that I have not in my trunk, nor on my person, any papers or writings whatsoever, nor any contraband articles."

No person will be allowed to take more than one trunk or package of female wearing apparel, weighing not over one hundred pounds, and subject to inspection, and if anything contraband be found in the trunk or on the person, the property will be forfeited and the pass revoked.

Second. A passenger boat will leave Annapolis, Md., on the first day of July next, to deliver those permitted to go South, at City Point, and the baggage of each applicant must be delivered to the quartermaster on said boat at least twenty-four hours previous to the day of departure, for inspection.

Third. Children will be allowed to accompany their mothers and relatives, and take their usual wearing apparel, but the name and age of each child must be given in the application.

Fourth. Ladies and children desiring to come North will be received on the boat at City Point and taken to Annapolis, and every adult person coming North will be required to take and subscribe the oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States before the boat leaves Fortress Monroe.

L. C. TURNER, Judge Advocate.

Mr. Roebuck, M. P., addressed a large assemblage at Sheffield, England, in support of British mediation or intervention in America. The meeting was convened with the object of urging the propriety of such a step in the cabinet in London.

Mr. John Dean appeared in the Washington court, before Judge Cartter, yesterday, and gave bail in the sum of $1,000 to appear and answer to the indictment for rescuing the fugitive slave boy Hall from his master. His bondman is a colored messenger in one of the departments in Washington.

Mr. J. H. Semmes has been elected President of the Board of Aldermen of Washington city—and Mr. Asbury Lloyd, President of the Common Council.

DEFERRED ITEMS.

Capt. John Walker, of St. Louis, is among the Federal killed at Vicksburg. He participated in eight battles—Belmont, Fort Donelson, Pittsburg Landing, Columbus, Island No. 10, Murfreesboro', and in the two fights at Vicksburg, in the last of which he lost his life. Capt. W. was also in the Mexican war.

Lieut. Col Newman of the 31st N. Y. Volunteers, died on Saturday, in Washington, of hemorrhage from a wound in the foot, received at the battle of Chancellorsville.

Further developments have been made in the Saxton Champion swindle at Rochester, an account of which was given some days since, which show that what first came to light was insignificant compared with what has been since revealed. It now appears that Saxton had a perfectly-executed power of attorney to control the affairs of Mr. Champion, convey his property, and do pretty much as he pleased.

It is supposed that General Fremont is to be assigned for duty in the Carolinas. In respect to the raising of negro regiments, it may be stated that applications for commands from white officers are very numerous.

There is a general complaint among the farmers of Maryland of the backwardness of the crops and the damaging effects of the drought.

Capt. Todd, the provost marshal of the District, and another officer, left Washington last week in charge of Col. D'Utassy, lately convicted by court-martial, with the view of delivering him in charge of the authorities of Sing Sing prison, New York, where he is to be kept, as directed by the War Department, in carrying out the sentence of one year's imprisonment. D'Utassy was handcuffed.

It is understood in naval circles that Admiral Dupont is not relieved because of any rule of the department requiring changes after given periods of service.

John Ross, Chief of the Cherokee nation, arrived in Washington last week, accompanied, as part of the delegation, by the Rev. Evan Jones, Lieut. Col. Downing, of the 3d Cherokee regiment, and Capt. M. Daniel, of the 2d Cherokee regiment, the whole forming a delegation to the U. S. Government on the general interests of the Cherokee nation.

Nine small vessels loaded with cotton attempting to run the blockade, have lately been captured by U. S. vessels in the Gulf of Mexico. They were bound to Havana. In a letter of the 28th May to the Navy Department, dated at Key West, Admiral Bailey says:—"Since I took command (December 9th, 1862,) forty-two vessels have been captured by the vessels of this squadron and declared good prizes; others have been released by the court, and others still destroyed at Indian River and other places along the coast. Many prizes have been sent in by the West India and West Gulf Squadron, making the number that have come in for adjudication since January 1st, 1863, to be seventy."

The Dragon, has arrived at Washington from the lower Potomac, where she has been some time past in seizing stores, corn, &c., on the Virginia side of the river. She also brought up Capt. N. E. McKnew and Lieut. P. M. Lepell, both of the Confederate cavalry, and Hershell Wells, an ex-Lieutenant of the Confederate service, and A. Nittitan, a blockade runner, who were captured by the schooner Ward, near the Wicomico, crossing into Virginia. McKnew, Lepell and Wells are all from Maryland; McKnew hailing from Prince Georges' County.

WASHINGTON, ALEXANDRIA, AND GEORGETOWN R. R.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of this company, the following gentlemen were elected directors for the ensuing year: Alexander Hay, of Philadelphia; Joseph B. Stewart and Silas Seymour, of Washington; Joseph Thornton of Baltimore; and Charles H. Stewart, of New York. At a meeting of the directors, held on the 8th instant, Alexander Hay was elected president, Joseph B. Stewart Secretary, and Charles H. Stewart treasurer. The railroad bridge across the Potomac has been commenced in good earnest. The first pier for the foundations was driven on the morning of the 8th instant, and the timber for the foundations and superstructure is being rapidly delivered and manufactured by the contractors, S. S. Post & Co., of New York, who have agreed to have the whole structure completed by the middle of November next. The cost is estimated at about $120,000.

Prisoners of State continue to be sent from Gen. Stahl's command. The last are the following, who have been committed to the Old Capitol:—John W. Ballenger, Wm. Jenkin, Silas Harmer, J. W. Borden, McCarty Lowe, James Lynch, Patrick Gaines, Ferdinand Dobson, Wm. H. Beach, Wm. F. Hawkey, David Luekett, Thomas Scanlar, Benj. Higgs, Benj. Hatten and Barnett Bivens.

The Springfield Republican draws attention to the number of divorces granted nowadays, and speaking of the changes in the marriage law, says they are made with a view to weaken and even destroy the permanence of the relations, and originate very largely in an active clique of self-styled progressives and reformers living mostly in and about Boston.

The U. S. military expedition about to move from Minnesota against the hostile Indians in the Northwest, will be quite a formidable one.

The Postmaster General has issued an order requiring that from and after the 1st day of July next, there shall be provided and kept in every postoffice, the gross receipts of which amounted in the fiscal year to $100 or more, a book to be designated and known as the "Complaint Book," in which shall be entered all complaints of missing letters of value, claimed to have been deposited in and addressed to such office.

Indiana and Michigan have been formed into a military district, and Gen O. B. Wilcox is to be in command.

A great sale of Tulips recently took place in London. It was one of the largest collections in England, comprising upwards of three hundred rows and two thousand blooms, the property of the late Mr. Lawrence of Hampton.—The largest bed brought sixty guineas.

There are now seven thousand persons in the Convalescent Camp, two thousand of whom are Confederate prisoners.

Medical Inspector Hamlin is preparing plans for the organization of ambulance corps for the army, to be submitted to the next Congress.

The seventeen year locusts have appeared in the neighborhood of Wheeling, West Virginia.