

INVASION OF PENNSYLVANIA.

HARRISBURG, June 26, Noon.—General Knipe, deeming his forces not strong enough to meet the Confederates evacuated Carlisle last night.

At this writing it is not known whether the town has been occupied by the Confederates or not. Gen. Knipe reports them advancing about 10,000 strong.

The drinking houses were all closed this morning, in obedience to the mayor's proclamation. Many of the dry goods stores are also closed.

Large numbers of refugees continue to arrive from Cumberland Valley.

HARRISBURG, June 26.—General Ewell, on entering Chambersburg, issued the following order:—

"HEADQUARTERS SECOND CORPS ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA, CHAMBERSBURG, June 24.—General Orders. The sale of intoxicating liquors to this command, without written permission from a Major-General, is strictly prohibited.

Second. Persons having liquors in their possession are required to report the fact to the Provost Marshal or nearest general officer, stating the amount and kind, that a guard may be placed over it, and the men prevented from getting it.

Third. Any violation of part first of these Orders, or failure to comply with part second, will be punished by the immediate confiscation of all liquors in the possession of the offending parties, besides rendering their other property liable to seizure.

The citizens of the country through which the army may pass, who are not in the military service, are admonished to abstain from all acts of hostility, upon the penalty of being dealt with in a summary manner. A ready acquiescence to the demands of the military authorities will serve greatly to lessen the rigors of war.

By command of Lt. Gen. R. J. EWELL,
A. L. PENDLETON, Adj't. Gen.

Hundreds of herds are being driven over the bridges of the Susquehanna, followed by men, women and children, inhabitants of Cumberland valley.

Governor Curtin has received information that the Confederates occupied Gettysburg to-day with ten regiments of infantry, with cavalry and artillery. It is believed that this force intends to strike the Northern Central Railroad either at Hanover Junction or York, which is distant about thirty miles.

The Governor has also received information that the Confederates hold all the passes of South Mountain.

[From the Philadelphia Inquirer.]

Our special correspondent at Harrisburg telegraphs that up to nine o'clock last night, reliable information had been received, stating that the Confederates made no advance during the day towards Carlisle, probably because of the bad condition of the roads. Their outer line of pickets were within three miles of the town, while the main body of their army was encamped at Mount Rock and along the Walnut Bottom road. Scouting parties now and then were seen in the neighborhood, but no Confederates, up to the hour named, had entered the town. At Chambersburg the Confederates, it is said, had opened the stores and helped themselves to their contents. In the public square they had raised the Confederate flag. According to the most trustworthy reports the enemy's force numbers fifteen thousand men, infantry cavalry and artillery, together with a park of twenty-one guns and a battery of rifled Parrotts. Gen. Ewell, yesterday, issued a supplementary order to the citizens of Chambersburg, warning them against carrying firearms, and threatening them with severe punishment for violation of the order. A late run-or of the night was that the Confederates had diverged from the Cumberland Valley, and moved off in the direction of York and Gettysburg. The latter place is said to have been already occupied by a division from Longstreet's Corps, under command of Gen. Early. This being true would prove the presence of two Corps in Maryland and Pennsylvania from Lee's army. Longstreet is believed to have crossed the Potomac at Shepherdstown Ford.

Gen. B. F. Kelley has been ordered to the command of the Department of West Virginia, to consist of that part of the Middle Department west of Hancock, including the adjacent counties of Ohio. Gen. W. S. Hancock has been assigned, to the command of the Second Army Corps, vice Gen. Couch, now in Pennsylvania.

On last Wednesday the Tennessee Confederates held a convention at Winchester, and proceeded to nominate Hon. Robert Caruthers as candidate for the office of Governor.

Gen. Forrest has been severely wounded but not killed, in a personal difficulty with another Confederate officer, (a lieutenant) about army matters.

The Boston Underwriters and merchants have decided to offer a bonus of $10,000 for the capture of the Florida No. 2, and will dispatch an armed vessel in pursuit to-morrow or next day.

IMPORTANT FROM PORT HUDSON.

Repulse of General Banks.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The Herald of this morning says the second attack of the Union troops upon Port Hudson was made on the 14th inst., and was disastrously repulsed. The loss of field officers was very large in killed and wounded, amounting to no less than five colonels.

It was expected that another assault would be made on the 19th inst.

Our correspondent states that Col. Dudley volunteered and was to lead the forlorn hope—a storming column of four thousand men—all picked men and volunteers. The result of this attack yet remains to be known.

New Orleans letters state that the Federal loss in the repulse of the 14th, at Port Hudson, is seven hundred killed and wounded.

Among the killed are Col. Holcombe, of the 1st Louisiana white regiment; Col. Bryant, of the 175th New York; Capt. Hurlburt, of the 91st New York; Lieutenant (Aid) Hutchinson, 75th New York.

Among the wounded: Gen Paine, severely, in the leg; Col. Smith, 114th New York, mortally; Col. Curry, 123d New York, severely, in both arms; Lieut. Col. Babcock, 75th New York, slightly, in leg.

The authorities refuse to give any list of the killed and wounded. The Confederate loss is not one fourth of that of the Federals.

It is not thought that Gen. Paine's leg will have to be amputated.

LATEST FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

The Confederate advance still continues in the vicinity of Carlisle. The Susquehanna river has risen twenty inches.

Confederate prisoners report that Ewell has twenty-eight regiments of infantry, 5,000 cavalry and twenty pieces of artillery.

Six thousand men, with eight cannon, have been sent to Mercersburg. Some of the border men are reported as sympathizing with the Confederates.

It is reported that Hooker's right wing is in the vicinity of Hagerstown.

No railroad communication between Carlisle and Harrisburg to-day.

The Confederates are keeping the mills grinding corn for their men.
