Congratulatory Order of Gen. Meade.

[Correspondence of the Associated Press.]

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, July 4.—The following has been issued, viz: General Order, No 68.—The Commanding General, in behalf of the country, thanks the Army of the Potomac for the glorious result of the recent operations.

Our enemy, superior in numbers, and flushed with the pride of a successful invasion, attempted to overcome or destroy this army.— Utterly baffled and defeated, he has now withdrawn from the contest. The privations and fatigues the army has endured, and the heroic courage and gallantry it has displayed, will be matters of history to be ever remembered.

Our task is not yet accomplished, and the Commanding General looks to the army for greater efforts to drive from our soil every vestige of the presence of the invader.

It is right and proper that we should on suitable occasions return our grateful thanks to the Almighty Disposer of Events, that, in the goodness of His Providence, he has thought fit to give victory to the cause of the just. By command of Maj. Gen. Meade.

NEAR GETTYSBURG, July 5.—The enemy have retreated towards the Potomac.

Their skirmishers were drawn in last night, and a small cavalry force, probably the rear guard, passed through Emmittsburg this morning about daylight.

Our troops have been engaged all the day in burying the dead, relieving the wounded, and collecting arms, many thousand of which belonged to the Confederates.

The Confederate pontoon bridge at dam No. 4 has been destroyed by our cavalry, almost unopposed, and the cavalry, at last advices, had gone up to Williamsport to destroy the two bridges there.

Other preparations are in progress to intercept Lee's passage of the Potomac, and our army is already in motion. So much time, however, has elapsed since Lee commenced to withdraw from our front, that his advance may have reached Williamsport to cross before we can prevent it.

Lee yesterday paroled about two thousands Union prisoners. They were received by Gen. Couch.

It is not true, as stated, that Longstreet was captured and died. General Hunt, chief of artillery was not wounded. Both of these reports were apparently well authenticated and freely believed. T. B.

At the conclusion of the exercises, the Principal and Teacher of the Preparatory School and Junior Classes, were each presented with an elegant silver plated water pitcher, beautifully chased and otherwise ornamented, by Wm. H. Greenwell, on the part of the students, the presentation being accompanied by a brief address to which both gentlemen made feeling and appropriate replies.

The death of Mary Wood (nee Paton), formerly lady Lennox, whom so many remember with delight, as one of the very finest vocalist and artist of her time, is announced. She is said to have died very recently at Manchester.

Dr. John Struthers maintains, in the Edinburgh Medical Journal, that men, and women too, are lop sided, weighing about fifteen ounces more on the right side than on the left.
