

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer.]

WASHINGTON, September 17.—Sixty-six soldiers, wounded in the late cavalry engagement in the vicinity of Culpeper Court-House, were admitted into the Armory Square Hospital to day.

Gen. Haupt's commission as brigadier general has been revoked.

Col. Davies, of the Harris Light Cavalry, has been appointed a brigadier general.

It is estimated that the draft in the District of Columbia will yield two thousand. The quota is six thousand.

Hereafter the subscribers to the Five twenty loan will receive their bonds the day after their subscriptions are received. Secretary Chase has a large force engaged at the Department in printing the bonds.

A letter received in this city from Norfolk, from an officer of the Sanitary Commission, states, that through the intervention of Gen. S. Meredith, Dr. McDonald, Rev. W. G. Scandlin, Leonard Brink, and Alfred Brengle, officers and employees of the Sanitary Commission, captured by the Confederates, near Gettysburg, will be released on Friday next.

The fact that a white flag was lately seen flying over Fort Moultrie, is not considered of unusual significance, as the Confederate flag itself is white, with the exception of the Union, which is red, with a blue cross, studded with white stars.

General Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific, has forwarded a report from General Conner to the military authorities here, from which it appears that the different tribes of Indians within the District of Utah, are anxious for peace.

A few days ago about a dozen blockade-runners, with thirty thousand dollars' worth of property in their possession, were captured and brought to Point Lookout, in the southern part of Maryland.

Acting Rear-Admiral Bailey, under date of Key West, September 6th, states that not a single instance of yellow fever, or of anything approaching it, has made its appearance either in the town or harbor during the entire season, and the health of the place is in every respect remarkably good.

Lieutenant Eugene Lamb, Seventy-first Pennsylvania Cavalry, has been dismissed for improper conduct, to date September 7, 1863.

It appears that up to Saturday last, out of the 18,450 men drafted in New York city, 5,483 had reported at the various headquarters, out of which number, say about one-fourth, or 1,384 men were secured.

DIED.

UPPER MARLBORO', MD.

On the long-time vacant lot east of the court house, our enterprising fellow-citizen E. G. W. Hall has erected an immense store house 80 x 56 feet. The building contains three large departments on the first floor, and sundry departments on the second floor, and is probably one of the largest, and most convenient houses of the kind in the State, out of the city of Baltimore.

A new and substantial Bridge has been built over the Western Branch at this village, in the place of the one destroyed by the freshet in July. It is about 140 feet and looks as if it would withstand the rains and floods of many years. It cost the county $780. Many smaller bridges have been or are now being erected in the neighborhood. The loss to the county by the great freshet was hardly less than half a million of dollars.

The health of the village and neighborhood has not been so good this season as in former years, owing, no doubt, to the late freshet which left such heavy deposits on all the low lands. In the village one prolific cause of sickness is the immense growth of weeds, which have been permitted to grow up and decay. Some lots are yet thickly covered by disease-engendering vegetation. A little enterprise and a plentiful application of elbow grease would serve to improve our village in many respects.—[Marlboro' Gazette.]
