

Later from Europe.

The steamship Africa, from Liverpool on the 3d, which struck near Cape Race at 10 o'clock on Monday night, arrived at St. John's 2 o'clock yesterday. The vessel was badly damaged.

Cotton market is buoyant. Breadstuffs quiet and steady. Corn active, with an upward tendency.

The Confederate loan has advanced one and a half per cent.

The London News says Bragg's victory over Rosecrans is a striking demonstration of the wisdom of the new military policy of the Confederates in combining their forces to arrest the advance of the Federals. The honors of the battle belong to Bragg; but he must do more than he has hitherto done, if the Confederate cause is to gain solid advantage from his sword.

The Siecle argues that if Stephens visits Paris with the expectation of procuring a recognition of the South, he will return disappointed.

Maximilian has answered the Mexican deputation that he will be ready to accept the throne by the free, spontaneous expression of the population, and by a guarantee for the integrity and independence of the country.

News by the Scotia of the defeat of Rosecrans created a considerable sensation, in Paris, and caused a rise of five per cent. in the Confederate loan, but the advance was not fully sustained. It closed at about twenty-five discount.

The Times thinks that Rosecrans was defeated by superior strategy, rather than by mere fighting, and says it is evident that the Federal troops contested the field obstinately, rallied when broken, and formed again and renewed the engagement repeatedly. They seemed to have done all that bravery and determination could effect, but the greater skill of the Confederate generals in commanding the forces which made the attack, insured them victory.

The Herald looks on it as the most decisive battle fought in the Western States.

The Morning Post points to the continuance of one peculiarity of this war, that neither belligerent should be permitted for any protracted period to follow the path of victory.

The Army and Navy Gazette attempts to show a dangerous position for Rosecrans, but suggests that the Federal prospects may be brighter than the telegraph make out.

Governor Brown, of Georgia, has issued a proclamation protesting against the seizure of personal and private property for the use of the Confederate Government except in cases where the authority plainly emanates from headquarters. He calls on the State to resist the impressment of property where such authority cannot be produced.

It is reported in some of the papers that "General Gillmore has thrown a Greek fire shell into Charleston. It set a conflagration at work which continued for two hours."

There was patented at the U. S. Patent Office this week a valuable invention in the shape of a Horse Collar. This simple invention is calculated to work a material change in the way of harness.

Gen. Meredith has succeeded, it is said, in effecting the release of all the Chaplains of the Union army now held prisoners of war by the Confederates. In return, the Federal Government has released all Confederate Chaplains. About twenty-five were sent to City Point a few days ago. This policy, it is understood, will be carried out in the future, and Chaplains will not be held as prisoners of war.

CHANCERY SALE OF VERY VALUABLE ESTATE.—By virtue of a decree in Chancery, in cause No. 1,627, Middleton and wife vs. Berry, the undersigned Trustees, on TUESDAY, the 20th day of October, 1863, at 12 o'clock M., will sell at public auction, at the Auction Ware rooms of J. C. McGuire & Co., corner of Tenth and D streets, in the city of Washington, the large and valuable tract of land called "Bellevue," belonging to the estate of the late Washington Berry. The land lies on the Potomac, and in the District of Columbia, opposite Alexandria, and about five miles from Washington, on the Piscataway road, adjoins Lower Giesboro', and consists of a fine variety of meadow, wood, garden, and farming lands, a part of which is in a high state of cultivation.

The Trustees have had the land subdivided into six convenient lots for farming and gardening purposes, as follows:

Lot A, 70 acres, 1 rood, 27 perches; Lot B, 77 acres, 6 perches; and Lot C, 75 acres, 1 rood, 20 perches, are on the east side of the Marlboro' road, and extend back to Oxen Branch.

Lot E, 67 acres, 3 roods, 9 perches, is on the south side of said road, opposite Lot C, and adjoining the farm of Fenwick Young, esq.

Lot G, 72 acres, 2 roods, 4 perches, adjoins Lot C and Mr. Young's lands, and extends to the Potomac river, is in a high state of cultivation, and contains a good dwelling and out-houses.

Lot F, 81 acres, 28 perches, adjoins Lot G, and lies between Fort Greble and the river.

Lots E, F, and G, on the river side, are particularly valuable, and Lots F and G, on the river have good fisheries for shad and herring.

This sale presents the most favorable opportunity offered in many years to persons desiring country places or market gardens, especially as the terms are unusually liberal, viz: One-fifth in cash, and the residue in five equal instalments, at one, two, three, four, and five years respectively from the day of sale, with semi-annual interest, for which the purchase will give their notes, with good and sufficient endorsers, to be approved by the Trustees. Conveyances at purchasers' cost.

An elaborate plat of the estate, with its subdivisions, can be seen at J. C. McGuire & Co.'s ware-rooms.
