

FROM RICHMOND.

The following extracts from the Richmond Whig are given in the Northern papers:

"We learn that Gen. Robert E. Lee arrived in the city last night.

Gens. Rosser and Fitzhugh Lee refused to abide by the terms of surrender, it is said, and made their escape unattended, to "parts unknown."

The number of men surrendered by General Lee is stated at 25,000, of whom only 8,000 had muskets.

Gen. Thomas' cavalry has occupied Lynchburg. On Wednesday, the tobacco, public stores and a number of buildings, were destroyed by order of the military authorities.

The Hotels to be reopened immediately are the Ballard, and perhaps the Exchange, the Powhatan, and St. Charles. Their accommodations will all be needed.

The civil Courts have suspended their functions, but we understand the clerks of the several courts have permission to continue their duties, issue marriage licenses, &c.

By order of the military authorities, upwards of a thousand colored laborers are employed in the thorough cleansing of the streets and wharves, and already the work has made great progress.

It is supposed that Gen. Ord will assume command in Richmond.

There are hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of goods stored away in the houses of various persons, which is the rightful property of many worthy sufferers by the late fire."

WANT IN RICHMOND.—The schooner Little John, yesterday cleared from the Norfolk Custom House for Richmond, with articles of food for the inhabitants. This is the third vessel that has cleared from this place for Richmond. It is represented that a great amount of suffering exists among the people, and Gen. Shepley now has an agent here imploring the hastening forward of food for the soldiers and people, the city and country and surroundings being almost destitute of the staple articles of consumption.—Norfolk Old Dominion.

La Minerve of Montreal, says that the Southern families in that city are preparing to take their departure, some for Mexico, and some for the United States.
