

Shad were offered for sale in market this morning at from $2 50 to $3 per pair. Herring at from 60 to 80 cts. per dozen. These prices are far in advance of the prices asked in any other market. Indeed the prices of fresh fish here are exorbitant. There is a universal complaint at these prices.

CIRCUS.—This place of amusement is crowded nightly with large and fashionable audiences. The matinees every afternoon afford a splendid opportunity to those persons who cannot go out after nightfall, who delight to witness classic scenes, performing horses &c.

Advices from Vicksburg dated on the 10th inst., say that everybody among the troops is at the qui vive, preparing for another expedition.
