

MR. STANTON'S DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, June 1—7.30 A. M.—Major General Dix, New York: We have no intelligence this morning from General Grant later than yesterday at 6 o'clock A. M.

An unofficial dispatch received here at four o'clock this morning, dated yesterday, May 31, at Kingston, Georgia, reports that Major Hopkins, of General Stoneman's staff, who came from the front this afternoon, says: "The rebels attacked at half past seven o'clock this morning, and at ten o'clock the affair was over, the enemy repulsed, and our left reaching the railroad near Marietta." To accomplish this object had been for several days the purpose of General Sherman's movements. Additional forces are reaching him, and ample supplies.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

KIDNAPPING—Many of the people of Washington city seem to think that the lower counties of Maryland are now legitimate fields for plunder, and almost every week we hear of robberies and kidnapping in the open day. A regular trade has been carried on in the business of stealing negroes with a view to speculate with lounty-men. Lately several parties have been caught and roughly handled. One day last week officer F. A. Kerby of Piscataway, apprehended a white man name Moody, who had in his wagon a man, woman and four children, said to belong to Walter Mitchell, of Charles County. Mr. Kirby brought the party to jail; and a few days after he arrested a man named Wm. Jones, and a free negro man, supposed to be the accomplices of Moody, together with a negro man and woman said to belong to J. H. Hawkins, of Charles County. They are all in jail to await the action of the law.—[Mailbox' Maryland, Gazette.

At a recent sale at auction in New York, of rare books, autographs, &c., a letter of Gen. Washington, in answer to the notification that the Freedom of the City had been presented to him by the Common Council of New York, in 1785, sold for the astonishing sum of two thousand two hundred and fifty dollars.

The Confederate Congress has recently discussed a motion to adjourn on the 1st of this month, which motion was strenuously resisted, especially by the Virginia members. Some sharp hits were given in reference to a desire on the part of some to get off from Richmond.
