

MR. STANTON'S DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, June 5—1 P. M.—To Major General Dix: A dispatch from General Grant's headquarters, dated half past eight o'clock last night, has been received.

It states that "about seven P. M. yesterday, (Friday, 3d June,) the enemy suddenly attacked Smith's brigade, of Gibbons' division. The battle lasted with great fury for half an hour. The attack was unwaveringly repulsed. Smith's losses were inconsiderable.

"At six P. M. Wilson, with his cavalry, fell upon the rear of a brigade of Heth's division, which Lee had thrown around to his left, apparently with the intention of enveloping Burnside. After a sharp but short conflict Wilson drove them from their rifle pits in confusion. He took a few prisoners. He had previously fought with and routed Gordon's brigade of rebel cavalry.

"During these fights he lost several officers, among them Col. Preston, of the 1st cavalry, killed; Col. Benjamin, 8th New York cavalry, seriously wounded; General Stannard, of the 18th corps, was seriously wounded, yesterday, (Friday).

"Our entire loss, in killed, wounded, and missing, during the three days' operations around Cold Harbor, will not exceed, according to the adjutant general's report, seven thousand five hundred.

"This morning, (Saturday, June 4) the enemy's left wing, in front of Burnside, was found to have been drawn in during the night.

"Col. Cessnola, in command of five thousand men, arrived here yesterday, having marched from Port Royal.

"Telegraphic communication between Cherry Stone and Fortress Monroe continues interrupted."

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman, dated yesterday, June 4 8. A. M., thirteen miles west of Marietta, reports that his left is now well around, covering all roads from the south to the railroad about Ackworth. His cavalry has been in, and occupies in force all the Altoona Pass.

No other military intelligence has been received by the department.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.
