EUROPEAN NEWS.

PORT AU BASQUE, N. F., July 8.—By the steamer Nova Scotian, from Liverpool on the 27th ult., we have the following:

The final meeting of the Conference on the Danes-German war took place on the 25th, and was purely formal, and the war has recommenced.

It is understood that at the last meeting the representatives of the German powers read a declaration in which, they threw upon Denmark the whole responsibility, which Denmark entirely repudiates.

Prussia has sent orders to Marshal Von Wrangel to commence hostilities, and a seedy attack on the island of Alsen is expected.

The London Times believes that as the Conference ended with the rejection by both belligerents of the proposals made by the neutrals, and as Denmark deliberately expresses her desire that the war should proceed, the British Government thinks itself not bound to interfere so long as the war remains within the limits which must have been contemplated by the Danes when they made their choice.

The Conservatives are preparing for a determined onslaught upon the Government.

Captain Winslow, of the Kearsage, has addressed a letter to the Daily News, in which he states that he did not send any challenge, but that Semmes sent a request to Winslow not to leave, as he would fight the Kearsage, and would only occupy a day or two preparation. He says the Alabama, towards the last, hoisted sail to get away, when the Kearsage laid across her bows, and would have raked her had she not surrendered, which she then did by trying to get her flags down, and showing a white flag over her stern.

The Kearsage received twenty-eight shots above and below, but is reported to be only slightly damaged.

The Paris Temps gives a report that two Confederate cruisers were off Cherbourg, watching for the Kearsage.

In the House of Commons on the 29th Mr. Kinglake proposed an amendment to the conservative vote of censure, to "express dissatisfaction, that Her Majesty at this conjuncture has been advised to abstain from armed interference in the war going on between Denmark and the German Powers."

The Times approves of Mr. Kinglake's amendment, and says he puts the question to the House, as to the right of the Government deciding against war, yes or no, and the opposition are bound to answer the question. They cannot have all the credit for defending the honor of the country without taking the actual responsibility on themselves.

The Times says it is obvious that General Grant only resorts to his present manoeuvres because his original plan has been entirely defeated. He has expended 100,000 men with absolutely no result, and begins to all intents and purposes a fresh campaign, with the disadvantage of his army decimated by enormous losses, and dispirited by obvious failures, and still it must be allowed, adds the Times, that Grant and his soldiers maintained the character they have already established for indomitable perseverance.

NOTHING is more wholesome at this time of year, than a gentle purgative. It will purify the blood and digestive organs, and enable the system the better to endure the warm season to come. For this purpose we would advise every one in quest of sound health, to try a box of Prof. Wundram's Vegetable Pills or Powders, which have proved so salutary the past two seasons, to all who tried them.
