NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

The steamer Magenta, in St. Louis, has been seized by the order of General Pope, and the captain, first clerk, and mate were arrested, and will be tried by a military commission, for the ill treatment of Union troops.

William J. Walker has received the appointment of Revenue Agent for the Pacific coast.

The new national banks have now nearly all been supplied with circulation to the amount to which they are entitled, and circulation will not be issued to converted banks faster than their State circulation is retired; so that it may now be said that the bank note circulation of the country has reached its maximum.

The hospital steamer Connecticut, Captain Stranahan, arrived in Washington a day or two ago with 275 sick soldiers from the hospitals at City Point, being all that were left in hospital there. The hospitals have consequently been vacated, and all the surgeons came up on the Connecticut.

The Comptroller of the Currency has decided not to issue a certificate of authority to commence business to any national bank converted from a State bank, while the circulation of the State bank exceeds the amount allowed for a national bank of the same capital, deeming the State bank circulation to be, after conversion, the circulation of the national bank, since the latter is, in all respects, responsible for it, and bound to redeem it.

The paper mill owned by the Neuse manufacturing company, a few miles from Raleigh, N. C., was totally destroyed by fire on the approach of the U. S. armies.

The Richmond Times says:—"On every side we see the most cheering indications of the revival of business and prosperity in Richmond. Every steamer that comes here is absolutely crowded with passengers, nearly all of whom come here prospecting with a view of establishing themselves in business."

A gentleman who returned last week from a visit to Southwestern Virginia, having left Lynchburg Monday morning, represents the planters as having generally avowed their determination not to hire their former slaves, but to import white labor.

Kelley, Tackett & Co., are soon to return to Fredericksburg with the machinery which they took from their woolen factory to Manchester, Virginia, three years ago; also to run Knox's flouring mill, which they now own, and also to establish a dry goods store.

J. Warren Slaughter, formerly of the banking house of Slaughter & Co., Fredericksburg, but for some time past of Richmond, is now soliciting subscriptions to a National Bank of Fredericksburg. He has secured subscriptions to the amount of $40,000.
