

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

A New York writer says the chief pleasure derived by the Bostonians at a musical entertainment is criticism, and he ventures the statement that "when they go to heaven they will declare that some of the harps are out of tune."

A Paris letter in the Nord says: "The Emperor Napoleon astonishes everybody by his unalterable health. Bodily weariness, enormous heat, fatigue from work—nothing overcomes him. He is always bright and well, the first to be ready, while some of his suite appear singularly fatigued."

The trouble between Garibaldi and his young wife is explained. She is an illegitimate daughter of the Marquis Ramondi. Professing much attachment for the warm hearted old man, she inveigled him, with her father's good help, into an engagement to wedlock.—The ceremony had not been performed, when he discovered that she would soon present him an irregular heir. He chivalrously kept his promise, however, married her, turned his back upon her at the church door, and has refused to hold any communication whatever with her since.

The Wheat Crop is being harvested throughout the State of Virginia. In some sections the yield has been good, in others the original amount of seed will hardly be secured. The corn crop is looking well, generally, all over the State.

Late advices from Northern Mexico are to the effect that the town of Camargo has been taken by the Imperialists after a brief resistance. Prominent Southern men are said to be seeking to establish their future home in Mexico, and declare that they will give support to the Empire.

Mr. Gayle, a lawyer, of Alabama, charged with inserting an advertisement in an Alabama paper, offering a reward for the assassination of Messrs. Lincoln, Seward and Johnson, has been brought on to Washington, and put in the Old Capitol prison.

The Secretary of War has directed that the execution of Mrs. Perine's sentence to three months imprisonment, shall be suspended during her good behavior.
