"Warm milk from the cow and G. O. Taylor Whiskey saved my life more than 20 years ago. This was the statement made in our office within a few months by a resident of that part of Boston called the Brighton district. Inquiring into the reason for the statement, we learned that the person who gave the information was 70 years of age, and that at 50 he was said to have that dread disease, consumption. Warm milk and G. O. Taylor Whiskey were recommended, and knowing his cow, and believing that the information that G. O. Taylor Whiskey was pure, he found within a very brief period of time that what seemed a simple remedy was really a sovereign cure. A few months' use of what cannot be set down as a medicine effected a radical cure.

WATCHMAN OATES.
ASSAULTED BY AN UNKNOWN YOUNG MAN.
 Special Watchman Oates, on duty looking after certain main street stores nightly, was assaulted last night by a young man who made his escape.
 The assault occurred in this way: Watchman Oates was standing in front of the Western Union office talking to the messenger boys about the noise they kept up around the office. A young man about 19 or 20 years of age was standing near and objected to some of the statements made by the watchman and words passed between them. It is said that Watchman Oates started to take the young man in charge, when the latter, with a lightning stroke, hit the watchman squarely in the mouth, sending him reeling backwards into the street. Both the gun and the bully of the watchman fell out of his pocket when he keeled over from the effect of the blow.
 The watchman jumped up and gave the alarm, leading a crowd of citizens about twenty down the street after the flying victim, but he turned into the alley and made good his escape. Mr. Leon Wood, the Associated Press operator, got near enough to him to catch hold of him just before he turned into the alley, but did not stop him.

TWO NEGROES KILLED.
FATAL INJURIES INFLECTED BY NORFOLK AND WESTERN TRAIN.
 Robert Ross, a colored man, while walking along by the wooden warehouse at the Norfolk and Western station, about 3 p. m. yesterday, was caught by a train of freight cars, between the platform of the warehouse and the cars, and badly crushed before his plight was discovered. A casual examination revealed the fact that three ribs were broken. He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital in the ambulance, but the internal injuries which he sustained proved fatal. He died early last evening. The coroner will make an examination to-day and will summon a jury of inquest.
ANOTHER DIED.
 Milan Jones, an 8-year-old colored boy was run over by a Lambert's Point train at the crossing on Princess Anne avenue Sunday afternoon. His right leg was crushed to the knee and his left foot was mangled. He was carried to St. Vincent's Hospital.
 The boy was too weak to undergo an amputation of the crushed limb, and he lingered throughout Sunday afternoon and night, and yesterday. Last night, about 11 o'clock, he died. A coroner's inquest will be held to-day.

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED.
 "VIRGINIA;" AND "SEA TO SEA."
 The Nisbaum Book and News Company, No. 274 Main street, Norfolk, THE VIRGINIAN-PILOT renders its acknowledgments for the courtesy of the two works bearing the above titles.
 "Virginia," Prehistoric and Ante-Historic, is a series of sketches, redolent of "the sacred soil," from the graphic and acute pen of Mrs. W. C. Day, of Danville, Va., that abound with much interesting and amusing local characteristics, character and characters, of which "Uncle Yorke" is the chief example, reminiscent and narrator.
 "Uncle Yorke" deals in fiction, as well as reminiscence, and in his real or imaginary stories of others, he reveals himself as a very striking personage of his race, time and condition, while his free and rambling tongue discloses many a trait of life and idiosyncrasy of circumstance and disposition. All who like the sly and dry in humor, compounded with a peculiar egotism as unbouded as its pretensions of "knowing it all" about everybody and everything, will appreciate "Uncle Yorke," not only in himself, but in his inexhaustible store of information, which runs no account with fact.
 With "Virginia" is bound another sketch, entitled "Mother Carey's Chickens; or Missy and Spiey Ann," which tells us something of the spoilt white child and her sharp and saucy colored companion, or maid, as they existed in the county during slave-times. It, like "Uncle Yorke," in "Virginia," is very amusing, while both are valuable contributions to the permanent knowledge of a state of society now gone forever. Published by Dance Brothers Co., Danville, Va., and bound in gold and red cloth.
 "Sea to Sea," by Rudyard Kipling, is a revised edition, in two volumes, of the author's letters of travel, &c., contained in various newspapers. Chiefly consisting of letters from and about British India at large, and chiefly interesting and valuable for that reason, it is a real globe-trotter's book, telling something of many lands and peoples, from the Kipling taking style. Indians, Chinese, Burmese, Japanese, Americans, &c., &c., can here see themselves as Rudyard Kipling saw them; and it is well worth while to learn what such a man thinks of us and others.
 Mr. Kipling makes everything he touches interesting—adding to truth all the fascination of his skill in story-telling, without detracting in any degree from the solid worth of the facts he deals in. Mr. Kipling having written most of these letters when he was a Tree loafer, with as free a charter as the wind, to go where he listed and to say upon whom and what he pleased, he carries us to many strange places and recites some very queer things. Published by the Doubleday & McClure Co., New York, in green and gold cloth.
 The reader of "Sea to Sea" will enjoy Mr. Kipling in his role of correspondent, not only as a new experience, but because the correspondence gains from the author's skill as a novelist.

Sunday at Ocean View.
 Sunday at Ocean View was marked by the presence of an enormous crowd of people, both at the Ocean View Hotel and pavilion, who enjoyed the bathing, fishing, music and other attractions of this pleasant resort.
 The facilities of the Norfolk and Ocean View railway were taxed to transport passengers back and forth on Sunday, but all went well, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the day.
 The Washington High School Cadets have selected Ocean View as their camping place. As was previously stated, the cadets will arrive here on July 2d, and will go in camp on the beach at Ocean View, near the hotel.

GREAT BODY OF WOMEN.
OPENING OF INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL IN LONDON.
 (By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)
 London, June 26.—The International Council of Women opened to-day. The Countess of Aberdeen, president of the council, in her address, after cordial words of welcome, sketched the duties of the council. She said international arbitration should ever be placed foremost in its program, and the establishment of an international bureau of information regarding all that affects women, and warned women against arrogating to themselves alone the duties of curing all evils, saying:
 "It may be well to have unions of mothers, but do the fathers counsel so little in the home that their counsel is not needed? The redemption of man can only be compassed by man and woman joining hands and making common cause in every department of life."
 In conclusion the Countess of Aberdeen deprecated the idea usually formed about women's congresses, that they were bent upon devising plans whereby women might be emancipated from home duties, saying:
 "This congress holds fast to the belief that woman's first mission must be her home."

Echoes From the Turf.
 New York, June 26.—There was little interest in the racing to-day at Sheepshead Bay. The card was badly scratched to begin with. In the spring stakes, Mischievous was the favorite of a poor lot and won easily enough at the end. In the Spindrift handicap, Ethelbert was a prohibitive favorite. After racing along behind Glengar to the last quarter he came away and won just as he pleased, Kinley Mack beating Glengar for the place just as easily.
 In the opening race Admiralty was at the good odds of 3 to 5, and won in a romp, breaking the track record by way of variety. Summary:
 First—Five and a half furlongs: Admiralty, 3 to 5, won; Isidor, 13 to 5 and 1 to 2, second; Philon d'Or, 7 to 1, third. Time—1:07 1/5.
 Second—One mile: Maxine, 3 to 1, won; Charentus, 7 to 1 and 5 to 2, second; Clonilla, 8 to 1, third. Time—1:40 3/5.
 Third—Spring stakes, Futurity course: Mischievous, 6 to 5, won; Piney, 4 to 1 and 6 to 5, second; Brusquerie, 10 to 1, third. Time—1:10 2/5.
 Fourth—Spindrift, 1 1/2 miles: Ethelbert, 1 to 4, won; Kinley Mack, 5 to 1 and 3 to 5, second; Glengar, 10 to 1, third. Time—1:55 3/5.
 Fifth—Five furlongs: Prejudice, 5 to 1, won; Shrove Tuesday, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Orend, 60 to 1, third. Time—1:02 1/5.
 Sixth—One and one-quarter miles: Decanter, 6 to 1, won; Fast Back, 15 to 1 and 4 to 1, second; Twinkler, 15 to 1, third. Time—2:67.

PE-RU-NA'S VICTORY.
 DEAR SIR:—I feel like a new woman since using your Pe-ru-na.
 Your medicine has helped me so much that I can work and never feel tired out. When I first began to use your medicine I couldn't sweep my own room, run the sewing machine or lift anything, not even a chair. It even hurt me to ride or walk any distance. Now I can do all this, and I believe more, and never feel the effects of it. I feel so proud of the way it has brought me out that I tell it far and near. I can heartily recommend your medicine to any woman suffering from female disease. I know from experience that your medicine will do just what you say it will. I thank you, Doctor, a thousand times for your treatment. I shall recommend your medicine wherever I go. I know what it has done for me and I know it will do the same for others. I feel that there are thousands of other women who would, after using your treatment, as I did, be thankful. I am so glad I got your treatment. This month is the first time in my life that I can remember of having my menses without pain. Why, I can't do anything but recommend Pe-ru-na.—Miss Emma L. Bolden, Wilberforce, O.
