KENTUCKY CONVENTION.

Heard the matter seriously. One of them, Captain Maher, pulled his revolver. His intention probably was to protect Chairman Redwine, who had made his way to the rear of the stage.

A PATRIOTIC SONG. One delegate shouted: "Mr. Chairman, I move the convention adjourn to meet some future date in Manchester, Clay county, Ky."

WHISTLING SUCCEEDS SINGING. In order to rest their vocal organs the delegates started a round of whistling with "A Hot Time" as the theme.

ANOTHER SONG. "Until we get a vote," came the response like a Kansas cyclone, and the crowd struck up, "We Won't Go Home Till Morning."

THE BALLOT. Goebel, 352 1/2; Stone, 261 1/2; Hardin, 67. The chair ordered another ballot, whereupon Ollie James, a big lunged Stone leader, cried:

LIGHTENS LABOR.

Cobwebs about a house are usually the sign that the housewife has more than she can do, that the way she goes about it; that all her time and strength are utilized in doing heavy work; that she soaps in her cleaning. If she would only use

GOLD DUST Washing Powder. heavy work would be so lightened that the little things needn't be neglected. Gold Dust gives a woman time to rest, time to visit, time to read, and time to sew. It is much better and cheaper than soap for all cleaning. For greatest economy buy our large package.

THE TRANSVAAL. ENGLAND'S SECRETARY OF COLONIES TALKS WAR. (By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Birmingham, Eng., June 26.—Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, addressed the Unionists of this city this evening, reviewing carefully the Transvaal question. In the course of his speech he said that, owing to the enormous military preparations of the government of the South African Republic, Great Britain had been compelled to increase the garrison in Cape Colony and Natal, entailing an additional expenditure of (pounds) 50,000 annually.

After denouncing in the strongest terms the attitude and actions of the Boers, Mr. Chamberlain, with great deliberation and emphasis, added: "The Transvaal's enormous secret service fund has procured it friends and advocates in every country. The way the British subjects are treated is not only a menace to them, but interference with our prestige among the natives, who now regard the Boers and not the British as the paramount power."
