RURAL RETREAT, VA

FRIDAY APRIL 14th, 1893

LOCAL ITEMS.

Well, did you ever!
Spring has come, gentle Annie
Jno. Effert has moved into one of Prof. Brown's houses on Buck St.
We have set up every type we can and must leave out some things.
Many a poor fool has "gone to law" and come back a wiser and a poorer man.
The only difference between some people and a dog, they wag one end and he wags the other.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fickle of Abingdon were visiting friends in Rural Retreat this week.

Chas Heldreth has built an L to his house, which adds greatly to the appearance and comfort of his dwelling.

Why in the name of goodness will people persist in saying, I have heard that, such grammar as the best set of false did a visit to her when her return at Jane

TEACH $3000 A YEAR

Have you written no yet? If you haven't, wisdom and intelligent ambition suggest write to-day. I promise you my special, personal attention. I undertake to briefly teach any fairly intelligent person of either sex, who can read and write, and who will work industriously, how to earn Three Thousand Dollars a year in their own localities, wherever they live. I will also furnish the situation or employment, at which you can earn that amount. I charge nothing and receive nothing unless successful, as above. Nothing difficult to learn, or that requires much time. I desire but one person from each district or county. I have already taught and provided with employment a large number who are making over Three Thousand Dollars a Year, each. All is new, solid, sure. Full particulars free. Ask you know all, if you conclude to go no further, why, no harm is done. Address, E. C. ALLEN, P. O. 479, Augusta, Maine.
