FLOWERS FOR THE DEAD

BEAUTIFUL MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES IN RALEIGH.

Judge A. C. Avery Delivered the Annual Address—The Physicians and the Odd-Fellows.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 10.—Special.—Memorial day was elaborately celebrated here this afternoon by a large civic and military outpouring, and the graves of Confederate soldiers in both Oakwood and City cemeteries were profusely decorated with flowers.

The day was beautiful, and there was an unusually large attendance of ladies.

The annual address was delivered by Hon. A. C. Avery, of the Supreme Court bench, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The subject was "The Life and Character of General D. H. Hill," and the address was exhaustive and able.

John Allen Johnston has been arraigned on additional charges of manufacturing and passing counterfeit money, besides the charge of shooting Marshal John R. Upchurch, and an additional bond was placed on him. He is still in custody in the jail.

The largest crowd of the week was in the city to-day, in attendance upon the various meetings now in session. The State Medical Society, the State Board of Health, and the Medical Examining Board and the Grand Lodge of Odd-Fellows were all in session to-day.

The result of the examinations of applicants will be declared Friday. Dr. J. Allison Hodges delivered the annual oration before the State Medical Society to-night, which was a fine effort.

All of these organizations attended memorial exercises this afternoon in a body.

Memorial Day at Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 10.—The services usually attendant on Confederate Memorial day were appropriately observed here to-day. Business was entirely suspended during the afternoon. A military and civic procession formed at Oakdale cemetery and proceeded to the Confederate monument, where an address was delivered by Captain R. R. Davis in the presence of a large concourse of people, about two thousand being ladies.

The floral decorations on the Confederate graves were elaborate and beautiful. The exercises closed with a salute by the Wilmington Light Infantry.

Greensboro Confederate Dead.

GREENSBORO, N. C., May 10.—Special. To-day being Memorial day, is being observed as a holiday by the city banks and schools.

The graves of the Confederate dead in the cemeteries here were decorated with beautiful flowers by the ladies of the Memorial Association.

The many friends of Mr. J. R. Murphy, the veteran engineer of the Richmond and Danville railroad, will be glad to learn that he is rapidly recovering from a severe spell of illness, and will soon be on his run again.

The "Home Minstrels" will be at Hagan's auditorium next Friday night. Some of our best local talent will take part, and will, no doubt, give a first-class entertainment.

AN ENGLISHMAN'S DOWNFALL.

Edward Aston, Who Suicided, Was a Defaulter—Vanderbilt's Kindness.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., May 10.—Special.—It has just transpired that Edward Aston, a young Englishman, who until recently had charge of the pay-roll on the Vanderbilt estate, and who committed suicide by drowning in the Mississippi, just below New Orleans, a few days ago, was a defaulter to the extent of between two and three thousand dollars, and that the discoveries made in his office after a careful examination was the cause of his sudden disappearance from here about two months ago. The man wrote his family of his intended suicide shortly before it occurred, and they immediately left for England, Mr. Vanderbilt, it is said, defraying the expenses of the trip. The family consisted of an aged mother and a young wife, both of whom were heartbroken by his conduct. Wine and women seem to be responsible for the young man's downfall, and to add to the pathos of the case, it is said, his father before him was a defaulter in England.

Asheville's water troubles continue and multiply. For the last week it has been impossible for householders to get water of any kind during the day except at meal times, and the supply was absolutely unfit for even bathing purposes. The matter has grown so serious that a special meeting of the board of aldermen was called yesterday to consider it. They ordered the pumps, which seem to be working satisfactorily, connected with the old line of pipes. This will probably give temporary relief. Superintendent Ingle thinks there is an exhausting leak somewhere, and, in the meantime, the tax-payers continue to grumble against paying for an article all the time which they only get some of the time—at rare intervals at that.

George W. Vanderbilt and quite a party of friends from New York have just arrived and are sojourning at Mr. Vanderbilt's temporary home, near the place which he is erecting.

The weather is cold, rainy and altogether as disagreeable as it well can be at this season of the year. Reports from the country seem to indicate that the fruit crop has been largely injured by the cold.

KING'S DAUGHTERS TO MEET.

Will Begin Their Session in Oxford To-Day—Other Matters.

OXFORD, N. C., May 10.—Special.—To-morrow the King's Daughters hold their convention in the new Presbyterian church at this place. Already the delegates are arriving. Among the prominent ones who have arrived are Miss Carter and Mrs. Bell, both of whom are earnest, active and influential "daughters." Oxford, with characteristic hospitality, throws open her doors to this useful body of Christian workers.

During this week we have had several gentlemen of the Richmond Tobacco Market in our town. Among the members were Messrs. M. T. Smith and Silas Shelburne, both of whom are prominent factors on the Richmond market.

The Rev. R. H. Marsh, D. D., and Rev. J. S. Hardaway and C. A. Jenkins, and others, left here yesterday to attend the Baptist Convention at Nashville, Tenn.

The new rector of the Episcopal church, the Rev. Mr. Benedict, commenced his labors on Sunday last. He is full of zeal and energy, and has the indorsement of Bishop Lyman as a good man and able minister.

A new Episcopal church is now being agitated, with every probability that work will be commenced on it very soon, as a goodly sum has been subscribed in this direction.

NORTH STATE NEWS.

Crisp Tar Heel Happenings from Cherokee to Currituck.

Seven young men graduated last week from the medical department of Davidson College.

The First and Second regiments of the State Guard will encamp this year at Morehead City.

George Vanderbilt and a party of eight, several of whom are ladies, are now at Biltmore, Mr. Vanderbilt's castle, near Asheville.

During Trinity College commencement four professors will be elected to fill vacancies caused by that number of resignations.

John P. Little, of Anson county, was killed recently during a wind storm. The building in which he had taken refuge was blown down.

Mrs. Whittington, of Forest Hill, Concord, took an overdose of laudanum Friday night. She said she was tired of living, and wanted to put an end to her life. A physician and friends worked with and saved her.

Governor Carr has been officially invited to attend the commencement exercises at Trinity College, June 8th, and has consented to do so, if his official duties permit.

S. Kirkpatrick, Culbertson and Summers, of Greensboro, were shot by moonshiners last Friday, not far from Hickory. Kirkpatrick and Culbertson, it is said, were both shot in the leg, while Summers was shot in the face, and fears are entertained for his recovery.

News of a very singular case comes from Wilkes. Mrs. Lottie Shumate, of Mulberry, is peculiarly afflicted. She has spells of bleeding. The blood oozes out through the pores of her skin and stains her clothes all over her body. Her tongue, which has been swollen for some time, has begun to bleed. She is gradually bleeding to death, and cannot last very long.

The executive committee of the trustees of the University met in Raleigh on Monday, and transacted much important business. A two-years' leave of absence was granted Professor E. Alexander, and permission was given him to sail for Greece May 16th, to enter upon his duties as minister to that country. President Winston was authorized to make proper inquiries to secure a professor of Greek to supply Minister Alexander's place during his absence.

The Star, of Columbus, says there is more money in potatoes than in cotton. It reports that Mr. Powell, of Grists, planted two and a-half acres last year. He fed thirty hogs for six months on potatoes, besides one hundred bushels of cuttings and scraps; has supplied his table since August, and will have potatoes until the 1st of June. Besides all this, he has shipped sixty bushels, which netted him an average of seventy cents per bushel. The last he shipped a week or so ago netted him over one dollar.

THE COTTON CROP.

Operations in the States as Reported to the Agricultural Department.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.—The cotton report of the Department of Agriculture for May relates to the progress of cotton planting and the contemplated acreage. The proportion of the proposed breadth already planted on the 1st of May was 85.3 per cent., which approaches very closely the area usually planted at that date, which is estimated at 86 per cent. The returned estimates for several States are as follows: Virginia, 11; North Carolina, 85; South Carolina, 90; Georgia, 92; Florida, 92; Alabama, 93; Mississippi, 85; Louisiana, 87; Texas, 81; Arkansas, 71; Tennessee, 76. These figures indicate that the planting is well up to the average as to time. The only States that are behind in planting are Virginia, where the delay was caused by the cold, backward spring; Texas, which was caused by an extensive drought and the backward spring, and Arkansas and Tennessee, where the extensive rainfall and cold weather retarded operations. In some districts the correspondents report a drought, while in others the returns show the retarding causes to be frost and excessive rains. Germination has been slow and the growth of the plant backward. Some indications have been given as to the contemplated acreage as compared with that of last year, which was considerably below the average for a series of years, but they are of uncertain character, and, therefore, it is impossible to base any satisfactory predictions thereon, and the figures relating thereto are only given to indicate what the correspondents believed to be the intention as to acreage. The reported increase averages are 18 per cent. The percentages by States are as follows: Virginia, 23; North Carolina, 116; South Carolina, 106; Georgia, 103; Florida, 116; Alabama, 102; Mississippi, 98; Louisiana, 98; Texas, 100; Arkansas, 98; Tennessee, 100. There will be less replanting than usual, owing to the great scarcity of seed. The estimate of the acreage will be made on the 1st of June, as usual.
