

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS OF MONEY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The movements in the stock exchange were more than ordinary erratic today. The dealers were largely professional, but it was quite evident that a more active movement in speculating in the bears started at the close of the day. The bears started at the close of the day with an attack on some of the leaders, as the money market was short-lived, the sugar was taken in hand by the bulls.

THE REVERIES OF A BACHELOR; OR, A WORK OF THE HEART. By I. MARVEL. No. 2. LAYS OF ANCIENT ROME (Illustrated). By LORD MACAULAY.

THE HOUSE OF THE SEVEN GABLES. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE. THE COMING RACE. By LORD LYTTON. DREAM LIFE. By I. MARVEL.

LAYS OF ANCIENT ROME. By LORD MACAULAY. Beautifully Illustrated. Macaulay's "Lays" are imitations with the very soul of poetry, and are full of heroic action and energy.

THE HOUSE OF THE SEVEN GABLES. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE. This masterpiece of Hawthorne's is full of the imaginative charm of romance. In felicity of touch, its artistry is unapproached by any writer since his own day.

THE COMING RACE. By LORD LYTTON. "The Coming Race," by Lord Lytton, is a clever and ingenious excursion into the realm of science, as the inventive mind of man may find it in the coming time.

DREAM LIFE. By I. MARVEL. There is a profound mental study in this world-wide American classic. It contains a series of very vivid and picturesque studies of individual character and feeling.

FRANKENSTEIN; OR, THE MODERN PROMETHEUS. By MRS. SHELLEY. Like Mary Shelley's "Night Side of Nature," Mrs. Shelley's "Frankenstein" is a book every one should read. Its author has great imaginative powers and a clear and original genius.

A BOOK OF GOLDEN DEEDS. By C. M. YONGE. This is just the book to put into the hands of youth, circulating a healthy morality, and true manly and womanly sentiment, and books are better formed than this to develop and mould the tastes of the rising generation and encourage optimistic and patriotic ideas.

MOSSES FROM AN OLD MANSE. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE. Another delightful companion for idle hours is this collection of magazine papers which Hawthorne entitled "Mosses from an Old Manse." Like all his papers, it is distinguished for its simplicity and truth. Its high literary excellence commends it anew to public favor.

THE SCARLET LEAF. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE. A romance of intense interest, exhibiting extraordinary power of mental analysis and graphic description. For an artistic exposition of Puritanism, as modified by New England colonial life, we have nothing like it in our literature. Like the best of Scott's novels, it is true at once to the local manners and scene features of the age and place.
