The monument which has been erected to the memory of the late Dr. Phil. S. Hancock at Midlothian, in Chesterfield county, will be unveiled to-morrow at 1 o'clock. The people of Midlothian are making great preparations for this event with a view to its success. They have chosen Mr. Samuel M. Page chairman of the occasion, and have engaged a large and well-trained choir who will render some beautiful selections. The following programme has been arranged for the occasion:

1. Anthem—By the choir.
2. Doxology.
3. Prayer—By Rev. R. H. Winfree.
4. Singing—By the choir.
5. Remarks—By the chairman.
6. Address—By Dr. W. E. Hatcher.
7. Solo—By Mr. Haddon Watkins.
8. Address—By Judge W. L. Clopton.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad Company will run a special train, which will leave here at 12:40 P. M., and returning, will leave Midlothian that evening at 5 o'clock. A large number of persons from this city will attend the unveiling.

Citizens of Manchester are very much pleased with the decision which Judge William L. Clopton rendered, relative to the Richmond and Manchester Street-Railway Company's line on Hull street and Midlothian pike, in Chesterfield. The Times published Judge Clopton's decision yesterday, which in brief is, that the transfer car will run until 8 o'clock.

The City Democratic Committee met Monday night in the Leader office, and a good deal of business was transacted by them.

Hereafter the garbage carts of this city will only receive garbage twice a week—Wednesdays and Saturdays—when all of the city carts will be used for that purpose.

The fall term of the Circuit Court of Chesterfield begins to-day. There are a number of important cases upon the docket, including several railroad suits and the suit of Henry Hobson against J. R. Johnson & Co., for $5,000 damages for injuries to the plaintiff while at work at the axle works of the defendants.

The school board of Chesterfield county will meet next Monday at Chesterfield Courthouse. A meeting of the board was called for last week, but was not held on account of the inclemency of the weather.

A marriage license was issued Monday by the clerk of the County Court of Chesterfield to Mr. John H. Bailey and Miss Virginia Woodfin. The marriage will take place in Chesterfield to-day at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Robert C. Petzold, the popular clerk to Mr. Arthur T. Snellings, has accepted a position with Mr. F. P. Cummins, a druggist of Pocahontas, Va., and will leave for that place this morning. Mr. Petzold has resided in this city for the past three years, and while here he has won the confidence and esteem of all with whom he has come in contact. He carries with him to his new home the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Mrs. M. L. Brown, of Ogden, Utah, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. D. Beattie, returned home Monday evening.

Mr. T. A. Bottoms, of Chesterfield, still continues very sick.

Mr. S. I. Vincent, of Midlothian, still continues quite sick.

Mr. George H. Jewett, of Midlothian, who has been quite sick for the past two months, is slowly improving.

APPEAL TO THE GOVERNOR

To Secure the Release of a Boy From an Oyster Dredge in Tangier Sound.

Governor McKinney has received the following letter from Mrs. Julia Reynolds, formerly Mrs. Hall, of Winston, N. C.:

"May I not ask your aid in securing the liberty of my son, who was induced to ship aboard of an oyster dredge in Norfolk harbor, with a promise that he should receive large compensation for his services, and return to Norfolk every Saturday. Not knowing that he was on board of an oyster dredge, he shipped and was taken to Tangier Island by Captain John Vick, of the schooner Fillhope, and and is there without means of escape and necessary clothes to keep him comfortable. I am told he is in the hands of a man, or set of men, who are without sympathy, and is receiving at their hands treatment unknown to human slavery.

"His name is James E. Hall and he is my only son, and only about fifteen years old. He was induced to ship on this schooner by a hired man under the most favorable promises, and, after the schooner had left shore was anchored out in the harbor for a few days, and not allowed to go ashore, and was carried to this island, and is there kept in the most inhuman services. His condition was made known by a man who made his escape from the same service on the same island.

"May I beg your aid in having him liberated, that he may return to me, his mother. Your early aid is most humbly invoked in behalf of this boy."

Mr. McLeod, the private secretary of the Governor, sent the following reply:

"This is a matter for the courts and not for the Governor to interfere with or decide. You should employ a lawyer, who can advise you how to proceed to secure the release of your son, if he is being held against his will, and is a minor.

"If your son was on one of the boats of the Virginia oyster fleet the Governor would be glad to have the matter investigated and your son released, if improperly held, but he has no right to interfere in matters of contract between merchant vessels and their owners."

Captain Gaskins' Successor.

The Board of the Chesapeake and its Tributaries met in the executive chamber yesterday, and transacted the usual amount of routine business.

The resignation of Captain Gaskins, as commander of the schooner Pocomoke, was accepted, to take effect on December 1st, and the board decided to appoint a successor on November 23d.

The Calico Ball.

The Ladies' Charity Ball Committee met yesterday, at noon, at Mrs. John A. Pleasant's, No. 11 east Franklin street. They have decided to hold their Calico Ball in the Masonic Hall on the 14th of next month. The proceeds are for the benefit of the St. Paul's Church Home for Women.

WAITING FOR HIS DEATH.

A Talk With Nicholas, the Condemned Murderer—County Court.

In the Henrico County Court yesterday the jury found Theophilus Lucas guilty of attempted assault upon Mrs. Hall. He was fined $5 and costs and given one day in jail.

John Watkins, the colored man confined in jail who has recently shown such marked signs of insanity, was examined by Magistrates Lewis, Tyler and Vincent yesterday morning. He was judged insane, and papers were forwarded to the Central Insane Asylum at Petersburg, making application for his admittance to that institution.

I interviewed Nicholas, the murderer, yesterday morning. He said that he was still hopeful, but had no statement to give to the public as yet.

I questioned him very closely as to whether there was anything that he thought might aid his case by making it public.

At first he hesitated, and seemed to be upon the verge of giving me some statement, but upon second thought he decided not to do so, as he was instructed, so he said, by his counsel to give nothing to the public.

He seems to be standing his long confinement very well, and spoke feelingly of the kindness shown him by the prison officials.

He has a hesitating, broken way of speaking, at times wandering from the subject under discussion, and stares around in a dazed, vacant sort of way. He said one reason why he would make no statement to the public was because the papers were all down upon him.

I assured him that such was not the case, and that the press, on the contrary, desired to do him all justice. With a musical laugh he turned away, saying: "For the present I say nothing except what my counsel tells me."

Judge Wellford has not yet pronounced the sentence of death upon Nicholas. He is waiting in order to give his counsel time to file bills of exception.

Rescue Lodge Good Templars.

At a meeting of Rescue Lodge, Good Templars, held at Gatewood's Hall Monday night, interesting addresses were made by Messrs. Shepherd, Williams and W. Hall Crew, of Sidney Lodge; Mr. Robinson, of Baltimore, and Mr. Damron, of Charlottesville, and recitations by Miss Mamie Martin and Miss Rosa Lawrence, a solo by Professor Redford, and "The Singing School" by the Rescue male chorus added much to the pleasure of the evening.

The newly installed officers of this lodge are as follows: Chief Templar, Marshall P. Gordon; Vice-Templar, Miss Rosa Lawrence; Past Chief Templar, J. W. Weaver; Chaplain, Theodore E. Boschen; Secretary, Asa Johnson; Assistant Secretary, Miss Carrie Newell; Financial Secretary, E. M. Redford; Treasurer, Mrs. M. A. Johnson; Marshal, G. B. Drisgill; Deputy Marshal, Miss Cornelia Bell; Guard, B. F. Eckles; Sentinel, R. C. Traylor.

Shattered the Record.

Messrs. C. W. Wallace, J. T. Temple and C. Coina, three well-known bicyclists of this city, rode from the St. Claire Hotel to Petersburg Sunday in two hours and four and one-half minutes. The distance between the two points named is twenty-four and one-half miles, and the wheelmen claim that they have broken the State record on long-distance riding. They returned to Richmond on their wheels in the afternoon.

The United States Circuit Court.

The United States Circuit Court was in session yesterday. Judge Robert W. Hughes presiding. The entire session was occupied in hearing the evidence in the case of William L. Lordley against the receivers of the Richmond and Danville railroad.

The suit is for damages received in an accident on that road.

A Boy, a Girl and a Ring.

There is a story about a ring, a girl and a boy, which has been going the rounds of the city papers.

It seems, boy borrowed ring, would not return it; girl plead with him; boy was obstinate; girl got out a warrant; trouble commenced; matter happily arranged; girl swore out warrant; 'Squire Vincent started to serve it; boy caved in; returned the ring; girl smiles again.

Position During Sleep.

Almost every one has a favorite position during sleep, and no end of theories and beliefs is indulged in on the subject of the proper position, location and general condition for that sleep "that knits up the raveled sleeve of care." Many physicians argue that one should cultivate the habit of sleeping on the right side, especially if one has indulged in a full meal late in the evening.

The food makes its exit from the stomach on the right side, and it is for this reason claimed that the position is more favorable to digestion without effort. This is important, as all of the faculties and functions should have a certain amount of rest, and in no way is this as easily attainable as during the hours of sleep.

Other authorities say that one should always lie on the back, but there are excellent reasons why this is not wise. The weight of the stomach and its contents rests upon the spine, which often affects the nerves. Some severe cases of insomnia have been cured by the habit of sleeping on the face.

This is easy to do and is the most comfortable position if one dispenses with the pillow. One young man who had exhausted all the skill of the doctors fell in the habit of lying on his face, with his right arm under his head, which was turned slightly to one side. By this change natural rest soon came to him and he entirely recovered. Whatever position one may choose to take, a little practice will make it comfortable, and the experiment is well worth trying.—New York Ledger.

Reproof Severe and Efficacious.

A clergyman was once annoyed by people talking and giggling during the service. He paused, looking at the disturbers, and said: "Some years since, as I was preaching, a young man who sat before me was constantly laughing, talking and making uncouth grimaces. I paused and administered a severe rebuke. After the close of the services a gentleman said to me: 'Sir, you have made a great mistake; that young man was an idiot.' Since then I have always been afraid to reprove those who misbehave in chapel, lest I should repeat that mistake and reprove another idiot." During the rest of the services there was good order.—Argonaut.
